I. Edwards, refereed basketball games, 8; bikes recovered, 2; licenses issued to date, $583; total, $149.25.

Car Stolen—The Marshall Cornett company reported the theft of a car registered to Mrs. Casebeer of Bly from the used car lot on February 27.

To Tionesta—Dwight Gilchrist, Boy Scout executive for the Modoc area council, will visit Tionesta, Tulelake, Malin and Merrill Thursday on business.

From Portland—Patricia Barrett has recently returned from Portland where she spent the past month and has visited here with her mother, Mrs. Russell Gibbon. Miss Barrett plans to leave this week to return to Ketchikan, Alaska, where she has spent the past several years.

Home From South—Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Milhorn have returned from a two weeks' vacation in southern California where they reported the rains so terrific they were unable to travel on the highways. Milhorn has resumed his position on the city police force.

Buying Potatoes—Gene Katz, of the K. and W. Fruit and Vegetable company of Seattle, was in the city Wednesday on a potato-buying visit. Katz' firm supplies the U. S. army with fruit and vegetables in the Philippine Islands.

Watch Gone—Mrs. R. J. Johnson, 2316 Eberlein street, reported to city police the loss of a gold wrist watch which she said was missing from her jewel case on Monday, March 3.

On Trip—T. J. Prather, well known Keno merchant, left early Tuesday morning by motor for a tour of California. He was accompanied on the trip by his daughter.

On Vacation—Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Brink and children are spending a two weeks' vacation in the north. They will visit relatives in Portland and will enjoy skiing at Timberline lodge at Mt. Hood.

Parents of Son—Word has been received here of the birth of an 8-pound son to Lieut. and Mrs. William C. Holley (Lois Hout), in the hospital at Fort Riley, Kansas on Sunday evening, March 2. The baby has been named William C. Holley Jr., and is the first grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hout of this city. Holley, who is a first lieutenant in the regular army is now stationed at the fort. Mrs. Hout has been spending the past several weeks at the fort with her son-in-law and daughter.

Son Born—Mr. and Mrs. Pat McAuliffe of Fort Klamath are parents of a son, their second boy, born at Klamath Valley hospital early Thursday morning. The child is the grandson of Jack McAuliffe, well known rancher of the Fort Klamath district.

Cost Stylist—Ben Jacobson, factory stylist for Rothmoor coats, will be at LaPointes Friday and Saturday of this week, with a special showing of new spring styles and fabrics.

Elected—Patricia Gallagher, 446 South Riverside, has been elected vice president of the Whitman college chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

Four-H News

KENO "FERNHOPPERS" FORESTRY CLUB
The Keno "Fernhoppers" Forestry club, held their second meeting on Monday, March 3, in the Keno high school library.

After a short business meeting, the members took a short hike to the location of their proposed tree nursery.

CHILQUIN "JOLLY COOKS" COOKING CLUB

The president called the meeting to order.

We had two yells, then discussed our club work. Mrs. Byrnes wants us all to have our project card completed by the next meeting.

Some of us brought our lunch to club. We are all going to bring them next time.

We played two games, "Gossip" and "Who Sir, Me Sir?"

The meeting was adjourned.

ALGOMA "WOCUS BABY BEEF CLUB"

We held our fourth 4-H meeting on February 25, 1941 at the home of the George Hagelstein's. All the members were present at this meeting.

All calves of the 4-H members in our club are getting along fine. Bob and Billy Burgess have Angus calves and Dorothy, Ruth and Lewis Hagelstein have Hereford calves.

OLENE "BUCKAROO'S" BABY BEEF AND DAIRY CLUB

The regular meeting of the Olene "Buckaroo's" baby beef and dairy club was held at Donna Kinney's home.

Two visitors were present from Tulelake. They were John Waldrup and Russ McFall.

Three members were absent. The opening song was, "We're Here For Fun." The 4-H club pledge was given. The minutes were read and approved, roll was called.

Our leader explained three projects that the various clubs can give at the spring fair. They were demonstration, talk or play on safety. The club decided to have three pairs give a demonstration at one of their club meetings and the best ones give it at the spring fair.

Those chosen to try are, Jean

Masten and Bob Horton, Pat Masten and Taylor High, Helen Sullivan and Stanley Masten. The meeting was adjourned and refreshments were served. Games were played.

Helen Sullivan, News reporter.

SPRAGUE RIVER "CROOKED STITCHER'S" SEWING CLUB

The Crooked-River Stitches of Sprague River met in the home-making room Wednesday, February 26, 1941 for a work meeting.

Our aprons are to be finished by next meeting. We are going to start our dresses. One of the youngest members of the club, Agatha Schonchin, is now in the lead with her apron nearly finished.

The girls present this meeting were Virginia Godard, Charlotte Runelhart, Dolores Cody, Agatha Schonchin and Joanne Little.

Joanne Little, News reporter.

KENO "FERNHOPPERS" FORESTRY CLUB

The Keno "Fernhoppers" Forestry club had their first meeting on February 26, 1941 in the Keno high school library. Our leader, Emery Nye, plans many trips in the future.

The officers are Kenneth Curtis, president; Billy Roberts, vice president; Johnnie Holm, secretary; Gary Crickshank, representative; and John Ogle, news reporter. The other members are Willard Ivie, Roy Herrick, Bobby Swanson, Harold Ogle, and Robert Colly.

A meeting will be held next Tuesday and every Tuesday and Thursday at 3:05 p. m.

John Ogle, News reporter.

FAIRHAVEN COOKING CLUB

The meeting of February 21, was called to order by the president, Joe Sellers. The secretary, Alma Ferrill was absent. Our leader was late. Amolee Young, Bobby Sergeant and Alfred Martinson each brought a baked apple. We judged them. Amolee Young led us in the club pledge. We sang "Our Club."

Alfred Martinson, News reporter.

PELICAN BUSY COOKERS

The Busy Cookers met Monday evening, February 24, with the leader, Mrs. Blanch Jones. There were 10 girls present and Mrs. Carrie Rush, assistant leader. Our lesson was all about angel food cakes. The girls were very much interested in the demonstration by the leader, as an angel food cake was made and baked and later served with ice cream. The families of the Busy Cookers may expect to eat many delicious cakes in the next few weeks, at least until the spring fair. Most of the girls hope to enter a cake at the fair.

CHILQUIN "CLUB OF NINE LITTLE BEES" SEWING

The Club of Nine Little Bees have been very busy indeed. We have made three things in our club meetings and we have only two more things to finish. We have made a tablecloth, a pincushion, and a needle case.

We are now working on a bag which we are weaving.

Billie Jean Carson, News reporter.

ALTAMONT FORESTRY

The Altamont Forestry club had a very interesting meeting Monday. A committee of the forestry club went out to get tree specimens. They were abies concolor (white fir), pinus ponderosa (yellow pine), pinus contorta (lodgepole pine), and some slick leaf branches.

Mr. Sarginson of the forestry division, described all of the various types of trees and cones that we brought in.

Our trees from Corvallis arrived the other day and we heeled them in till we're ready to plant them.
