IN CLASS BY HIMSELF—To polish up the lustre on his title as king of world's hurdlers, Fred Wolcott, Texas and former Rice Institute star, skims over a barrier at the Knights of Columbus track meet in New York, to equal the world's record of 0:27.2 for 60 yards over four hurdles, in semi-final. He did 7.3 seconds in annexing final from Ed Dugger and Allan Tolmich.

SHARE THE CHAIR POLICY—One chair in the home of their master, Arthur F. Lear of Derry, N. H., serves for Red Boy, the English setter, and his pal, Tom, an unpedigreed cat.

PACIFIC INTERLUDE—Comfort comes first with muscular, well-padded Ernest Hemingway, novelist, who strolls arm in arm with his recent bride, Martha Gellhorn, a magazine writer, in Honolulu. They're en route to the Orient.

TRAVELS—Premier R. G. Menzies of Australia traveled 21,000 miles by air to get to London for defense conferences.

From housewife to junk collector . . . this British woman cheerfully salvages waste material to be made into war goods.

'Jawin' Jawn

Though appearing somewhat aged by his recent experiences in the political arena, John L. is still the old dynamic Lewis as he warns joint meeting of unionists and mine operators in New York that his United Mine Workers won't accept a counterproposal to their wage increase demands.
