Shaw Stationery

Children, Easter is always an extra special day . . . So I just simply have to tell you about the darling Easter things for youngsters that I saw at Shaw Stationery.

You'll probably fall in love with Beloved Belindy, yourself . . . She's a big black mammy in a white apron.

Then there are the cutest Easter rabbits you ever saw . . . All dressed up like little boys and girls . . . You'd suspect, from the expressions on their faces, that they'd just come from hiding their Easter eggs.

THE OLD FAVORITES

And when things like these for children are mentioned, nobody who has been in Shaw's can omit mentioning Raggedy Ann and Raggedy Andy . . . Those adorable rag dolls that children love to hold.

Of course Shaw's, being THE book shop in this part of the country, has a large selection of exquisite Easter books for children . . . Beautifully illustrated . . . The kind children grow up with and pass on to their own young ones.

Easter always seems to come in the wrong month . . . For Klamath people, anyway . . . If Easter had fallen in March this year, the beautiful weather would have been an incentive to early buying of Spring clothes . . . But the last week has rather dampened enthusiasm for new clothes . . . However, people who know Klamath climate prophesy bright sun and clear skies for next Sunday . . . So you can show off your new Easter outfit to best advantage.

Garcelon's

KNIVES, forks and spoons always have been "silverware" to me . . . And to most people, I think . . . But when they aren't made of silver, you can't call them silverware, can you?

The term to use, I guess, is "cutlery" . . . So that's what I'll have to say when I talk about the darling colored-plastic handled eating utensils at Garcelon's.

The new shipment is different than any other the store has had . . . Because it is open stock . . . You can buy any piece for 35c . . . Or a whole 34-piece service for 8, for only $9.95.

There are bright colors and pastel shades in the plastic handles . . . And unlike cheap cutlery that looks the same, the blades don't pull away from the handles . . . These are the very best quality . . . Stainless steel with chromium plate.

At Garcelon's.

Lucy's Sweet Shop

HERE are always at least four different kinds of the most delicious salads at Lucy's Esquire Sweet Shop . . . And each one is only 15c, including roll and butter . . . There's plenty to them, because I watched Lucy fixing the potato salads, and she used a whole cupful in each serving.

By the way, Lucy's now carries those wonderful Carol Stevens boxed candies . . . I read recently that Mrs. Roosevelt send a check for $180 to Carol Stevens, at Richmond, California, with a list of friends whom she wanted to receive this marvelous candy at Easter.

OBITUARY

DORRAL GLEN SPICHER
Dorral Glen Spicher, for the last four years a resident of Klamath Falls, Oregon, passed away in this city Thursday, April 10, 1941, at 4:10 a. m., following an illness of two weeks. He was a native of Garnett, Kas., and at the time of his death was aged 12 years 3 months and 12 days. Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dron E. Spicher of this city; four sisters, Mrs. Evelyn Marie O'Rourke and Miss Juanita June Spicher of Klamath Falls, Mrs. Gladys Lurine Basler of Oakland, Ore., and Mrs. Goldie Lucille Witte of Los Angeles, Calif.; three brothers, Harry Wendall, Ora Eugene and John Chaffin Spicher, all of Klamath Falls. The remains of Dorral Glen rest in the Earl Whitlock Funeral Home, Pine street at Sixth, where friends may call after 10 a. m. Friday. Notice of funeral appears in this issue of the paper.

Pull-over sweaters have been going over big this Spring . . . Lots of them are long in the torso . . . And tightly fitted . . . The open-shirt neckline is the most popular, with middy collars running second.

Beauty Shop

SO many gals are getting new permanents for Easter that I simply have to do a little reminding about those marvelous Creme Oil permanents at the Medical-Dental Beauty shop.

This is the kind that you usually pay $7.50 for at other shops . . . But Ruby Engel charges only $5.00 for them . . . Complete with the oil solution that reconditions the hair while it waves . . . It really makes a wonderfully soft and longer-lasting wave.

But if I were you I'd phone for an appointment right away . . . The number is 3448.

usually pay $7.50 for at other shops . . . But Ruby Engel charges only $5.00 for them . . . Complete with the oil solution that reconditions the hair while it waves . . . It really makes a wonderfully soft and longer-lasting wave.

Currin's

If you've been reading your April magazines, you probably have seen the big ad announcing Rubinstein's new celestial fragrance . . . "Heaven-Sent" . . . It was put on the market just in time for Easter, and is most appropriate just at this time with its lovely blue and pink packages covered with angels, clouds and stars.

Thelma Davis told me that Currin's shipment arrived only a couple of days ago and she already has sold a lot of it . . . The romantic, dreamy fragrance just mows 'em down, she said!

YOU'LL LIKE IT, TOO!
It wouldn't surprise me at all if Heaven-Sent became the most talked-about scent this Spring and Summer.

I've tried only the Eau de Toilette so far, myself . . . It's really a cologne, but it has so much depth and is so lasting that it makes an ideal day perfume.

It comes in three sizes . . . $1.00, $1.75 and $3.25.

Then, to go with the cologne are Heaven-Sent Dusting Powder, at $1.25 . . . And Heaven-Sent Bath Oil at $1.50 . . . The three make a perfect combination to send you out in the world with a most feminine, almost ethereal aura.

You'll find them at Currin's, of course, which is the only place in Klamath Falls where you can get Helena Rubinstein products.

Cal-Ore
JUST about everybody was at Cal-Ore Wednesday night this week . . . And it was a very successful evening, too . . . Really, that new orchestra of Sam Herman's is the best the place ever has had.

I heard an interesting commentary on Klamath's night life the other day . . . After a certain organization had had a get-together at Cal-Ore.

The big party that night was made up of quite a few Klamath Falls people, but at least half of them came from Wood, Yreka, Medford, and other places not too near here . . . By midnight there wasn't a single Klamath resident left at Cal-Ore, but the people who had come long distances, and had a long way to go home, still were going strong and enjoying themselves.

I think that must prove something, but I can't figure out what!

Drape rather than droop is the aim of the new shoulder . . . Sort of a cape effect, even in fitted coats.

FUNERAL NOTICE
DORRAL GLEN SPICHER
Funeral services for the late Dorral Glen Spicher, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Dron E. Spicher of this city, who passed away Thursday, will be held in the chapel of the Earl Whitlock Funeral Home, Pine street at Sixth, on Friday, April 11, 1941, at 3 p. m., with the Rev. Arthur Charles Bates of the First Christian church of this city officiating. Commitment services and interment Linkville cemetery. Friends are invited.

Army Transports Shifted in Service

WASHINGTON, April 10 (AP) - The war department disclosed today that all army passenger and freight transports had been diverted to move troops and supplies between the United States, and overseas possessions and bases.

Twenty-six combination passenger-cargo ships and freighters which comprised the army transport service have been shifted to the new assignment.

In addition, the war department has chartered 10 freighters and the maritime commission has been asked for more ships.

REHEARING DENIED IN RAILROAD CASE

Members of the Southern Pacific Shasta division of Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen Thursday looked back on their long squabble with the Portland division over jurisdictional rights as a thing of the past.

A supreme court decision Tuesday denying a petition for re-hearing of the Allen vs. Brotherhood case which has been in and out of the courts since completion of the Natron cut-off seems to have settled the issue.

According to J. J. Pex, local chairman, the decision means that it will not now be necessary for approximately 16 families to move from the Klamath district.

The long-drawn-out argument as to whether the Shasta or Portland division should have jurisdiction over freight handling between here and Crescent dates back to the late 1920's when the Natron cut-off was finished. In an original Brotherhood decision, the Shasta trainmen won rights of operation. Eventually Portland trainmen took the case to state court and in Portland upset the old Brotherhood decision.

In early March of this year the supreme court ruled the state court had no jurisdiction, which reinstated the local trainmen. A petition filed by Minor S. Allen, representing the Portland crew, which sought a re-hearing was denied.

JOSSY BUYS FULL INTEREST IN LINE

William Jossy of Portland, for many years president and general manager of the Bend-Portland Truck service, has announced he has recently purchased the entire interest held by H. L. Livingston of Bend.

The transaction places Jossy as sole owner of the company.

Jossy is well known in the trucking business and a veteran of 27 years in the field. He for many years operated the Oregon-Washington truck line and in 1928 became affiliated with Bend-Portland as president. Since that time he has built the firm into one of the largest independent lines in Oregon.

Livingston in selling his interest, announces he has no immediate plans for the future. He will be replaced at Bend by Wilfred Jossy, son of the new sole owner.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC TO ADD NEW TRAIN

Prospects for heavy summer travel along that Pacific coast are so bright that Southern Pacific will add an additional passenger train to its fleet on the Shasta route, making a total of five trains each way daily between Portland and California, according to announcement by J. A. Ormandy, general passenger agent, Portland New train will go into service May 11 at which time important changes will be made in schedules of Shasta route trains. Ormandy said.

New train will leave San Francisco at 6:40 p. m. and arrive Portland at 3:45 p. m. Southbound it will depart from Portland at 9:30 p. m. and arrive San Francisco at 7:30 p. m. It will carry chair cars, tourist and standard Pullmans, dining and lounge cars.

Major change in schedules effective May 11 will be for the
