YOU can just bet something's up—when motorists themselves get so excited over the New High Standard Gasoline!

We've never experienced anything like it! Behind it all is a sensational, new kind of gasoline—and you can get a demonstration in 15 minutes:

Let your car's gas tank run practically empty; and refill with the New High Standard Gasoline.

The tougher the test, the better. Slam your gas-pedal smack to the floorboard—and notice how effortlessly it gets down to business. Or just nudge it—gently. Notice how you nip into traffic—fast or slow—and up the "Jonah" hills . . .

Less than 15 minutes tells the story. Give your car a break—try the New High Standard!
