FFA TEAM OF MALIN TAKES SPEECH PRIZE

MALIN—The Malin FFA team won the southern Oregon parliamentary contest held at Grants Pass last week.

This gives the Malin squad the privilege to represent the southern Oregon district in the state contest held at Corvallis April 25 to compete with the winners from the five other districts. A. E. Street's boys are the only team to win the banner twice, having won in 1939. The first team to win the banner three times will keep it permanently. The Malin boys have three times won the sub-district banner which they will keep.

A. E. Street is the advisor for the team composed of Donald Ratliff, president; Marion Kirkpatrick, vice president; Bob Short, secretary; Edward McCully, treasurer, and Joe Cholard, recorder.
