My putting style used to be similar to that of Foul Runyan.

NELSON AND SARAZEN DEAL WOOD DEUCES

Nelson, current PGA titleheider, holed a No. 1 iron shot on the fourth hole of the Phila-delphia Country club's Spring

Mill course in our second play off for the National Open crown This remarkable shot was hit

Had Nelson shot par on the fourth, I believe I would have sunk my final putt to tie him again. As it was, I missed and finished three strokes behind.
Sarazen sank a 220-yard, No.
4 wood shot for a double eagle

on the 485-yard fifteenth hole of the Augusta National course.

He finished in par to tie me at 282, and took the playoff.

Winner of Masiers' Tourna-ment employs reverse overlap-ping grip in putting.

I bent the body a iot, had the feet apart and putted off the left foot. My grip was the same as on the other shot: — the Vardon over-lapping.
