

S O
C
I
E
T
Y

by
LOIS
STEWART

IN LOVELY GOWNS OF LONG AGO, these two young matrons will appear at the annual Easter Monday bridge tea and fashion show sponsored by the Guild of St. Paul's April the fourteenth at the Willard. Mrs. Edward Goeckner sits at the organ wearing her grandmother's, Mrs. Thirza Martin's, veil first worn in London in 1872, and her mother's wedding dress of sheer satin with the orange blossoms which Mrs. R. Henry Anderson wore in Merrill in 1908. The organ is one belonging to the Martin family and given many years ago to St. Paul's. Mrs. DeLos Mills wears a wedding gown of fine silk alpaca first worn by the mother of C. H. Foster and J. B. Foster, in Cottonwood, California, in 1882. The fetching parasol was part of Mrs. Anderson's trousseau. The satin wedding slippers were worn in 1894 by Mrs. A. W. Husted in Ottawa, Illinois.

—Picture by Wesley Guderian
of The Herald and News.

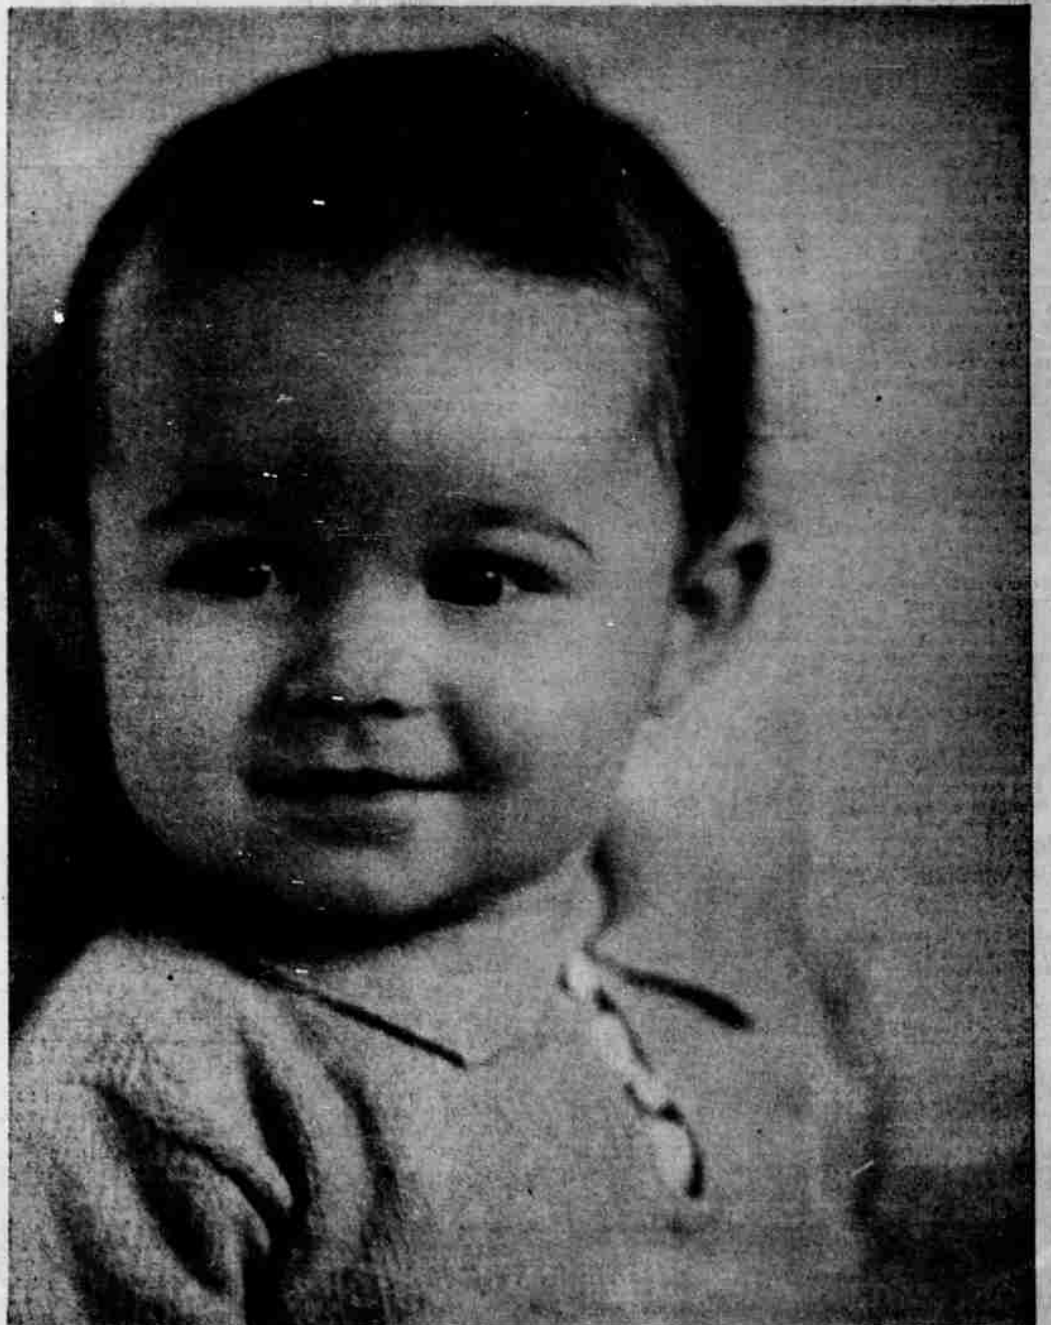

WELCOMED TO KLAMATH FALLS are Teddy and Wally Larsen, young sons of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Larsen who have but recently returned to this city from Medford to make their home. Mrs. Larsen is the former Helen Abbey and member of a well known Klamath family. Teddy is just five years old, and young Wally has just passed the three months mark.

—Kennell-Ellis picture.

GOING AWAY FROM KLAMATH FALLS are Patricia and Michael, attractive young daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. Don L. McLucas who leave this coming week to reside in Dunsmuir, California. Before going south the McLucas family will visit in Hood River and St. Helens.

—Comart picture.

SEEING THE EASTER RABBIT for the first time is Wendell "Dell" James Smith, seven-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell A. Smith of 1911 Oregon avenue. Mrs. Smith is the former Gertrude Maguire, daughter of Mr. J. F. Maguire, pioneer resident of this city.

—Kennell-Ellis picture.