HIGH SCHOOL

News Notes and Comment
By June Michelson

Art club members voted to contribute $10 to the local municipal swimming pool fund. The Art club is the first around school to make contribution. The group also plans to buy 25 famous pictures and 10 books on art to start an art library.

"May Day" will be the theme of the last faculty tea of the year to be given after school Thursday, May 1, by the members of the Tea Toppers club.

On the committee planning this tea are: Joanna Prithard and Lottie Barnett, invitations; Barbara McLean, centerpiece; Margarette Pollard, Betty Buchanan, Bonnie Robin, and Wanda Shaw, who will pour; Jerry Ann Denchie, who will pour; Suzanne Michelson and Miss G. Karen Nelson.

The Girls' leagues last "hen party" of the year is the April Frolic dance scheduled for tonight (Tuesday) in the girls' gym. This is a costume party and absolutely no boys are admitted although it wouldn't be normal if some didn't try.

Boys should heed the lesson learned by a bunch of Medford lads who crashed a similar girls' dance there, were found out, and chased through the halls. All escaped but one who jumped out of a window. Yeah, he got out of the building but imagine that—a broken leg.

Not counting the rest of this week there are two weeks of regular classes, one week of review and another of final examinations left before school is out. Into these weeks will be crowded countless assemblies, dances, teas, banquets, and special programs.

A few anticipated events are the junior-senior prom, the April Frolic, the Commander Scott assembly, Mother's tea, track meet, for seniors alone there will be class day, skip day, hick day, the senior banquet, and several teas.

Jerry Ann Denchie is leading the queen of the track meet contest with 789 votes. Virginia Howard is following with 135 votes.

Daisy, Mrs. Aletha Shannon's petite black and white toy terrier, came to school with Teacher Shannon Monday because "she gets tired of staying home all the time."

The little pup spent the day in the Little Theatre. Dramatics classes studying their phonetics were a constant amazement to Daisy.

There will be a Chess club party at the Community Congregational hall, corner of Garden and Martin streets Wednesday evening at 7:30.

First half of the movie "Things to Come," was to be shown during home room period Tuesday. The second half is scheduled for Wednesday. This is the last pay assembly of the year.

MERRILL TO HEAR NOTED PREACHER

MERRILL—Dr. Luther Stein, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Glendale, Calif., who will attend the state Christian Endeavor conference in Klamath Falls this week will fill the pulpit of the Merrill Presbyterian church at the regular hour of worship next Sunday morning, April 27.

WEITKAMP TO ATTEND MEET IN ST. LOUIS

TULELAKE — W. H. Weitkamp, who with G. W. Osborne, E. W. Staunton and D. W. Turnbaugh attended sessions of the Southwest Oregon Presbytery, held last weekend at Grants Pass, was elected layman commissioner to the general assembly of Presbyterian churches to be held in St. Louis, Mo., beginning May 22 and continuing for one week. Rev. Hugh T. Mitchelmore, Myrtle Creek, Ore., will attend as ministerial commissioner. Rev. Mitchelmore is the father of Rev. Lawrence Mitchelmore, pastor of the Merrill Presbyterian church.

The quartet of Tulelake men, representing the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church, now without a pastor, were informed during the session that Rev. Hugh L. Bronson, now pastor of the Altamont Presbyterian church, Klamath Falls, will remain in his present post. Rev. Bronson, who served here for some time prior to leaving for eastern Oregon more than a year ago had been invited to return to Tulelake. His decision was voluntary and the question of his transfer did not come before the presbytery.

IEU AUXILIARY FETES 2ND YEAR

SPRAGUE RIVER — A large group of Industrial Employees union and their families gathered in the Sprague River gymnasium Sunday, April 20, to celebrate their second anniversary of the founding of the Sprague River chapter of the IEU auxiliary. The ladies served supper to the guests after which a contest was held to determine the winner of a large decorated birthday cake. Carl Rumlhart was the winner.

The IEU auxiliary, under the present leadership of President Maggie Blen and Secretary Ada Krueger, acts more or less as a social organization, although in the two years of its existence it has sponsored the school and community Christmas treat for the kiddies has worked to furnish the school kitchen and has conducted a road meeting at which the county commissioners met with townspeople. In gathering data for this meeting the women worked in shifts, stopping all cars on the road for information to present to the commissioners.

The organization has raised money for much of its work by sponsoring social dances. There are about 20 active members with several applications for membership to be considered at the next meeting. Next social function to be sponsored will be an old time party and social on the night of May 17.

Altamont

Rev. Paul Dickey and Frank Carlson of Portland have returned home from Klamath Falls. They attended a meeting in the Congregational church on Garden avenue Friday evening, April 18. They were accompanied by Rev. Arthur Stillman of Eugene, the moderator for the Congregational conferences for the state of Oregon. They were dinner guests of Rev. and Mrs. Eugene V. Haynes Friday preceding the meeting.

The Congregational Community circle will meet Thursday afternoon, April 24, at the home of Mrs. W. R. Nelson at 2025 Reclamation avenue for a neighborhood tea and Red Cross sewing.

Clayton C. Morris has returned to his home at 2027 Applegate avenue from a week's vacation when he motored to Puyallup, Wash., and other Washington cities to visit with relatives. He was accompanied home by his father, Coe Morris, who will reside here indefinitely.

ILLNESS FAILS TO HINDER OPERETTA

LAKEVIEW — The operetta given by students of the Lakeview high school, under the direction of Ralph Cole, was a success Friday evening in spite of mumps, measles and whooping cough.

Owing to recent illness, Betty Combs was unable to play her part as Glory Drinkwater. The vacancy was capably filled by Rosetta Hamacher at the afternoon performance. Honor, who pretended to be Glory Drinkwater, was played by Myrtle Wiman. Doctors Slaughter, Coffin and Cutner were comic parts played by Alfred Getty, George Brady and Eugene Favell. Mexican rustlers were Francis Elmers, Fields Flynn, Jack Stone, Charles Young and Glenn Clifton. Other characters were Cynthia, an ardent admirer of Dr. Coffin, played by Mary Singleton; Bob, Glory's fiancé, played by Sam Garner; Madame Chere, Honor's mother, played by Jeanne Vernon; Mrs. Weakley, a patient in the sanitarium, played by Donna Stone, and Doctor Drinkwater, proprietor of the sanitarium, played by John Dalen.

The dancing group, consisting of Ella Marie Brown, Eva Hickman, Esther Peterson, Mary Singleton, Jeanne Ogle, Bernice Gunther, Lois Smead, Beverly Bennet, Patricia Ludwick, Millie Barry and Mildred Winchester, presented many clever dance numbers.

MYERS RETIRES AS CONCERT HEAD

George A. Myers, for three years president of the concert association, now retires from that position and hands over the reins to Dr. F. Cecil Adams. Myers wished to thank all officers, workers, and residents of the city for the fine cooperation shown during the campaign and for the help given during the past week. Myers remains a member of the board.

Mrs. Offield expressed appreciation to all campaign workers and much credit also goes to Mrs. Claude H. Davis, secretary, and her assistant, Mrs. Lloyd Goble.

Although the other three concerts were not divulged, Myers said a "pleasant surprise" awaits membership holders and the finest series yet presented will be available here.
