TWO interesting rumors are in the wind today. Russia has withdrawn diplo Bmatic recognition from German conquered Yugoslavia, Belgium and Norway. This is interpreted in diplomatic quarters as indicating a new Russian agreement with Germany.

SOME more advice:

Do no wishful thinking about France. The decay of French spirit (among the poli-ticians who hold the fate of what is left of France in their hands) is COMPLETE.

A FINAL bit of advice:

A FINAL bit of advice:

Do no wishful thinking about ANYTHING OR ANY BODY. Let nobody tell you that a shooting war, when we get into it, will be short and easy If you feet hat we must go to war, grit your teeth, roll up your sleeves, spit on your hands, pull in your belt and prepare to make whatever SACRIFICES may be necessary—knowing IN ADWANCE that before the war is won the sacrifices that EVERYBODY will be called upon to make will be heavy.

That is the spirit that wins wars.

Naval - Air Encounter Sees Loss of Many Ships, Fascists Say

By REYNOLDS PACKARD United Press Correspondent ROME, Saturday, May 10

(UP) - A furious battle was reported last night in the Mediterranean where Italian planes attacked a British convoy. Six British warships and five large merchantmen already have been hit by Italian aerial torpedoes and 16 British planes shot down, according to the fascist high

The naval-air battle, which raged for hours yesterday as Italians celebrated the fifth anniversary of the Italian empire, was said to have occurred when the fascist air force struck at a large British convoy trying to move reinforcements to the Egyptian battlefront.

Duce Loses Planes

The loss of five Italian planes was admitted by the high com-mand in three separate attacks. Huge aerial torpedoes and other big bombs were claimed to have scored hits on a battleship, an aircraft carrier, two cruisers, a destroyer and three merchant ships of the convoy.

Germans Retaliate in Kind With Further Raids Over Britain

LONDON, May 9 (UP)— Equivalent of the luftwaffe's worst "total destruction" raids on Britain was claimed tonight after a British armada of 300 to 400 bombers, in a record break-ing dusk to dawn assault, smashed and set fire to the great German ports of Hamburg and Bremen.

Bremen.

It was the royal air force's biggest raid of the war on Germany, unleashed as the nazi air force carried out costly, widespread "blockade" attacks on Britain's ports and cities.

Shortly before midnight the Berlin radio went silent and RAF bombers were believed to be sweeping across the channel again, bent on spreading the havoc of the record-breaking attack.
