ALL OFFICERS OF RED CROSS RETAIN POSTS

Frank Jenkins presided at the annual meeting of Klamath county chapter, American Red Cross, held Wednesday evening, March 26, at the Elk hotel. A representative group of 100 employed the program arranged by Mrs. Matt A. Rauw, Mrs. Sylvia McClellan and Mrs. A. P. Heup. Decorations of red, white and blue were carried out with red and white carnations in blue vases, small Red Cross nurse dolls and an effective scene of Red Cross activities centered the speakers' table.

Mayor John Houston opened the meeting by leading the members in singing "God Bless America." A musical program was given by Buford Howard, baritone, accompanied by Mrs. Howard, and Guy Bates, violinist, accompanied by Harold Ayres. Chairman Earl B. Redman introduced the officers and committee chairmen, explaining their work and giving a well earned praise to each. Fred E. Fleet, chairman, nominating committee, reported the committee recommended holding each officer for one more year. A unanimous vote was given the recommendation of the committee and the following will serve Klamath county chapter for 1941: Earl B. Redman, chairman; J. V. Owens, vice chairman; Leslie Rogers, treasurer.

The nominating committee recommended the addition of several new members to the present Red Cross board. The complete membership of the board now includes F. W. Hamilton, roll call chairman; Howard J. Boyd, first aid chairman; Dwight E. Gilchrist, water safety; Mrs. C. E. Dennis, production chairman; Mrs. Dean Miller, nursing chairman; Fred E. Fleet, disaster chairman; Mrs. W. E. Urmsion, Junior Red Cross; Mrs. C. F. Scharfenstein, public information; Dr. Peter Rozendal, medical adviser; Mayor John Houston; Mrs. F. W. Gilchrist; Mrs. W. Walter Zimmerman; Mrs. Phillip Cole, Chilquin; Mrs. A. E. Stonehouse, Algoma; Mrs. F. E. Trotman, Merrill; Mrs. J. Slemore, Fort Klamath; Mayor A. Kalina, Mrs. Victor Vasek, Malin; Mrs. Ross Putnam, Keno; George Walton, Frank Jenkins, Lloyd L. Low, Reverend L. K. Johnson, Fred E. Fleet, Earl Reynolds, Mitchell Tillotson, Angus Newton, Ted Medford, Mrs. Jennie Hurn, Mrs. Altha Urquhart, Mrs. A. J. Lyle, Mrs. J. H. Poppy, Mrs. J. H. Gallagher, Mrs. Matt A. Rauw and Mrs. Harry Wayne.

The roll call committee consisting of G. A. Krause, G. C. Blohm, Mitchell Tillotson, Mrs. M. A. Rauw, R. A. Thompson, Lee Smith, headed by Fred W. Hamilton, chairman, was congratulated and appreciation expressed for their outstanding work during 1940. Klamath county chapter membership is now the largest in the state next to Multnomah county and is one of seven in the entire west to show a 25 per cent gain over previous years. "The strength of the Red Cross is in its membership," stated Chairman Redman, "and it is gratifying to record each year a steady increase in Klamath county."

An annual report of the work of each Red Cross service in Klamath county was presented in book form to members present and recognition was accorded Mrs. Howard Boyd and Gladys Ongman for their work of assembling and making them entirely at Red Cross headquarters. Much information was included in the book, making it a personal report from the executive secretary to all Red Cross members. It stated "The financial statements of your Red Cross are open for public inspection at all times. Members of the executive committee will gladly answer any questions. Visitors to the Red Cross office are welcome."

The speaker, Nyle Christensen, assistant director of first aid, life saving and accident prevention for the Pacific area, American Red Cross, gave a most informative talk. A young man of pleasing personality, he held his audience easily and his intimate stories brought the work of the Red Cross nearer home.

Out of town guests at the dinner meeting were Mayor and Mrs. A. Kalina, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Vasek and Mrs. Antonia Stejskal of Malin, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, Henley, and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Putnam, Keno.
