

LUISETTI SETS NEW 1941 AAU SCORING RECORD

NEW FISH FACTS
First meeting of the Oregon State Game commission under new powers granted by the recently passed Senate Bill 147 resulted in two new regulations important to Klamath anglers.

The first makes it unlawful to place or deposit bait in any form in Oregon stream or lake waters for the purpose of "luring or attracting" game fish to the place or places where the same is deposited, unless said bait is affixed to a fish hook and line or pole "in the manner usually called fishing with bait."

Which means that if you're going fishing, don't try to make it a sure thing. Attracting fish to your boat or private eddy in clusters makes what should be a sport only "shooting fish in a barrel," if we may draw a seeming parallel.

This looks like score No. 1 for Senate Bill 147 and a game commission which now includes Klamathite Francis Olds.

Second rule okayed by the body bars the use of minnows in any waters from which the minnows have not been taken, which is to say anglers may not catch minnows in Lake Ewauna and use them as bait in East Lake, for example.

Purpose of this is to halt the tremendous minnow growth in trout waters. According to our most learned fishermen, the bait-fish eat trout eggs and in addition destroy brook trout feed. The trouble lies not in actual use of minnows for bait but the habit of most anglers in dumping their excess into the lake at day's end.

Because of this situation the commission has found it necessary already to poison South Twin lake and completely restock it. Poisoning will be done May 1 and an open season, which goes into effect immediately, will be held until then.

NEW MANAGEMENT
Lloyd E. Robideaux, well known Bend wholesaler, has leased the East lake resort for the next two years from Owner Bill Tyson, who has managed it in the past.

Robideaux says he's booked solid for the season's first two weeks which, incidentally, dates from Thursday, May 1, and not Saturday, May 3, as has been rumored.

Work on a new three-story lodge will be begun this fall, Robideaux said, and will include a basement recreation room.

Creighton in As Foe of Cougars

KANSAS CITY, March 19 (AP)—The Missouri Valley conference, made up of schools of the Big Six members parted company with in 1928, carried the midwest's banner in the eight-team hunt for a new NCAA basketball champion.

Creighton, king of the valley remnants, won that privilege by spilling Iowa State, one of the half dozen schools that succeeded a decade and a half ago.

The cyclones, best the Big Six could offer, lost a 57 to 48 verdict last night to the Omaha Bluejays who switched from their usual fast break to neat passing and the scoring of Ed Beisser, powerful center, frot the triumph.

By its victory, Creighton became the opponent of Washington State in one of Friday night's two games here in the opening round of the western finals. Coach Jack Friel of the Pacific Coast champions, left the Cougar train in Montana and flew here in time to see the game.

Oakes Named Grid Coach At Wyoming

LARAMIE, Wyo., March 19 (AP)—The University of Wyoming, 1941 Big Seven conference basketball title winner and anxious for gridiron success, chose Bernard F. (Bunny) Oakes last night as head football coach.

The energetic, bald-domed Oakes, 42, dismissed a year ago as Colorado's grid coach, signed a three-year contract to succeed C. H. (Okie) Blanchard and return after one season's absence to the Big Seven conference. Oakes' salary was not disclosed. Blanchard drew $4000 a year, it was understood.

Oakes, who has been working for a master's degree at the University of Illinois, traveled by transport plane to reach Laramie within 10 hours after the board of trustees announced the assignment of Blanchard to the newly created position of dean of students.

Trojans Defeat Cal Baseballers, 8-7

LOS ANGELES, March 19 (AP)—The University of Southern California baseball team Tuesday defeated the University of California squad, 8-7 in the second California Intercollegiate association game between the two schools at Bovard field.

The Trojans went off to a flying start in the first inning when they batted in four runs, but the Bears from Berkeley managed to take the lead away by the sixth inning with a series of five runs.

Methodists Eliminate Denver Five

Hank Makes 22 Points In First Period, 28 And Four Minutes To Go

DENVER, March 19 (UP)—A fighting Southern Methodist university basketball team tonight eliminated the highly favored Denver Legion before a stunned crowd of 5000 that had just seen Hank Luisetti set a new 1941 AAU tournament scoring record.

The Mustangs, playing under the banner of James K. Wilson, of Dallas, defeated 31-30 the Denver team that won the 1937 and 1939 titles and was runners-up last year.

Star-Studded
The Texans refused to be awed by the star-studded Denver team, fought on even terms for the first half and at halftime led 17-14.

The Legions came back fighting and tied the score midway in the period with a basket by Veteran Jack McCracken. The lead see-sawed back and forth until the final minute when Bryon Loyd tied the score at 30 all. A free throw by Johnny Sebeck ended it, giving the Mustangs the biggest upset of the tournament.

Bob (Alec) Gruening, four-time all-American center, led the out-fought Legions with 14 points while Loyd scored 11 and Rusty Baucus made nine for the collegians.

The Mustangs, who play the Oakland, Calif., Athens club tomorrow night, are the first college team to gain the quarter-finals since 1934.

Luisetti scoring a point a minute in the first period led the San Francisco Olympics into the quarter-finals with a 67-47 victory over the Colorado Springs, Colo., Martins.

All Over Floor
The former Stanford star was all over the floor, breaking up passes and taking the ball from the backboard in addition to scoring 22 points in the first period. He added six in the second for a new 1941 tournament high of 28. The 5000 fans cheered loudly when he left the game with four minutes left.

Advancing to the quarter finals along with the Olympics were the 1940 championship Bartlesville, Okla., Oilers.

Two quick field goals by Luisetti early in the first half erased an 11-8 lead the Martins had run up and after that there was no stopping the west coast team. Olympics led 33-18 at the half.

Ralph Giannini scored eight field goals for 16 points for the Olympics. Harry Simmons was high for the outclassed Martins with 13.

ASTORIA COACH DISLIKES CONDUCT
ASTORIA, Ore., March 19 (UP) Coach Wally Palmberg of Astoria high school's championship basketball team won't take another team to Salem until he is sure "unsportsmanlike conduct" of Salem students won't be repeated.

NEW SNOW CHEERS MOUNT HOOD SKIERS
PORTLAND, Ore., March 19 (UP)—New snow fell on Mount Hood Tuesday as skiing enthusiasts had begun to fear the winter sports season was over.

The Mount Hood national forest service reported two inches of powdery snow fell at Timberline, bringing the total to 68 inches. A trace of snow also fell at Government Camp.

Abe Simon, Too, Is Confident of Win

Ponderous New Yorker Convinced He Can Wrest Title From Bomber

By CHARLES DUNKLEY
DETROIT, Mich., March 19 (AP) — Ponderous Abe Simon, never knocked off his feet in 50 tough battles, presented a one-man ballyhoo in his own behalf today over his chances of accomplishing the seemingly impossible — defeating Joe Louis.

Simon says nobody believes him, but he is convinced, deep in his heart, that he has an excellent chance against the brown bomber, whom he meets in Detroit's Olympic arena Friday night in a bout scheduled for 20 rounds, or less. The New York challenger says his conviction on the fact that he never has been hurt by a blow, that he's never been floored, and that Louis, with all his devastating power, cannot hurt him.

Simon, stretching 6 feet, 4 inches, and weighing 255 pounds, has the physique to stand up under a terrific bombardment. He has powerful shoulders and arms, and a bulging chest, and not an ounce of fat on his huge frame. He has the biggest pair of hands in boxing, each measuring 14 1/2 inches.

"I realize I'm perhaps alone in my own convictions," Simon said today, "but I'm sure Louis can't hurt me. I'm getting a crack at the heavyweight championship, and I'm going to make the most of it. If Louis can't hurt me, what chance has he got to knock me out? He couldn't even knock down Tommy Farr or Arthur Godoy in their first engagements and will find me just as tough, if not tougher."

The champion plans to enter the ring for his fifteenth defense of the title scaling around 202 pounds. At that figure the world's champion will have a 53-pound weight disadvantage. But he's been up against that kind of bulk before, having flattened Primo Carnera who scaled 267 pounds.

Promoter Mike Jacobs arrived from New York to superintend the final details of the battle. With tickets selling from $1 to $5, Jacobs figures on a $50,000 gate of which Louis will receive 40 per cent and the challenger 12 1/2 per cent.

Louis will come out of the army . . . Maybe he'll come out of the mines.

Swimming Record Set By Girl, 14

Patty Aspinall Retains 220-Yard Breaststroke Title at Women's Meet

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 19 (UP) — Fourteen-year-old Patty Aspinall of Indianapolis, Ind., established a new American record of 3:07.8 tonight as she retained her 200-yard breaststroke title at the national senior women's indoor AAU swimming and diving championships here.

Churning the waters of the Buffalo Athletic club's pool furiously, the 100-pound Indianapolis girl splashed to an easy victory over Helen Rains of New York City, who finished second. Joan Fogie, Riviera club, Indianapolis, was third, and her sister, June, finished fourth and last.

First Three Close
Miss Aspinall, defending the title which she won last year, cracked the previous American record by one and two-tenths seconds. Her best previous time for the event was 3:10.1, made last year at Miami, Fla.

In the opening event of the four-day aquatic carnival, Patricia McWhorter of Newark, N. J., won the national 100-yard freestyle championship in a thrilling race with Brenda Heiser of Portland, Ore., favored to win the event, and Dorothy Leonard of Worcester, Mass. Miss Heiser barely nosed out Miss Leonard for the runnerup post. Joyce McRae, also of Portland, trailed the field.

Defends Title
Only inches separated the first three women in the 100-yard freestyle as they splashed down the home stretch. Miss McWhorter's time of 1:02.8 did not threaten the national record for the distance.

A new national indoor low board diving champion was crowned when Anne Ross, St. George Dragon club, Brooklyn, captured top honors with 119.91 points. Barbara Ramsar of the Shawnee Country club, Wilmette, Ill., was second with 110.76 points, and Martha Blair, of Battle Creek, Mich., finished third with 100.68 points.

MOUTHY
Cichlid fish carry their eggs in their mouths until they hatch, going without food for the three weeks' incubation period. After that, the mouths are available to the young as a place of refuge.
