

Colonial Tea Event At Schallock Home

Prospective Members of Eulalona Chapter, Daughters American Revolution, Entertained

The charming home of the Fred Schallocks was the setting for the Colonial tea given by Eulalona chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Schallock was assisted by Mrs. Earl Reynolds, Mrs. John H. Martin, and Mrs. Warren Hunt.

Mrs. G. Logan Black, chapter regent, planned the tea as a compliment to prospective members and high school girls selected for the Pilgrimage contest. Spring flowers in artistic arrangements were used about the rooms. The dining room and table were especially lovely. Pouring were: Mrs. H. A. Nitschelm, Miss Virginia West, Mrs. Alfred Collier, and Mrs. Warren Hunt.

Guests included Mrs. Fred Hauger, Mrs. L. O. Mills, Mrs. Ida Grimes, Mrs. Elizabeth Saunders, Mrs. Ralph W. Stearns, Mrs. Mackey, Mrs. J. Royal Shaw, Mrs. J. C. Hunt, Mrs. Clarence Humble, Mrs. R. D. Bakestraw, Mrs. Robert Thompson, Mrs. Joseph W. Peak, Mrs. F. Cecil Adams, Mrs. A. N. Wenner, Miss Jerry Ann Denshie, Mrs. E. F. Murdoch, Mrs. R. E. Wright, Mrs. Allen Sloan, Mrs. A. J. Voye, Mrs. Virginia LaForge, Mrs. Sarah H. Foster, Mrs. H. M. Parkhurst, Mrs. J. L. Olsen, Mrs. C. G. Merrill, Mrs. Norval.

Members present were Mrs. S. B. Evans, Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones, Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall, Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg, Mrs. Harry Ackley, Mrs. G. Logan Black, Mrs. Alfred Collier, Mrs. Z. W. Dixon, Mrs. Warren Hunt, Mrs. John H. Martin, Mrs. H. A. Nitschelm, Mrs. Earl C. Reynolds, Mrs. Fred Schallock, Mrs. Robert Sloan, Mrs. Bert C. Thomas, Mrs. Helen Mueller, Miss Virginia West.

Mrs. Wilbur Arnold entertained with another delightful bridge luncheon on Tuesday for a group of friends at her home on Crescent avenue. Luncheon was served at a quarter past one o'clock followed by cards with high honors held by Mrs. Carl Reymers, second by Mrs. Chesleigh O. Moore.

Hyaline centered the tables with snapdragons and tulips arranged about the rooms. Guests hidden to the affair included Mrs. Carl Reymers, Mrs. Chesleigh O. Moore, Mrs. W. H. McPherren, Mrs. Lillian Hagman, Mrs. Elmer H. Balsiger, Mrs. Minnie Hammers, Mrs. Vernon Norval, Mrs. Roy Bakestraw, Mrs. Ted Shoop, Mrs. Carl Schubert, Mrs. Gus Anderson, Mrs. C. H. Underwood, Mrs. E. M. Chilcote, Mrs. Arthur Schaupp, Mrs. Carl Steinsiefer, Mrs. Harry Peltz and Mrs. Walter Webster.

Plans for the annual spring dinner dance were discussed by Mrs. C. A. Lundy, chairman of the dance committee. The dance will be held at Cal-Ore on May the fifteenth and all reservations must be made before May the twelfth.

After the business meeting bridge was played. First prize was won by Mrs. Paul Angstead, consolation by Mrs. L. P. Pennington, and guest prize went to Mrs. Ethel Storm.

Hostesses for the May fourteenth meeting are as follows: Mrs. E. B. Hamma, chairman, Mrs. W. D. Miller, Mrs. Matt Finnigan, Mrs. Lon Hunt and Mrs. M. L. Westford.

Mrs. Elton Mooney of Prineville, formerly of this city, visited briefly in Klamath Falls on Thursday.

Mrs. Jack Campbell is president of the local organization, first vice president and parliamentarian is Mrs. Joseph Whistler, Mrs. Mark Howard is secretary, and Mrs. Ray Ruger, treasurer.

Baldy Evans orchestra will play and tickets may be obtained from any member of the organization, or at the door.

GOLFERS START DERBIES AT REAMES FRIDAY

The first of a three weeks' series of 27 and 34-hole derbies got under way Friday at Reames Golf and Country club, and after a morning of golf a number of women stayed for cards in the clubhouse. Six tables were in play.

Hostesses Friday afternoon were Mrs. J. Hardin Carter, Mrs. Ray W. Oldenburg, and Mrs. Ted Medford.

Guests and Hostesses at DAR Colonial Tea

MRS. H. A. NITSCHELM

Left to right, Mrs. Warren Hunt, past regent; Mrs. Fred Hauger, Mrs. G. Logan Black, regent of Eulalona chapter; Mrs. H. A. Nitschelm, junior past regent, and Mrs. Z. W. Dixon.

Over the tea-cups, left to right, Mrs. Bert Call Thomas, Mrs. Helen Mueller and Mrs. Syd Evans.

MRS. WILBUR JONES, Post Regent, DAR.

KLAMATH GIRL ATTENDS MEET OF PI BETA PHI

Miss Margaret DeBolt of Klamath Falls, president of Pi Beta Phi sorority at Eugene, left Thursday as a delegate to the Northwest Province conference of the sorority being held at Spokane, Washington this weekend.

Miss DeBolt will be one of the speakers at the banquet and will participate in the discussions. Miss Mary Louise Vincent of Portland and Miss Elizabeth Daggett, formerly of Klamath Falls, will accompany her. The trio will return to Portland and attend the Founders Day banquet to be held there Monday evening.

Active and alumnae chapters will be represented at the Spokane conference from Alberta, Canada, Montana, Idaho, Washington and Oregon. Mrs. Ruth Barrett Smith, national vice president of the sorority, will be the main speaker.

Mrs. Willard Peyton and daughter, Patricia, have returned to their home on Eldorado street after a six weeks' trip during which they visited in southern California, in St. Louis, Chicago and other midwestern points with relatives and friends. En route home they spent a short time in Portland and at Vida on the McKenzie river with Mrs. Peyton's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Prince Helfrich.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Dennis have returned after spending several days in the north, visiting in Seattle and with their son, Junior, at Camp Lewis.

Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg, (right), chats with Mrs. G. Logan Black, Eulalona regent. Mrs. Wattenburg was organizing regent of the chapter and served for four years in that capacity.

DR. DUESNER TO SPEAK AT GARDEN MEET

Dr. Duesner, horticulturist located at the Tulelake CCC camp and working with the Lava Beds national monument, will be the speaker at the meeting Monday at two o'clock of the garden study group of the Klamath Falls Women's Library club. The meeting will be held in the small clubroom.

OREGON MOTHERS SLATED TO MEET MAY 5TH

Oregon Mothers will meet Monday, May the fifth, with Mrs. William Ganong at her home on Summers Lane. Desert will be served at half past one o'clock with a program to follow with Mrs. W. C. Van Emon as leader.

Sunday Dinner Guests at Home

Mr. and Mrs. R. Henry Anderson entertained at Sunday dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Edward Goekner and two children, Kent and Thirza, Mrs. Alice Anderson and Larry and Martin Snyder.

MISS JONES HOSTESS TO AAUW BOARDS

Miss Marycarol Jones, retiring president of the Klamath county branch, American Association of University Women, entertained Friday evening at her home on Huron street for members of the old board, and those of the new.

Bridge was enjoyed followed by coffee. Miss Jones' guests included Mrs. G. C. Blohm, newly elected president; Mrs. Dean Miller, Mrs. George Clark, Mrs. Arthur Cole, Mrs. James Kerns, Mrs. Harry Weimar, Mrs. Robert Thompson, Mrs. James Busch, Mrs. Robert Hart, Mrs. Samuel A. Mushen, Mrs. J. Truman Runyan, and Miss Virginia Fick.

Among those entertained here last weekend during the state meeting of the Grand Council of Job's Daughters were Miss Marjorie Beaudelle, Miss Marjorie Hansen, Miss Marjorie Simpson, Miss Marjorie Miller and Miss Mary Brown, all members of the Portland Bethel 3, who were guests at the F. H. Coffey home on High street.

The Mothers club of the Sacred Heart academy will meet in regular session Monday, April the twenty-eighth, at half past one o'clock. All members are urged to be prompt.

Dancing Party At Club Opens Season

Spring Affair at Clubhouse Given Saturday Evening by Committee of Ten Members

One of the gayest parties of the year is scheduled for Saturday night, (tonight), at Reames Golf and Country club as the first spring dance of the season is given for members and their guests. This is the first party at the clubhouse since the New Year's dance.

Tea Given Daughters

Interesting Affair Enjoyed During Jobs Convention

One of the most interesting events of the past week when the annual convention of Job's Daughters was held in Klamath Falls, was the tea sponsored by Past Honored Queen's and honorary members given in the Masonic hall on Friday afternoon from three o'clock until five o'clock.

An all-white decor was used during the afternoon with the tea table beautifully arranged with a white swan holding stock, freesias and tulips and flanked on either side by tall white candles in silver sticks.

Mrs. Melvin McCollum, (Edna May Thomas), was chairman of the affair assisted by Mrs. Merle Long, (Barbara Soule), Mrs. Fred Konshot, (LaVene McCollum), Miss Gladys Park, Miss Betty Merrill, Miss Betty Buchanan, Mrs. Ernel Hosley, (Margaret Templar), of Chiloquin, and Miss Barbara Palmer.

Betrothal Announced

Charles Scharfenstein Jr., To Wed Connecticut Girl in May

Romance in spring — and from New London, Connecticut, comes the announcement of the engagement of Miss Veronica O'Connell to Cadet Charles F. Scharfenstein Jr. Date of the wedding is set for Monday, May the nineteenth, in St. Joseph's church, New London.

The bride-elect is the charming daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Michael L. O'Connell, and the granddaughter of Mrs. Carolyn Shattuck Backus, South Windham, Connecticut. Miss O'Connell was graduated in June of last year from the Connecticut College for Women.

Mr. and Mrs. Scharfenstein and son, Talmage, will leave for the east coast within a very short time to attend the graduation of their son, Charles Jr., from the United States Coast Guard academy at New London, the week of May the fifteenth, and will remain until after their son's wedding on May the nineteenth.

FRENCH CLUB ENJOYS DINNER AT BATEAU

Le Cercle Francais of Klamath Union high school held its annual banquet in the Compass room at the Bateau Wednesday, April the twenty-third. The feature of the French dinner was Marseilles bouillabaisse, a sea-food soup traditional to southern France.

Officers elected for next year were Merion Albrecht, president; Ruth Pennington, vice president; Betty Yadon, secretary; Lucy Kimball, treasurer; Dorothea Ellingson, sergeant-at-arms, and Lois Schultz, Krater reporter.

Galeity Club With Miss Fenwick

Members of Galeity club were entertained Thursday evening by Miss Ethel Fenwick at her home on Auburn street. Bridge was played followed by supper. Guests included Mrs. David R. Vandenberg, Mrs. Floyd Henriot, Mrs. Elmer Hosking, Mrs. W. J. Kessler, Mrs. G. C. Lorenz, Mrs. Mike Lavenik, and Mrs. R. C. Dale. Mrs. Kessler will entertain in a fortnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Anderson returned home this week after an enjoyable ten-day motor trip through Yosemite park and to other California points.

SALEM MAID ANNOUNCES BETROTHAL

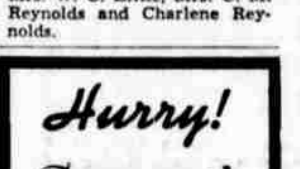

SALEM, Ore. (Special)—Of much interest to Salem and Klamath Falls society is the announcement being made by Mrs. Freda Stacey of the engagement of her daughter, Miss Patricia Noonan of Salem, and Darrell Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick B. Miller of Klamath Falls. The wedding will be an event of early August.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Salem schools and a popular member of the capital's younger set. Her fiancé is a graduate of the University of Oregon law school and a member of Alpha Tau Omega. He is now in business with his father at Klamath Falls.

Mrs. W. R. Nelson entertained members of the Congregational Community circle with a neighborhood tea at her home on Reclamation avenue Thursday afternoon when the hours were spent in Red Cross sewing after which refreshments were served to Mrs. Helen Eiting, Mrs. H. J. McGilvray, Mrs. W. L. Larson, Mrs. E. L. Mitchell, Mrs. W. C. Little, Mrs. C. M. Reynolds and Charlene Reynolds.

HURRY! Comart's American Youth Contest

BOYS AND GIRLS 10 TO 16 INCLUSIVE

CLOSES SATURDAY MAY 3RD

Many Grand PRIZES

CAMERAS TENNIS RACQUETS THEATRE SCRIP BOOKS

WINNING PICTURES WILL BE SHOWN ON THE SCREEN OF THE PELICAN THEATRE

No Cost! No Obligation!

ENTER NOW!

COMART Fine Photography

715 MAIN ST. Phone 8413

THE DEAREST OF ALL GIFTS FOR MOTHER'S DAY MAY 11TH

WE OFFER 9 LOVELY SPECIALS TO CHOOSE FROM - 75c TO $7.50

See OUR NEW EXCLUSIVE LINE OF 24-K GOLD PLATE FRAMES—THE FINEST EVER OFFERED IN KLAMATH FALLS

COMART Fine Photography 715 MAIN STREET TELEPHONE 8413