Called to Army—Rodeo fans will be interested to learn that Fritz Truan, No. one cowboy and rodeo performer, has been called to the army and that next in line, piling up Rodeo Association of America points, is Billy McMackin of Trail City, S. D., who performed here last year and took pay money on several occasions. Truan is a former Klamath buckaroo and brother of Bill Truan who was killed shortly after the first big rodeo here.

Dance Scheduled—The last of a series of parties given by the Winter Dancing club is scheduled for Saturday night, March 23, in the Willard hotel ballroom and has been designated as the March Hop Hosts for the party will be Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Post and Mr. and Mrs. Matt Kohn Jr. A number of cocktail parties are planned before the dance which will feature the spring theme.

Visitors—Mrs. Jean Branson, accompanied by her son, Phillip, and daughter, Sharon Sue, spent Thursday in Klamath Falls. The Bransons live at Hart Mountain national monument where Branson serves as superintendent of the antelope refuge. They returned to their home after visiting here with Hazel Morrison.

Recovers—Leigh Ackerman, police judge, was able to return to his desk Thursday following a severe cold. Ackerman was unable to leave Thursday for Eugene where city officials are attending the League of Oregon Cities convention.

To Eugene—Mayor John Houston, Councilman Walter Wisendanger, R. H. Bussman, Rollin Cantrall and Harvey Martin, left early Thursday morning by motor for Eugene to attend the League of Oregon Cities convention.

No Accidents—The city police accident peg was blank Thursday with "nearly an accident" reported for the preceding 24 hours. There were no new reports by officers and police reported it one of the quietest days on record.

Take House—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Larsen and two sons have taken a house at 1604 Mitchell street following their return here from Medford where they spent the past two years.

Recovering—Buddy Weston, 10-year-old son of Leo Weston of Tulelake, is reported greatly improved at Hillside hospital where he is receiving treatment for a leg fracture.

From Dunsuir—Mrs. Timothy Murphy of Dunsuir is expected here Friday night to spend the weekend with friends and relatives.

Moved—Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Langell, who spent the winter in Ashland, have moved back to Klamath Falls.

Still at Hospital—Mrs. Earl Dumm, who recently submitted to a major operation, still remains at the Klamath Valley hospital. Although Mrs. Dumm's condition is improved, nothing definite has been settled as to when she will return to her home.

Scouts to Parade—Girl Scouts are requested to meet at Second and Klamath avenue Saturday morning at 9 o'clock to participate in the parade that is a preliminary to the Girl Scouts-Boy Scouts-Camp Fire Girls drive for funds.

Visitor Here—Bernice Hector Coad, former Klamath Falls girl now residing in Nyssa, was a visitor here Thursday. Mrs. Coad was secretary to State Representative Henry Semon at the session of the legislature just closed.

Judge Hay Here—Circuit Judge Arthur D. Hay of Lakeview was in Klamath Falls Thursday to attend to circuit court business here on cases to which he has been assigned by the supreme court.

Daughter Born—Howard Dewey, route 3, box 602, employed by the Pelican Bay Lumber company, is the proud father of a daughter born on his birthday, March 19, at Klamath Valley hospital. Both mother and infant are doing nicely.

To Malin—Mrs. W. O. Smith drove to Malin Thursday in the interests of the local unit of Bundles for Britain. The Malin women sponsored a successful benefit for the mobile kitchen fund St. Patrick's day, Monday, in Czech hall.

Fire Call—The city fire ladders were roused from their beds at 1:45 a. m. Thursday when a call came from the E. J. Schnebeck home, 428 Jefferson street, where an oil stove was flooded and threatened damage.

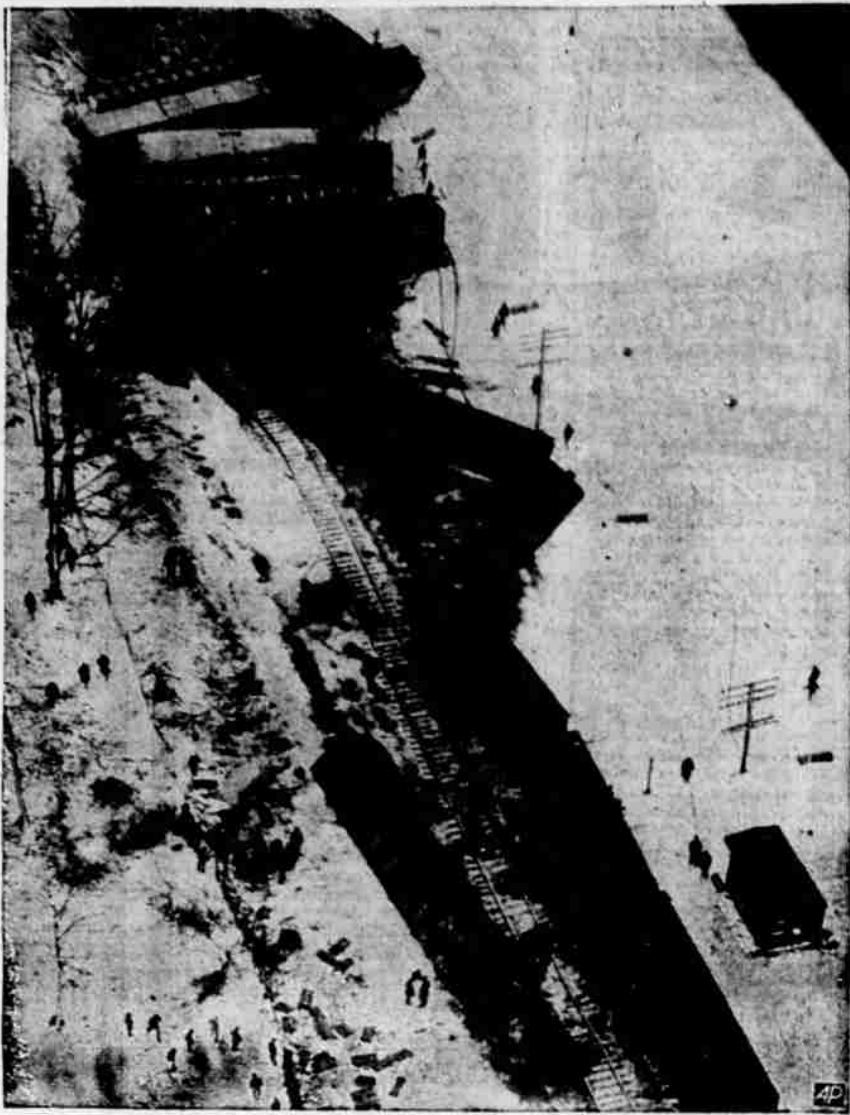

In Hospital—Ardis Rumer, employed in the real estate offices of J. E. Hosking, submitted to an operation on her nose at Klamath Valley hospital Wednesday. She was reported improved.

From Ashland—Max De Mille of Ashland was a business visitor in Klamath Falls Monday.

The deceased was a native of Moultrie, Ill., and was aged 50 years 5 months and 24 days when called. She is survived by her husband, Cecil; three sons, Cecil W., Everett and Robert, one daughter, Mrs. Bertha Herrick; two grandchildren, Beverly Dawn and Shirley Ann Herrick, all of Klamath Falls; five sisters, Irene Pfingling of Littleton, Colo., Margaret Evans of Huntington Park, Calif., Mary Shook of Whittier, Calif., Senada Wibel of Phoenix, Ariz., and Olive Catlin of Kutch, Colo.; four brothers, Robert Ross of Patterson, Calif., Earl of Denver, Colo., Bert of Los Angeles, Calif., and Jerry of Phoenix, Ariz. The remains rest in Ward's Klamath Funeral Home, 925 High street, where friends may call after noon Friday, March 21. The notice of the funeral arrangements will be announced at a later date.

175 Persons Injured in Train Wreck

This general air view shows twisted masses of box cars and coaches strewn about a junction where an Erie freight and passenger commuter trains collided inside the government's $19,000,000 arsenal at Ravenna, O. The splintered coach wherein a large number of the 175 injured were riding is in the foreground.

MEET CYNTHIA, OR NO. 1.—Until he settled on a name, Cynthia H. Loyd Child, Curtiss' chief test pilot, called his new daughter "No. 1," after the fashion of aviation in calling new planes by number. The Childs, shown in Buffalo, had expected a boy. Child is the pilot who hit 575 m.p.h. speed during a free dive over Buffalo in January, 1939.

HOW IS YOUR HEALTH?

The Cassel Brothers Chiropractic Clinic announces a special clinic to be held in their offices

Friday - Saturday - Monday
MARCH 21, 22, 24

The newest type of diagnostic instrument, the HEMOVITAMETER, the only one of its kind in Southern Oregon, will be used during the clinic.

The HEMOVITAMETER scientifically diagnoses your condition, finding WHAT, WHERE, and HOW SERIOUS your ailments. No clothing removed.

The HEMOVITAMETER reveals the foods you should eat. It tells the exact food element you lack to help maintain the normal mineral balance of your body. This one feature alone is worth more than the price of the examination.

During This Clinic You Will Be Given the Regular Examination for $5
