Group 1 — "Father of Victory," by Danne; "Night in Vienna," by Olivadoti; "Footlights Overture," by Holmes. Group 2 — "Liebestraume," by Liszt, played by Delos Price, Thresa O'Connor, accompanist; "Ciribiribin," by Pestalozza; "Horizon Overture," by Buys; "Onward Ye People," by Sibellius.

Group 3 — "Compass Major," by Olivadoti; "Starlight serenade," by Olivadoti; "Weber Sweet," by Bonweber; "Washington Post March," by Sousa. Proceeds from the concert are to be used to buy new uniforms before the band goes to Corvallis to the state conference.

Olene

About 30 members of Lost River grange motored to Malin Wednesday evening where a joint grange meeting was conducted with Lost River officers presiding. The meeting was followed by a program under the supervision of Harriet Bruner of the Lost River grange. Refreshments were served by the women of that grange.

The home economics club of the grange met Friday at the grange hall with Mrs. Perly Stiles as hostess, assisted by Mrs. Wallace Reed.

Mrs. Basil Brown is improving from a severe cold which has confined her to her home for several days.

Word has been received from the C. M. Kelleys, former residents of Olene, to the effect that they will soon be located permanently in Portland, as Kelley has accepted a position at Bonnevill. Mrs. Kelley and Fred are at present in Yakima and will remain there until the end of the school year.

Mr. and Mrs. George Reiling and two children are leaving soon for Canby, Calif., where they will reside.

Mrs. Nona Corpening and Leo Donovan were house guests Friday night of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Marshall. They have just returned from an extensive trip through the south. They traveled from Reno to Detroit by airplane. There they purchased a new car and motored home.

Ride 1600 Miles To School

BLY—The two young lads shown above have ridden over 1600 miles to and from school in the past year. Each day Elton Cramer, 7, left, and his brother Marvin, 5, saddle Mary Lou, the eight-year-old pony, and trot the four and one-half miles into Bly from their parents' farm. Mary Lou, half Shetland and half Welsh, also carries a sack of hay and one of oats which she is fed when the boys take her to water at noon. She is housed during the day in a small building on the schoolgrounds. The two lads, both bright students and first graders, are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Cramer.

BASKET SOCIAL PLANNED BY CLUB

MERRILL — Merrill Library club, in session Thursday afternoon, delved deeper into the business of raising funds for furtherance of club activities, and has on the program this month in addition to the plant sale for this weekend, a hard-time, old-fashioned basket social and dance with April 25 set as the tentative date.

Those who attend may bring baskets if they care to, to be auctioned off. There will be eats for those who don't bring baskets. Music will be good and any old clothes may be worn. Both popular and old-time music will be on the program.

The club also voted to assist the high school junior class with a benefit card party to be given in the high school gymnasium May 2 to raise funds for the annual junior-senior banquet.

Mrs. Rodgers, program speaker, advised members of the dates of the annual 4-H club fair, April 24, 25 and 26, at Klamath Falls, and gave an interesting review of the state conference of home economics units held recently at Corvallis.

Mrs. Robert Barry was welcomed as a member and Mrs. William Walker and Mrs. William Rodgers were reinstated.

The committee for the dance includes Mrs. A. J. King, chairman, Mrs. Earl McNeely, Mrs. T. W. Laird, Mrs. Hazel Lilly, Mrs. J. B. Kidwell, Mrs. J. Perry Halsey, Mrs. Lillian Thomas, Mrs. Kenneth Colwell.

Lakeview

LAKEVIEW — Betty Combs, Lakeview high school sophomore, represented the Lakeview high school in the northwest singing conference at Spokane last week. Three hundred and fifty students were sent from schools on the coast.

Rehearsals for all those in the chorus were held on Saturday and Monday.

A parade consisting of 1500 people was a special attraction Saturday afternoon. At a concert Monday evening, the chorus, of 350 and the orchestra of 300 presented 10 numbers, two of which were given by boys. The chorus and orchestra performed for the Spokane schools Tuesday

Tulelake

Miss Maxine Barke, high school senior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Barke, has returned from Coalingo, Calif., where she was a guest of Miss Joy Terry, formerly of Tulelake. Miss Terry is completing her senior year in high school at Coalingo before joining her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Terry, who left Tulelake last fall to make their home in Arizona.

Charles Johnson, Siskiyou county district attorney, was a Tulelake visitor Monday. Mrs. Katherine Stoneypher, cook at the school cafeteria has resigned.

A Presbyterial of Presbyterian churches of southwest Oregon will be held April 7, 8 and 9 at Roseburg. A number of women of the Merrill community plan to attend. Presbytery of the same district will be held April 17-18 at Grants Pass with Rev. Lawrence Mitchelmore, Merrill, and Rev. Donald Dod, Malin, planning to be present.

It's hard to Pick a Winner WHEN THEY'RE ALL GOOD

But You Can't Lose When It comes to Deciding on a 1941 Electric Refrigerator.

- THEY'RE ALL GOOD; they're all priced in proportion to manufacturing costs; and the only problem is to select one big enough for family needs.

It's a fact that an 8 cubic-foot refrigerator costs about the same as the 6 cubic-foot of last year and what a lot of satisfaction in knowing there'll be plenty of room for that watermelon and that crate of berries you "picked up at such a bargain." (See your local electric dealer.)

NOW is the TIME To Buy Your Electric REFRIGERATOR
