

Attractive Bride Elect Honored

Virginia Laudwein Honor Guest at Shower Parties Prior to Wedding in Sacred Heart Church

Miss Virginia Laudwein, attractive April bride-elect, was complimented at several parties this past week prior to her marriage to Mr. Roger Walsh of this city on April the twenty-third in Sacred Heart church. The bride's family will arrive this week from St. Paul, Minnesota, to attend the nuptial mass at half past eight o'clock in the morning. The Rev. Father Timothy Casey will read the service.

On Tuesday evening of this past week Miss Phyllis Smith and Miss Patricia Sexton entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Smith on Jefferson street honoring Miss Laudwein with a miscellaneous shower. A rainbow effect was created with gifts in a pot of gold. Honors in guessing games went to Mrs. A. L. Parenteau, Miss Margaret Brocktrup, and Miss Betty Bell.

Guests included Mrs. Jack Kennedy, Mrs. Letha Foster, Mrs. Charles Dryden, Mrs. J. G. Cavanaugh, Mrs. Ray Weed, Mrs. Merritt Smith, Mrs. R. J. Walsh, Mrs. Earl Smith, Mrs. Francis Manning, Mrs. A. L. Parenteau, Mrs. Charles Roberts, Mrs. Frank Crawford, Mrs. Mike Lavenik, Mrs. Ruth Ray, Mrs. Irene Markham, Mrs. John Kelleher, Mrs. Phil Brick, Mrs. David R. Vandenberg, Mrs. Frank Sexton, Mrs. James Baker, Mrs. Charles Bremmer, Mrs. E. P. Ivory, Mrs. Arthur Palmer, Mrs. Otto Smith, Miss Audrey Edwards, Miss Betty Bell, Miss Margaret Brocktrup, Miss Mildred Crawford, Miss Dorothy O'Sullivan, Miss Helen Dunbeck, Miss Peggy Wells, Miss Kay Schloehauer, Miss Della McGrath, Miss Ranata Sari, Miss Lorraine Carroll, Miss Darlene Smith, Miss Martha Robison, Miss Luwana Smith, Miss Marjorie Hibbert, Miss Ethel Zimmerman, Miss Pat Healey, Miss Frances Balin, Miss Norma Sievers, Miss Laudwein and the hostesses.

A crystal shower was given for Miss Laudwein this week with Mrs. J. G. Cavanaugh and Mrs. Letha Foster hostesses at the Cavanaugh home on Melrose street.

Guests included Mrs. R. J. Walsh, Mrs. Merritt Smith, Mrs. John Kelleher, Mrs. T. J. Towe, Mrs. William Grove, Mrs. Chris Smith, Mrs. Fay Silliman, Mrs. Earl Smith, Mrs. Louis Corrigan, Mrs. Ruth Ray, Mrs. Otto Smith, Mrs. Robert Duna, Mrs. Frank Sexton, Mrs. Everett Shelly, Mrs. N. D. Metzger, Mrs. W. Crandall, Miss Della McGrath, Miss Lorraine Carroll, Miss Patricia Sexton, Miss Phyllis Smith, Miss Emma Oolman, and the hostesses.

Contract bridge and Chinese marbles were played with honors going to Mrs. Metzger and Mrs. Shelly in cards, and Mrs. Towe and Mrs. Corrigan in marbles. A special guest of the evening was Mrs. Cavanaugh's aunt, Mrs. Crandall, who has but recently arrived from her home in County Cork, Ireland. She told many interesting stories of her old home.

MRS. WIRTZ ENTERTAINS FOR ANW CLUB

Mrs. George Wirtz was hostess to twenty members and guests of the Art Needle Work club, Wednesday afternoon, at her home on Jefferson street. Mrs. E. E. Magee, for many years a resident of Klamath Falls, is in the city from her home in Richmond California, and was a special guest at this meeting, as were Mrs. C. W. Murdoch and Mrs. Susanne Homes Carter.

Mrs. Lyle O. Mills, junior past president of the club will entertain for the pleasure of the members, at her country home in the Pine Grove district, at the next regular meeting, May the seventh.

ALUMNAE CLUB ENTERTAINED AT KONSCHOT'S

The Alpha Chi Omega Alumnae club held a business meeting on April the fourteenth at the home of Mrs. Fred Konschot (LaVene McCollum) on Earle street, and at the close of the session a wedding gift was presented to the hostess from the group. At next month's meeting Mrs. Raymond Yarnes will entertain members at her home on the Keno highway when plans will be made for summer activities and a full attendance is urged.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Janz of Corvallis are receiving felicitations upon the birth of their third child, William Kenneth, born March the thirty-first. Mrs. Janz is the former Catherine Cleghorn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cleghorn of High street. Mrs. Cleghorn is with her daughter's family for several weeks.

Health Tea Spring Event

Thursday Day Set For Affair in Association Unit

Outstanding on the coming week's program is the tea to be given Thursday afternoon between the hours of two and five o'clock in the Klamath health unit at Pine and Eighth streets.

Chairman of the tea is Mrs. Mahr Reymers who will be assisted by Mrs. Robert Thompson, Mrs. Burge Mason Jr., Mrs. Harry Weimar, Mrs. Robert Hart, Mrs. James Busch, and Mrs. John Harris Jr.

All interested persons in the city, both men and women, are invited to attend the tea which is being given to foster interest in the work of the Klamath County Public Health department.

Pouring during the afternoon will be members of the board of directors of the health association.

FLOWER SHOW PLANS NEAR COMPLETION

Much interest is being shown in the annual spring flower show of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club scheduled for Saturday afternoon, May the seventeenth, in the Fremont school auditorium.

Mrs. Ernest D. Lamb, flower show chairman, stressed the fact the exhibit will be open both afternoon and evening.

Tea will be served during the afternoon with Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver as chairman. Although this week's weather has not been conducive to the growth of blossoms, the weatherman has promised warmth during the coming weeks and gardens are expected to burst into color promising all sorts of flowers for the show.

All organizations planning to enter exhibits this year are advised that entries will be card table size, and must be arranged by amateur members of their own organizations. The arrangements are restricted to garden flowers. An excellent response is being received from garden clubs throughout the county, according to Mrs. Lamb, who is contacting the groups this coming week.

Home from school during Easter vacation were Miss Francis Balin, daughter of Frances Balin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Balin, and Mr. Joe Sexton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sexton, who are students at Oregon State college.

HOSTESS AT DANCE

Mrs. Henry Gerber, who with Mr. Gerber, is chairman of the spring dancing party at Reames Golf and Country club planned for Saturday evening, April the twenty-sixth, at the club house.

—Kennell-Ellis.

MRS. JOHN COPPAGE

MRS. DAVID BULLIS

Annual Vestry Dance Slated

Mr. Langworthy Heads Committee for Party At Willard

What promises to be a gay affair of the coming week is the annual spring dance given by the vestry of St. Paul's Episcopal church with Mr. Lou Langworthy heading members of the committee.

The party is scheduled for Wednesday evening in the Willard hotel, and tickets are being sold by the vestry for the affair.

Hostesses will be heads of women's organizations, including Mrs. Victor E. Newman, wife of the rector, Mrs. R. Henry Anderson, Guild president, Mrs. John Coppage, Wednesday club president, and Mrs. David Bullis, head of Altar Guild. The public is invited to the dance.

LIONESS CLUB ENTERTAINS VISITORS

The April meeting of the Lioness club was held at Hickman's Monday evening in the form of a banquet honoring state officers of the club on a good will tour of all auxiliaries.

Tables were beautiful with pastel spring flowers and white tapers, and those attending were Mrs. George Davis, Mrs. Fred Heilbronner, Mrs. Clifford Voight, Mrs. Al Heup, Mrs. Howard Boyd, Mrs. Oliver Spiker, Mrs. Paul Skeen, Mrs. Lester Thompson, Mrs. Gene Hooker, Mrs. William Constans, Mrs. Ed Robinson, Mrs. Les Finley, Mrs. Al Pense, Mrs. Ted Shoop and the honor guests, state officers, Mrs. Harry Scott, president from Salem, Mrs. Oscar Sheppard, first vice president from Grants Pass, and Mrs. Ronald Jones, secretary and treasurer from Salem.

MRS. R. H. ANDERSON

HOSTESS AT VESTRY DANCE

Plans are complete for the dance to be given by St. Paul's vestry Wednesday evening in the Willard hotel ballroom. Hostesses will be Mrs. R. Henry Anderson, president of the Guild, Mrs. John Coppage, head of Wednesday club, and Mrs. David Bullis, president of the Altar Guild. Also a hostess is Mrs. Victor E. Newman, wife of the rector of St. Paul's.

—Kennell-Ellis pictures.

VISITOR TO BE COMPLIMENTED AT TEA SATURDAY

As a courtesy to Mrs. Jessie Withern of Palo Alto, California, who is editor of the International Toastmistress magazine and associated with the Stanford University press, an afternoon tea will be given Saturday, April the twenty-sixth, at the home of Mrs. A. J. Voyer on High street.

Mrs. Withern will be a visitor in the city for that day and will be honored at the tea by members of the local Toastmistress club of which Mrs. Walter Brown is president.

ANNUAL MAY FESTIVAL DATE NAMED

Friday, May the sixteenth, has been set for the date of Riverside's PTA annual spring May festival, party, and supper on the Big Lawn on Conger avenue. Mrs. C. S. Elliot has been named chairman of the affair and already she is working to organize committees to take care of the large crowd expected for the evening.

Mrs. Harlan Besworth is chairman of entertainment and a new treat is expected in addition to the crowning of the May queen the early part of the evening.

Bridge Club Entertained

Mrs. Marvin K. Lucas entertained Thursday evening at her home on Pacific Terrace for members of her bridge club. Guests were Mrs. Byron Hardenbrook and Mrs. L. A. Murphy. High score was held by Mrs. David R. Vandenberg, second high by Mrs. Harry W. Bathiany, low by Mrs. S. P. Miller, and Mrs. Murphy received slam award. Mrs. Paul Foster will entertain in a fortnight.

Spring Parties Given For Mrs. McLucas

Gay Affairs Compliment Young Klamath Falls Matron Prior to Departure From City

A number of parties were given during the past week honoring Mr. and Mrs. Don McLucas who left Wednesday with their family to reside in Dunsmuir, California, after a number of years' residence in this city.

Wedding Plans Told

Miss Lorenz Chooses Attendants for April Ceremony

One of spring's prettiest weddings will be that of Miss Gwendolyn Lorenz daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Lorenz of this city when she becomes the bride next Saturday afternoon, April the twenty-sixth, of Mr. Stanley Miller. The ceremony will be read at twelve o'clock noon in Sacred Heart church by Rev. Father Timothy Casey.

Miss Lorenz has asked Mrs. John W. Crawford (Ruth Mary Bathiany), to be her matron-of-honor, and bridesmaids will be Mrs. Myron Shannon and Miss Cleo Champagne.

Mr. Jack Bergreen of Fort Klamath will be the best man and ushers will be Mr. John W. Crawford, Mr. Myron Shannon, Mr. Richard Igl, and Mr. Wesley Lorenz.

Servers at the altar will be the bride's brother, Glenn Lorenz Jr., and Teddy Igl, with Miss Marie O'renchan at the organ. Mrs. Rollin Cantrell will sing Gounod's "Ave Maria," and Mr. Harry Borel will play the violin obligato. Following the ceremony a reception will be given at the home of the bride's parents on High street.

PRESIDENT ATTENDS PORTLAND MEET

A report on the state convention of the American Association of University Women being held this weekend in Portland will be given by Mrs. Godfrey Blohm, president-elect of the Klamath county chapter, at the meeting scheduled for April the twenty-sixth at the Elk hotel. Luncheon will be served at a quarter to one o'clock.

Mrs. Blohm, Mrs. James Kerns, newly elected vice president, and Mrs. Frank Drew, are attending the convention in the north this week.

An interesting musical program is being planned for the luncheon, and at this meeting plans for the annual senior tea to be held the middle of May will be made.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee McMullen returned the early part of the week from a visit in Salem with Mrs. Roger Mything, Mrs. McMullen's sister, and with their daughter, Frances Lee, student at Oregon State college. A visit to the coast was also enjoyed while north.

On Saturday Mrs. Robert Thompson entertained at her home on Pacific Terrace with a dessert bridge for Mrs. McLucas who received a number of going-away gifts from the guests. Freesias, yellow tulips and stock were used about the rooms with Easter favors completing the spring theme.

High score in bridge was given to Mrs. James Busch, second to Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver, and traveling awards to Mrs. C. A. Henderson and Mrs. John Harris Jr.

Guests included Mrs. McLucas, Mrs. Burge Mason Jr., Mrs. Charles Hovey, Mrs. Ted Young, Mrs. J. Truman Runyan, Mrs. Louis Serruya, Mrs. Robert Hart, Mrs. Cecil Adams, Mrs. Lloyd Goble, Mrs. George Myers, Mrs. Claude Davis, Mrs. James Busch, Mrs. Lawrence Slater, Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver, Mrs. C. A. Henderson, Mrs. Raymond Yarnes, Mrs. Charles V. Ruth, Mrs. Dwight French, Mrs. John Harris Jr., Mrs. John Houston, Mrs. Joseph Peak, Mrs. Arthur Larsen and Miss Virginia West.

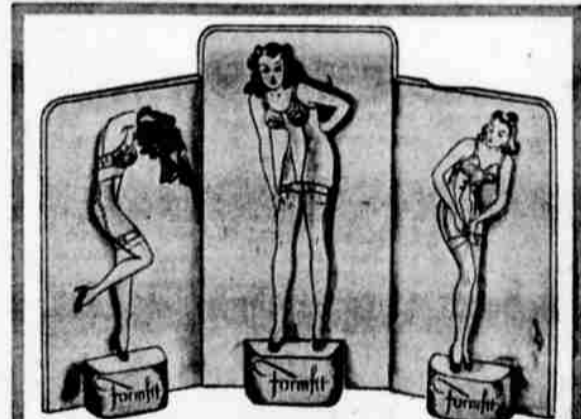

On Friday evening of last week Mr. and Mrs. McLucas were honored when Mr. and Mrs. Burge Mason Jr. invited a small group in for cards and dessert. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Yarnes, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Young, Mr. and Mrs. James Busch and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Larsen. Mr. and Mrs. McLucas were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Slater on Easter Sunday, and were also entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Ted Young before their departure.

On Monday afternoon, between the hours of four and six o'clock, Mrs. Charles G. Hovey entertained at her home on Pacific Terrace with a cocktail party honoring Mrs. McLucas. Fifteen were asked in to bid the honor guest au revoir.

TIN WHISTLE TOURNAMENT AT REAMES

Mrs. Martin Swanson won the tin whistle tournament played by women of Reames Golf and Country club Friday morning for having taken the most points. Hostesses for the day at the clubhouse were Mrs. Swanson, Mrs. T. Frederick Farley and Mrs. Earl Weimar.

Starting next week the players will take part in a 54-hole derby and a 27-hole derby. In cards last week, Mrs. Charles V. Ruth and Mrs. Farley won honors in east and west, and in north and south, Mrs. William Grove and Mrs. W. O. Smith.

We invite you to avail yourself of meeting

MISS BLANCHE JONES

Fornfit

FASHION EXPERT AND FIGURE ANALYST

here to counsel with you

on your figure needs

and to bring you

up-to-date with fashion.

MONDAY AND TUESDAY - APRIL 21 - 22

LaPointe's

"LET GEORGE DO IT" SWISS WATCH REPAIR SPECIALIST

A COMPLETE LINE OF JEWELRY

GEO. METZ

837 Main

Watchmaker and Jeweler