

HARVEST FESTIVAL SCHEDULED SUNDAY

The Third Order of St. Francis will give its annual Harvest festival next Sunday. It will be held in the Parish hall of Sacred Heart church and will start with a chicken & la king dinner, which will be served immediately after the 10:30 mass. The women of the order will continue to serve throughout the afternoon.

Throughout the day there will be games and amusements, and a musical program will be presented.

The purpose of this festival is to raise funds to carry on charity work during the year. The Third Order has charge of all work of this kind which is done in the parish.

At Christmas time it sends out a number of baskets of food and during the year supplies needed, clothing, shoes and school books to children and helps others in any way possible.

Admission fee to the festival will be some article of usable clothing, canned food or fruit or a cash offering.

Everybody is invited to the Harvest festival.

MIDLAND

MIDLAND — Midland grange held their yearly booster night at the hall Friday evening, October 8. The program opened with the officers' drill and presentation of the flag, music played by Mrs. Lillian Thomas, followed by a talk on "The Good of the Order," by Chaplain Walter Folsom.

A very interesting and entertaining program was presented as follows: 1, solo, "Sweetheart School Days," by Mrs. Lovelady of Poe Valley grange; 2, "Highland Fling," dance by Inez Dutton; 3, old time guitar music, by William Stepp; 4, duet, "Billy Boy," by Jean Burnett and Betty Largent; 5, skit, "Farmer Brown Meets the Grange Fairy," by Rose Marie, Betty Doland and Cora Young; 6, recitation, "Boy Blue," by John Burnett; 7, talk by Pomona Master Alva Lewis and Poe Valley Master Rex High on "Membership Drive and Good of the Order." The evening was brought to a close with dancing, and refreshments were served by the home economics club.

DEATH RANG FIRST

NEW YORK, (AP)—John B. Kennedy rang the bell of Mrs. Alice Cahill's Bronx apartment to collect a life insurance premium.

One of Mrs. Cahill's five small children answered.

"Mama won't wake up," the child said.

Kennedy tried to awaken Mrs. Cahill. Then he called police. An ambulance surgeon said she had died about 24 hours before.

GRATITUDE

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—Mrs. E. L. Bishop thought she was being nice to a young man in allowing him to use the telephone in the Nebraska Wesleyan university office. She didn't think the young man was so nice because her purse containing $5 was missing after he left.

Twists and Turns in The News

ILLEGAL APPETITE
MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—J. E. Gaughan was in jail today for trying to eat in court.

Gaughan, charged with working as a plumber without a city certificate, suddenly seized and crammed into his mouth an affidavit used as evidence against him.

Judge Cecil Curry supervised recovery of the document and then sent the defendant to jail for contempt.

SPOTTY ALIBI

PUEBLO, Colo. (AP)—County Judge Hubert Glover quickly dismissed juvenile court when a young girl brought before him as delinquent calmly said she had scarlet fever.

An Oklahoma doctor advised her to come to Colorado, she explained. She was placed in observation hospital.

PAYING CUSTOMER

WEBSTER, Ia. (AP)—Traffic courts do a rushing business so far as Ralph Cramer is concerned.

One day recently he was fined $3 for failure to stop at an arterial street. The following day he paid another fine of $25 here, and also at Jewell, Ia., for reckless driving.

WINS DIVORCE

RENO, Nev., Oct. 14 (AP)—Carl A. Lowe, formerly of Grand Junction, Colo., and formerly in the furniture business in Klamath Falls, Ore., and Niles, Calif., won an uncontested divorce on grounds of cruelty today from Mrs. Margaret A. Lowe of San Diego.

They were married here July 15, 1934.
