CHICAGO, April 29 (A)—Despite strength in the deferred contracts, May wheat turned downward in the final hour after fluctuating nervously throughout the session.

At the close May was k4 cent

At the close May was 1-1 cent lower, or slightly above the day's lowest but the new crop contracts finished with gains rang ing up to 2 cents.

Strength in the deferred de liveries was attributed to report that the house was about ready to take up the Fulmer farm aid bill which would grant loans on agricultural products based on 75 per cent of parity. A better showing by surrounding comm dities and by securities also had a bolstering effect much of the time. War news was virtually ignored.

Closing prices for wheat were i cent lower to i cent higher than Monday's final quotations. May 914-ic: corn was i cent off to ic up, May 681, July 681 ic and oats were ic lower to ic
