

City Briefs

From Portland—Visitors here Thursday included Walter A. Duffy, regional director of FSA, Portland, en route home from Chicago where he attended a director's meeting. Duffy was taken to the Fort Rock country in Lake county by Leonard Rice, associate county supervisor, and they were met by Verne F. Livey, state director from Portland, and A. M. Christianson, project conservationist of FSA, Portland. Following a tour of the Fort Rock area the men left for their homes in the north.

Luncheon Planned—Members of the Merchants Credit Service bureau will meet at the Elk hotel at 12 o'clock noon Monday at which time A. C. Yaden will give a second talk on bankruptcy. Yaden is a referee in bankruptcy and his first talk was so well received, members have asked for him to speak again. Any merchant or business man may attend the luncheon whether a member of the bureau or not. Reservations may be made by calling the bureau, phone 5161.

Show Pictures—Gus Anderson will show colored moving pictures after the regular meeting of the Vasa Order of America on Saturday evening, April 5, in the IOOF hall. Some of the pictures are local ones and the others have been taken in various places in the United States. Refreshments will be served afterwards. Showing of the film will begin at 9:15 p. m. The entertainment is free and the public is invited.

On Vacation—Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bard, both employed at Fluhrer's bakery, will leave Saturday morning on a two week's vacation for Wichita, Kan., to visit Mr. Bard's parents. They will be accompanied by Mrs. Bard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Cain who will visit in Omaha with Mrs. Cain's sister. They will make the trip by motor.

From Fresno—Friends of Chester Shuler, formerly associated with Klamath Union high school, will be interested to learn he is expected here Sunday morning to spend several days with Mr. and Mrs. Henri Conrad of Jefferson street. Shuler has spent the past year in Fresno, where he is associated with the schools there.

Picked Up in South—Robert Ogden, on parole from here after conviction of forgery, is being held in Sacramento. After he serves time there on a charge filed in Sacramento, he will probably be brought back here as a parole violator, sheriff's officers said.

Appointed—Russell Andrews, one-time instructor at Klamath Union high school, was recently appointed assistant superintendent of Rocky Mountain national park, Don Fisher of the national park service revealed Friday.

To Portland—A. E. Edson, business agent for the local AFL truck drivers' union, left Thursday for Portland.

In Lakeview—Dwight Gilchrist, Modoc Area Boy Scout executive, spent Thursday in Lakeview.

Insurance Meet—The regular monthly meeting of the Life Underwriters association of southern Oregon will take place Monday noon, April 7, at Hickman's cafe. The principal speaker will be L. B. Staver, trust officer of the US National bank of Portland, whose subject will be "Insurance Trusts." It is understood that Staver is a very capable speaker and is well versed on this subject. Every member is urged to attend and bring a guest.

From Redding—Mrs. Ray Brackman of Redding is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. McGilvray, at 2161 Eberlein avenue. Brackman spent Tuesday and Wednesday here on his layover days from his work in Redding. Mrs. McGilvray and infant son have been moved to their home from the Klamath Valley hospital.

Return—Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kennedy of 603 Martin street, arrived home Monday evening from Beloit, Wis., where they were called because of the serious illness of Mrs. Kennedy's brother, A. H. Pecka, who passed away after their arrival. They spent a month visiting friends and relatives in several cities including Rockford, Ill.

Return Home—Mr. and Mrs. Burt E. Hawkins have returned from Portland, where they spent several days, Hawkins attending a meeting of postmasters. While north they were guests at the Jackson day dinner.

From Likely—Mr. and Mrs. Gary Williams and Mrs. Williams' mother, all residents of Likely, Calif., for a good many years, were shoppers in Klamath Falls Friday.

In Klamath—I. R. Friderger of Ashland, made a business trip to Klamath Falls Thursday.

The opportunity of America today . . . is to set in motion forces that will help to distribute the abundance that is present in this country.—Murray D. Lincoln, new president of the Co-operative league.

Fruit juices, milk products, and beverage extracts, are being made in powdered form, with an atomizer, by a Danish firm.

GIRL SCOUTS HEAR COUNCIL WOMEN TALKS

SPRAGUE RIVER—Mrs. J. P. Wells, chairman of the Klamath county organization committee of Girl Scouts, Mrs. Dent Savage and Hazel Morrison, members of the council, spent Tuesday visiting with leaders and scouts in Sprague River. The visitors talked to local committee women regarding future progressive moves for the local troop.

In the afternoon the group met with the local troop. Mrs. Savage gave a talk outlining the objectives and opportunities of scouting.

Joanne Little of the local troop was elected to attend Miss Gaudette's nature training course in Klamath Falls on April 5. Miss Gaudette is a nature specialist of the scouts from New York City. Mrs. Wells said Joanne is the first representative from a lone troop in Klamath county. She congratulated the local girls on their fine record and stated that an unusual number of merit badges had been won.

Mrs. Wells is anxious to see a Brownie troop organized here and indications point toward such a move in the near future.

Now Dugouts for Dressing Rooms

The war motif has evidenced itself on the bathing beach at Seaside, Ore., where these dugouts, reinforced and banked with sand, and roomy enough for three, are used for changing clothes. The girls say they make ideal bath houses.

NEW SHOE STORE OPENS SATURDAY

A new shoe store, the Model Shoe Store, will open Saturday in the former Akard location, according to Ed. B. Goeckner, who will operate the new shop. Both Mr. and Mrs. Goeckner are well known in Klamath Falls, as she is the former Helen Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Anderson, long time residents in the Klamath area.

TULELAKE HIGH SENIOR PLAY SET

TULELAKE—A case of mistaken identity with Phil Blakeley, a young musician trying to explain to an excited citizenry of Meadville that he is not the illustrious Phil Hokins, radio star, creates no end of funny situations in "To Beat the Band," a three-act comedy to be presented by the senior class of the Tulelake high school on Friday, April 18.

The play should be put on the "must list" of entertainment, according to members of the senior class who promise that Petunia, the colored maid to be played by pretty Bette Campbell, and O. Hoe Jolly, the volunteer fire chief in the person of Neal Welsh will add spice to all three acts.

Players are Peggy Lagan, Martha Allen, Neal Welsh, Doran Meredith, Dora Schindler, Maxine Barks, Virginia Jones, Bette Campbell, Conrad Shultz, Bob McClymonds, Keith Gentry, Barbara Bentley, Patricia Thomas and Carl Coulson.
