

Easter Services

WILLAMETTE CHOIR HERE WEDNESDAY

The Willamette university capella choir of 45 voices will appear in concert at the First Methodist church here on Wednesday, April 10, at 8 p. m. Rev. Victor Phillips, pastor of the church, announces that this musical organization is on a tour, visiting a few of the leading cities of Oregon and Washington and he considers himself very fortunate to be asked to book them for Klamath Falls.

The choir is led by Dean Melvin H. Geist, dean of music at the university, and has won an enviable reputation for its excellent work in the field of a capella singing. These young people are expected to arrive in Klamath Falls about 4:30 on Wednesday afternoon. The ladies of the church will serve dinner for them at the church at 5:30 p. m.

No charge will be made for the concert but a silver offering will be taken to help defray expenses. The public is urged to attend.

Primary Program At First Christian

"The Downtown Church," Pine street at Ninth, Arthur Giles Bates, minister, announces the following Easter Sunday morning program:

There will be a Bible school program of songs, recitations, etc., given by the primary and junior departments at 9:45 a. m. The school will convene at the hour of 9:30 a. m. this Sunday.

The Easter morning service will be at 11 o'clock. It begins with the organ prelude, "Resurrection Morn," Johnson, by Mrs. George McIntyre, organist. The Doxology, sung by both the choir and congregation, followed by the invocation by the minister. The prayer response, "Almighty Father," by the choir. Opening hymn, "The Day of Resurrection," Scripture lesson by the minister. Communion meditation hymn, "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross," Observation of the Lord's Supper in memory of Christ's death. Prayer dedicating the tithes and offerings. Anthem, "He Lives Again," Holten, by the choir. Miss Augusta B. Parker directing. Sermon, "Immortality," by the minister. Invitation hymn, "Only Trust Him," Benediction. Anthem, "Christ Is Risen," Bayard, by the choir. "Threefold Amen. Postlude, "Jubilante Deo," Silver, by Mrs. George McIntyre.

Evening services begin with the Christian Endeavor meetings which begin at 8:30 p. m. Evangelistic service at 7:30 p. m. Song service and worship under the direction of the young people. Sermon, "The Missing Man," by the minister. This service closes the eight days of special services.

The quarterly congregational meeting will be held on Sunday, April 20, after the morning service. All voting members are urged to be present.

The new adult membership class meets on Tuesday evenings at 7:30. Anyone interested is invited to come. You place yourself under no obligations by attending these meetings.

The meetings of the Sunday school teachers will again be held on Wednesday evenings at 7:30.

After Easter the children's confirmation class will meet twice a week, Wednesdays at 4:15 and Saturdays at 2 o'clock.

If you have no church home, come and worship with us.

"In carving a baked whole ham, fresh or smoked, one must point at which the actual carving is done.

"Some carvers like, in the very beginning, to cut three or four thin slices parallel to the length of the ham on the side nearest them, then to tip the ham slightly up and forward on the platter so that it rests on that cut surface, thus making it possible to carve better, broader slices."

"Now, holding the ham firmly with the fork, cut out a small

thick (or wedge shaped) slice near the shank bone and lay it aside. Then carve right down from the top surface to the bone and at almost right angles to the knife slightly slantwise. Cut several slices, then if necessary run the knife along the bone parallel with it to release these for service. A little of the rich crisp fat should be served with each slice.

"As shown in bottom drawing, the bone runs right through the ham but a little off center and as the broad or heavier side gives the best and choicest cuts, the ham should be placed on the platter (always fat side uppermost) with that broad side away from the carver, at the far side of the platter. With a left hand this will bring the shank bone to his right, as illustrated. With a right hand, in order to have the heavy meaty side uppermost or

"Some carvers prefer beginning to carve at the thick end of the ham. In such case insert the fork at the left, make the first incision just right or left of the H-bone, depending on whether one is carving a left or a right ham, and work right across from the thick end toward the narrower shank end."

"Insert the fork firmly in the ham at whatever point will give you, individually, the best and firmest control of that ham—with some this may mean far to the left, with others nearer the toward the rear of the platter the shank bone will be at the carver's left.

"Method 1

"Method 2

"Method 3

Mapping Jesus' Last Week on Earth

It was in and around Jerusalem that Jesus spent His last days on earth, praying, preaching, answering the questions of His enemies. Map of the ancient walled city, as it appeared at the time of His crucifixion, traces the travels of Jesus during that last week.

Easter Festival At Zion Church

1025 High street, G. W. Hoffmann, pastor.

The Easter festival service begins at 11 o'clock. The pastor will speak on the topic, "Through Death to Life." Special music by the senior quartette and the junior girls. You are cordially invited to attend this service.

Sunday school meets at 9:45 a. m. All members of the Sunday school are asked to return the Lenten mission banks on Easter morning.

The last of the Lenten services is being held on Good Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Sermon topic: "The Slaughter of the Lamb."

There will be a brief meeting of the church council after the morning service on Easter Sunday.

The quarterly congregational meeting will be held on Sunday, April 20, after the morning service. All voting members are urged to be present.

The new adult membership class meets on Tuesday evenings at 7:30. Anyone interested is invited to come. You place yourself under no obligations by attending these meetings.

The meetings of the Sunday school teachers will again be held on Wednesday evenings at 7:30.

After Easter the children's confirmation class will meet twice a week, Wednesdays at 4:15 and Saturdays at 2 o'clock.

If you have no church home, come and worship with us.

"In carving a baked whole ham, fresh or smoked, one must point at which the actual carving is done.

"Some carvers like, in the very beginning, to cut three or four thin slices parallel to the length of the ham on the side nearest them, then to tip the ham slightly up and forward on the platter so that it rests on that cut surface, thus making it possible to carve better, broader slices."

"Now, holding the ham firmly with the fork, cut out a small

thick (or wedge shaped) slice near the shank bone and lay it aside. Then carve right down from the top surface to the bone and at almost right angles to the knife slightly slantwise. Cut several slices, then if necessary run the knife along the bone parallel with it to release these for service. A little of the rich crisp fat should be served with each slice.

"As shown in bottom drawing, the bone runs right through the ham but a little off center and as the broad or heavier side gives the best and choicest cuts, the ham should be placed on the platter (always fat side uppermost) with that broad side away from the carver, at the far side of the platter. With a left hand this will bring the shank bone to his right, as illustrated. With a right hand, in order to have the heavy meaty side uppermost or

"Some carvers prefer beginning to carve at the thick end of the ham. In such case insert the fork at the left, make the first incision just right or left of the H-bone, depending on whether one is carving a left or a right ham, and work right across from the thick end toward the narrower shank end."

"Insert the fork firmly in the ham at whatever point will give you, individually, the best and firmest control of that ham—with some this may mean far to the left, with others nearer the toward the rear of the platter the shank bone will be at the carver's left.

"Method 1

DELEGATES BACK FROM ROSEBURG

MERRILL — Delegates to the Presbyterial of Southwest Oregon which convened this week at Roseburg report a series of meetings presided over by Mrs. James H. Edgar, Ashland, Presbyterial president.

The resignation of Mrs. Lawrence Mitchelmore, recording secretary, was accepted and Mrs. Neidermyer, Jacksonville, was elected to succeed her.

Mrs. W. M. Campbell of Roseburg, extended the greeting of the large number of delegates and the principal speaker of the conference was Miss Rachel Benser, secretary of the board of national missions, New York City, who has spent many years among the Indians in New Mexico and Mexico.

Mrs. John McCormick, Portland, synodical president, was also present.

In attendance from Merrill were Mrs. William Rogers, Mrs. W. F. Jinnette, Mrs. Lucy Taylor and Mrs. J. L. Fotheringham.

Klamath Temple Plans Program

1007 Pine street. Rev. Daniel B. Anderson, pastor. Telephone 3874.

Easter Sunday services: Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Robert Mount, superintendent. Classes for all ages.

Morning service of worship at 11 a. m. Special Easter music by choir, male quartet and girl's chorus. The pastor will speak on the subject, "He Is Risen."

6:30 p. m., special Easter services at the Young People's Overcomers and junior meetings.

7:45 p. m., Easter musical program followed by a pantomime entitled "The Resurrection," presented by the young people.

Midweek services: Bible study and praise service Wednesday evening, 7:45 p. m. Radio broadcast, KFJI, Thursday evening, 7 p. m.

Prayer meeting Friday evening, 7:45 p. m. Young People's prayer meeting Saturday evening, 7:45 p. m.

CHURCH OF CHRIST Meetings held in the community room of Shasta school. Bible study, 10 a. m. Worship and communion, 11 a. m. Evening worship, 7:30 p. m.

We cordially invite you to meet with us every Sunday, R. N. Meads.

"In carving a baked whole ham, fresh or smoked, one must point at which the actual carving is done.

"Some carvers like, in the very beginning, to cut three or four thin slices parallel to the length of the ham on the side nearest them, then to tip the ham slightly up and forward on the platter so that it rests on that cut surface, thus making it possible to carve better, broader slices."

"Now, holding the ham firmly with the fork, cut out a small

thick (or wedge shaped) slice near the shank bone and lay it aside. Then carve right down from the top surface to the bone and at almost right angles to the knife slightly slantwise. Cut several slices, then if necessary run the knife along the bone parallel with it to release these for service. A little of the rich crisp fat should be served with each slice.

"As shown in bottom drawing, the bone runs right through the ham but a little off center and as the broad or heavier side gives the best and choicest cuts, the ham should be placed on the platter (always fat side uppermost) with that broad side away from the carver, at the far side of the platter. With a left hand this will bring the shank bone to his right, as illustrated. With a right hand, in order to have the heavy meaty side uppermost or

"Some carvers prefer beginning to carve at the thick end of the ham. In such case insert the fork at the left, make the first incision just right or left of the H-bone, depending on whether one is carving a left or a right ham, and work right across from the thick end toward the narrower shank end."

"Insert the fork firmly in the ham at whatever point will give you, individually, the best and firmest control of that ham—with some this may mean far to the left, with others nearer the toward the rear of the platter the shank bone will be at the carver's left.

"Method 1

"Method 2

"Method 3

"Method 4

"Method 5

C. E. CONVENTION SPEAKER COMING

Dr. Luther E. Stein, speaker for the Christian Endeavor convention, April 24 to 27 in this city, is pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Glendale, Calif., one of the large Presbyterian churches of the United States.

He was born on a farm near Lincoln, Neb., and graduated from the University of Nebraska, which gave him the doctor of divinity degree some ten years ago.

He enlisted and went overseas in the former World war and became engaged by cable to his Nebraska girl, whom he married after the war was over. They came to California, where he entered the seminary at San Anselmo and from which he graduated with honors. He preached in several places in California, including Fresno and now Glendale.

He has been guest speaker in several Oregon state Christian Endeavor conventions and is affectionately called "Uncle Luke" by many Endeavorers.

He is now on his way to California, where he entered the seminary at San Anselmo and from which he graduated with honors. He preached in several places in California, including Fresno and now Glendale.

He has been guest speaker in several Oregon state Christian Endeavor conventions and is affectionately called "Uncle Luke" by many Endeavorers.

He is now on his way to California, where he entered the seminary at San Anselmo and from which he graduated with honors. He preached in several places in California, including Fresno and now Glendale.

He has been guest speaker in several Oregon state Christian Endeavor conventions and is affectionately called "Uncle Luke" by many Endeavorers.

He is now on his way to California, where he entered the seminary at San Anselmo and from which he graduated with honors. He preached in several places in California, including Fresno and now Glendale.

He has been guest speaker in several Oregon state Christian Endeavor conventions and is affectionately called "Uncle Luke" by many Endeavorers.

He is now on his way to California, where he entered the seminary at San Anselmo and from which he graduated with honors. He preached in several places in California, including Fresno and now Glendale.

He has been guest speaker in several Oregon state Christian Endeavor conventions and is affectionately called "Uncle Luke" by many Endeavorers.

He is now on his way to California, where he entered the seminary at San Anselmo and from which he graduated with honors. He preached in several places in California, including Fresno and now Glendale.

He has been guest speaker in several Oregon state Christian Endeavor conventions and is affectionately called "Uncle Luke" by many Endeavorers.

He is now on his way to California, where he entered the seminary at San Anselmo and from which he graduated with honors. He preached in several places in California, including Fresno and now Glendale.

He has been guest speaker in several Oregon state Christian Endeavor conventions and is affectionately called "Uncle Luke" by many Endeavorers.

He is now on his way to California, where he entered the seminary at San Anselmo and from which he graduated with honors. He preached in several places in California, including Fresno and now Glendale.

He has been guest speaker in several Oregon state Christian Endeavor conventions and is affectionately called "Uncle Luke" by many Endeavorers.

He is now on his way to California, where he entered the seminary at San Anselmo and from which he graduated with honors. He preached in several places in California, including Fresno and now Glendale.

He has been guest speaker in several Oregon state Christian Endeavor conventions and is affectionately called "Uncle Luke" by many Endeavorers.

He is now on his way to California, where he entered the seminary at San Anselmo and from which he graduated with honors. He preached in several places in California, including Fresno and now Glendale.

He has been guest speaker in several Oregon state Christian Endeavor conventions and is affectionately called "Uncle Luke" by many Endeavorers.

He is now on his way to California, where he entered the seminary at San Anselmo and from which he graduated with honors. He preached in several places in California, including Fresno and now Glendale.

He has been guest speaker in several Oregon state Christian Endeavor conventions and is affectionately called "Uncle Luke" by many Endeavorers.

He is now on his way to California, where he entered the seminary at San Anselmo and from which he graduated with honors. He preached in several places in California, including Fresno and now Glendale.

He has been guest speaker in several Oregon state Christian Endeavor conventions and is affectionately called "Uncle Luke" by many Endeavorers.

Midland Empire News

MEDFORD PASTOR TO VISIT CHURCH

TULELAKE — Rev. Harold M. Roberts, Medford, Sunday school missionary for the Southwest Oregon Presbytery will bring the Easter message to the congregation of the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church at the regular service hour, Sunday, April 13.

Preceding the service children of the Sunday school classes will present programs of Easter readings, music and devotionals.

The church service opening at 11 o'clock follows: Musical prelude. Doxology. Prayer, Rev. H. M. Roberts. Hymn, "The Old Rugged Cross," congregation. Scripture reading.

Hymn, "Christ Arose," choir. Hymn, "Christ the Lord Is Risen Today," choir. Offertory.

Anthem, "Laudamus" by Trotheros, choir. Sermon, Rev. Harold M. Roberts.

Anthem, "Gloria," W. A. Mozart, choir. Benediction.

Wife of Former Merrill Pastor Dies in Storm

MERRILL — Word was received here Wednesday by Rev. Lawrence Mitchelmore of the death on April 4 at Chiang Mai hospital in Siam of Mrs. Letta Mae Travaille, wife of Rev. Forrest C. Travaille, formerly pastor of the Merrill Presbyterian church.

The family left here about three years ago for Bangkok, where both were engaged in missionary work. Mrs. Travaille teaching part time in the mathematics department of the Christian college at Bangkok. One child, a boy, was born after their arrival in Siam. Two other children, a son, 5, and a daughter, 4, also survive.

Word of Mrs. Travaille's passing was forwarded here from New York City by a Mr. Dodd, secretary of the board of foreign missions. Death was due to carcinoma of the lungs.

Rev. Travaille served as pastor of the local church for three years, coming to Merrill soon after his graduation from the San Francisco seminary at San Anselmo.

Mrs. Travaille's mother and other relatives reside at Sunny-side, Wash.

Mrs. Travaille's mother and other relatives reside at Sunny-side, Wash.

Mrs. Travaille's mother and other relatives reside at Sunny-side, Wash.

Mrs. Travaille's mother and other relatives reside at Sunny-side, Wash.

Mrs. Travaille's mother and other relatives reside at Sunny-side, Wash.

Mrs. Travaille's mother and other relatives reside at Sunny-side, Wash.

Mrs. Travaille's mother and other relatives reside at Sunny-side, Wash.

Mrs. Travaille's mother and other relatives reside at Sunny-side, Wash.

Mrs. Travaille's mother and other relatives reside at Sunny-side, Wash.

Mrs. Travaille's mother and other relatives reside at Sunny-side, Wash.

Mrs. Travaille's mother and other relatives reside at Sunny-side, Wash.

Mrs. Travaille's mother and other relatives reside at Sunny-side, Wash.

Mrs. Travaille's mother and other relatives reside at Sunny-side, Wash.

Mrs. Travaille's mother and other relatives reside at Sunny-side, Wash.

Mrs. Travaille's mother and other relatives reside at Sunny-side, Wash.

Mrs. Travaille's mother and other relatives reside at Sunny-side, Wash.

Mrs. Travaille's mother and other relatives reside at Sunny-side, Wash.

Mrs. Travaille's mother and other relatives reside at Sunny-side, Wash.

Mrs. Travaille's mother and other relatives reside at Sunny-side, Wash.

Mrs. Stevenson To Represent Merrill Lodge

MERRILL — Mrs. James C. Stevenson will represent the Merrill Rebekah lodge as first delegate to the state convention convening in Baker April 20 to 24. Mrs. M. A. Bowman was elected second delegate and Mrs. R. H. Anderson, Klamath Falls, alternate.

Mrs. Stevenson has been recommended also for the office of district deputy president. Election of the delegates was announced following the regular session of Merrill Rebekah lodge Monday night.

Four candidates for membership, three from Bonanza and one from Merrill heard the degree work and officers greeted 32 out of town guests from Klamath Falls, Bonanza and Tulelake.

Two Sets of Twins Born at Tulelake In Less Than Week

TULELAKE — Arrival of two sets of twins in less than a week makes some sort of a record for Tulelake. Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Williams who reside on the Cloyd Laughlin ranch welcomed a son and daughter on April 5. There is an older child in the family.

On April 9, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Johnson, who live in the auto camp here, also welcomed a son and daughter. The little boy, however, did not survive. The baby girl, eighth child in the family, weighed 6 pounds.

Altamont

Mrs. Porter Sexton and daughter Louise of Bisbee street left last week for Anderson, Calif., to spend a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Law. Relatives gathered April 6 for a family reunion to celebrate the Law's golden anniversary.

April Fool's day was hick day at the Altamont Junior high school. Many students wore costumes. Patty Knoles' patriotic costume and Richard Eastman's hula skirt made of newspapers were the winners.

Edward Roark of Delaware avenue was a Tulelake visitor Sunday.

R. J. Hall of Boardman avenue is visiting his son Robert at Fort Stevens.

Marilee Crawford, Diane Howell, Ania Fay Feugh and Jean Redner competed for the honor of becoming queen of the May festival. As results of the voting by the first, second and third grades, Marilee Crawford was elected queen.

The white-bearded jurist, who has presided over the supreme court for more than 11 years, preferred to overlook the occasion. He told newspapermen he had nothing to say.

Apparently he still adheres to the philosophy of a remark he made a few years ago that he was "going along without reference to the calendar."

Apparently he still adheres to the philosophy of a remark he made a few years ago that he was "going along without reference to the calendar."

Apparently he still adheres to the philosophy of a remark he made a few years ago that he was "going along without reference to the calendar."

Apparently he still adheres to the philosophy of a remark he made a few years ago that he was "going along without reference to the calendar."

Apparently he still adheres to the philosophy of a remark he made a few years ago that he was "going along without reference to the calendar."

Apparently he still adheres to the philosophy of a remark he made a few years ago that he was "going along without reference to the calendar."

Apparently he still adheres to the philosophy of a remark he made a few years ago that he was "going along without reference to the calendar."

Apparently he still adheres to the philosophy of a remark he made a few years ago that he was "going along without reference to the calendar."

Apparently he still adheres to the philosophy of a remark he made a few years ago that he was "going along without reference to the calendar."

Apparently he still adheres to the philosophy of a remark he made a few years ago that he was "going along without reference to the calendar."

Apparently he still adheres to the philosophy of a remark he made a few years ago that he was "going along without reference to the calendar."

Apparently he still adheres to the philosophy of a remark he made a few years ago that he was "going along without reference to the calendar."

Apparently he still adheres to the philosophy of a remark he made a few years ago that he was "going along without reference to the calendar."

Apparently he still adheres to the philosophy of a remark he made a few years ago that he was "going along without reference to the calendar."

Apparently he still adheres to the philosophy of a remark he made a few years ago that he was "going along without reference to the calendar."

Apparently he still adheres to the philosophy of a remark he made a few years ago that he was "going along without reference to the calendar."

Apparently he still adheres to the philosophy of a remark he made a few years ago that he was "going along without reference to the calendar."

Shirley Temple Shorn of Curls, Gets New Hair-do

HOLLYWOOD, April 11 (AP) — Shirley Temple has shed her formal curls—all 55 of them.

Shirley's hair, naturally curly, has been brushed out and allowed to fall in soft waves, with ringlets in the end.

It is an excellent coiffure for an active, 12-year-old girl. It requires no special doing up, can be handled by Shirley herself and always looks neat.

Shirley's hair has changed color, too. Once golden, it has darkened naturally to a rich brown.

Chief Justice Passes 79th Year

WASHINGTON, April 11 (AP) Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes, whose vitality and keen sense of humor belie his age, reached his 79th birthday anniversary today.