Poor Weather Hampers Pelican Nine Workouts

Hampered by adverse weather conditions that have pre-ralled in this community since local baseball enthusiasts three veeks ago announced that Klamath Falls would be represented in the fast Oregon State league this summer, the Pelicans have been unable to conduct organized drills that would get them into shape for the season's opener May 11 at Bend.

Cancel Grit Conta SAN DIEGO, Calif., April 7 (P)—The San Diego Marines, a powerful football force for years, have cancelled their nine-game 1941 schedule because of the defense program and the "uncertain times and future." Capt. George Esau, athletic officer of the marine base here, announced the cancellation announced the cancellation which left eight Pacific Coast college teams with unexpected open dates and apparently marked an end to the brilliant pigskin history of the marines-at least until international crisis
