to establish a theatre here, and told of his belief in the future of the Klamath country. He particularly noted the rapid growth of the southeastern suburban area, and said that a the atre was needed there. He told his audience that he hoped the Tower theatre would serve the suburban area well.

MUSICAL COMEDY STAR HEADS BILL

Maude Hilton, the well known musical comedy star, heads the current vaudeville bill at the Pelican theatre Wednesday and Thursday. Miss Hilton comes direct to Klamath Falls from the Carman Miranda unit which closed at the Golden Gate theatre in San Francisco recently. Miss Hilton's current offering is entitled "The Gab Fest" and is crammed with laughs and excellent humor. Miss Hilton is ably assisted by a comely young miss and their patter on the foibles of marriage are a highlight of com-

Coming direct from the New York musical hit, "The Bad Wagon," Lewis and Van, known as the "International Dancing Stars" cram more excellent dancing into their routines than most acts offer in a life-time.
