CONCERT DRIVE FOR NEXT YEAR BEGINS MONDAY

The Klamath Community Concert association membership campaign was officially under way Monday and headquarters at the Willard hotel showed signs of heavy activity as the 1941 drive got off to a flying start. Those wishing to contact workers or chairmen may call the association's own telephone number, dial 8312.

At a meeting of officers and team captains Monday at noon in the Willard hotel, plans for the campaign were discussed and it was announced the drive would end at 6 p. m., Saturday, giving one full week to the work of organizing the membership. Team captains include Mrs. D. E. Van Vactor, Mrs. Joseph W. Peak, Mrs. F. Cecil Adams, Mrs. F. L. Weaver, and Mrs. Charles Hovey.

Hours at campaign headquarters, the writing room of the Willard, will be from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. with officers on hand during the noon hour. Those not contacted by workers during the week and who wish to obtain membership may call headquarters for information.

Adult memberships are being sold for $5, all concerts to be presented included in the membership. High school student memberships are being sold for $2.

A meeting of workers was called Monday night at 6:30 o'clock at the Willard hotel by President George A. Myers at which time Fox was to explain the campaign.

AGED PIONEER ILL AT ASHLAND HOME

F. E. Swingle, 83, life-long resident of Jackson, Lake and Klamath counties, is seriously ill at his home in Ashland according to word which reached here Monday.

Swingle spent 40 years stock-raising in Klamath and Lake counties, his holdings here centering in the Langell valley district around Lorella. It is understood that Swingle has been in a coma since Monday of last week and his condition is considered critical. He is well known to old timers of this section. Mrs. Swingle died in January, 1941, and the elderly stockman has been in ill health since that time.

PARLEYS SLATED TO RESUME AT KALPINE

Negotiations were scheduled to be resumed Monday afternoon between striking International Woodworkers of America workers (CIO) and the Kalpine plywood company management after a 10-day layoff.

The union was recognized as sole bargaining agent by the firm shortly after 39 employees had marched through CIO picket lines two weeks ago and resumed work. Representatives of both sides have met twice since then.

Meanwhile the Weed highway plant continued to work on a 24-hour basis and picket lines maintained their patrol. A meeting of Kalpine employees for Monday night at 7:30 in the IWA hall, 919 Klamath avenue, was called by CIO officials.

CITY POLICE 'CRACK DOWN' ON TRAFFIC

City police were "cracking down" on traffic violators much as they said they would last week, and 22 tickets were distributed throughout the business district Saturday and Sunday which brought exactly $22 into the city coffers Monday morning. In addition two warrants were issued and these offenders paid $2 each instead of the customary $1.

Chief of Police Frank Haman stated Monday all offenders who did not appear at the desk sergeant's window with fines tickets which they found on their cars, would find warrants presented by officers.

Eleven drunks were sentenced in police court Monday along with four vagrants and one charged with disorderly conduct.

Jesse Knighten forfeited $8 for violation of the basic rule, and $5 was forfeited by Howard Sexton on a similar charge. Four drunks bailed out over the weekend.
