

GARDENIAS were worn by Marlys Steinseifer at the Girls League dance. Her partner is Charles McCandless.

SOCIETY

By LOIS
STEWART

America Theme Dance

One of the gayest of last week's affairs, and certainly a party long anticipated by the younger group who study their advanced Three Rs at Klamath Union high school, was the annual Girls' league dance given in the new boy's gymnasium Saturday evening, March the twenty-ninth.

Taking as their dance theme—"America"—the patriotic colors of red, white and blue were used effectively about the large gym and a canopy of red, white and blue streamers was most entrancing.

Patrons and patronesses for the party were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Emery, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hammer, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Eschebeck. During the evening a group of dance numbers were given by students of McCown's studio.

Frocks were spring-like and formal, and even the underclassmen, appearing at the big high school party for the first time, wore floor-length skirts and corsages.

Chairman of the dancing party was Phyllis Aubrey, of the Dance-a-Lot club, and president of the Girls' league is Janice Bubb. On this page are pictures snapped at random by the photographer who makes an annual pilgrimage to the Girls' league party.

PATRONS AND PATRONESSES enjoyed themselves at the party last Saturday night. Left to right, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Eschebeck, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hammer, and Principal and Mrs. Lloyd Emery.

ASSISTING GIRLS LEAGUE OFFICERS were Miss Karen Nelson, Miss Ruth Pinkston, faculty members, Mrs. Lloyd Emery and her young daughter, Miss Eleanor Emery.

UNDERCLASS STUDENTS SERVED at the punch bowl at one side of the gaily decorated new gymnasium. Left to right Macqueline Blaine, Geraldine Knuth, Norma Ridgely, Vivian Jensen, and Shirley Chase.

SNAPPED BY THE CAMERAMAN as they danced under the red, white and blue canopy, were Betty and Bob Frederickson, sister and brother students of Klamath Union high school.

GOOD TIMES WERE HAD by all according to results of the camera! Barbara McLenn and Earl Greenwood were partners when this picture was taken.

TALKING IT OVER is this threesome—left to right, Barbara Beane, Glen Kennedy, and Betty Buchanan.
—All pictures by Wesley Guderian of The Herald and News.