Ballot Title for Textbook Measure Irks Bill Authors

SALEM, May 15 (AP)—Ballot title for the referendum against the 1941 law loaning textbooks to private schools was appealed to the state supreme court late yesterday by Rep. Allan G. Carson of Salem and Sen. Rex Ellis of Pendleton, authors of the bill. They charged that the ballot title is deceptive in that it gives the impression that the books would be given, rather than loaned, to private schools. They also attacked use of the name "association against public taxes for private schools," appearing on the referendum petitions. The court was asked to prepare a substitute ballot title.

Seattle Pastor Also Is an Auto 'Mech'

Working on automobiles for a motor transit concern enables Rev. Byron G. Stablen to preach the kind of "down to earth" sermons his congregation likes to hear, says this Seattle pastor-mechanic. During the week he does a mechanic's work, assumes the pulpit of the Angle Lake Presbyterian Church on the Sabbath.

Plan Delicacies Ahead of Time For Spring Announcement Party

Announcement luncheons call for something just a little extra. Imagination and skill, rather than strain on the budget, will produce delightful frozen salads for these parties.

Frozen Walnut Salad (Serves 4 to 6)

Two 3-ounce cakes of cream cheese, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 cup mayonnaise, juice of 1 lemon, 1 cup crushed pineapple drained free of juice, 2 medium size bananas, sliced, 1 cup broken walnut kernels, 1 cup maraschino cherries in halves, 1 cup whipping cream, crisp salad greens, whole walnut kernels and some fresh fruit for garnishing.

Mix cream cheese with salt, mayonnaise and lemon juice; then add crushed pineapple, sliced bananas, broken walnut kernels and maraschino cherries. Fold in cream that has been whipped and pour into cold dry freezing tray. Set refrigerator control at coldest position until salad is frozen; then set cold control back to normal position so that salad may mellow before serving. To serve arrange whole mold or slices of it on a bed of crisp salad greens; garnish with whole walnut kernels and fresh fruit, such as sections of oranges, grapefruit or fresh strawberries.

Menu
BREAKFAST: Oranges, French toast, syrup, coffee, milk.
PARTY LUNCH: Clear chicken tomato soup, toasted cheese crackers, frozen walnut salad, fruit and water-cress, hot biscuits, strawberry cream tart, tea, milk.
DINNER: Boiled whitefish, caper sauce, fried potatoes, scalloped tomatoes, chocolate tapioca pudding, coffee, milk.

Control back to normal position so that salad may mellow before serving. To serve arrange whole mold or slices of it on a bed of crisp salad greens; garnish with whole walnut kernels and fresh fruit, such as sections of oranges, grapefruit or fresh strawberries.

Frozen Roquefort Cheese (Serves 4 to 6)
One-quarter pound Roquefort cheese, 1 package cream cheese, 1 cup cream, whipped, 1 green pepper, 1 small onion, 2 stalks celery, 1 teaspoon salt, dash cayenne, 1 teaspoon paprika, 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce.

Mash Roquefort and cream cheese. Blend with whipped cream. Grate green pepper, onion and celery. Add seasonings and freeze. Serve on lettuce with French dressing or as an appetizer on rounds of rye toast.

Tomato Cocktail Frappe (Serves 4 to 6)

Two cans (15 ounces) tomato juice, juice of 1 lemon, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon pepper, dash of cayenne, 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce, 1 cucumber, grated, 1 teaspoon grated

Sprague to Talk On Radio Friday

SALEM, May 15 (AP)—Governor Charles A. Sprague will deliver a half-hour radio address at 9 p. m. Friday on "Oregon and the National Defense."

The address will be carried by stations KOIN and KGW, Portland, and KSLM, Salem.

"Having completed a tour of Oregon's defense areas, I expect to make a report on my observations. It will review Oregon's participation to date in the defense effort, and outline state plans for the future," the governor said.

BRITISH LANDMARKS DAMAGED IN RAIDS

LONDON, May 15 (AP)—Lambeth palace, St. James' palace, the Queen's hall, St. Clement Danes church, the Old Bailey and the Salvation Army headquarters were among historic landmarks or well known places damaged in recent raids on London, officials permitted it to be stated today.

The church of St. Clement Danes, designed by Sir Christopher Wren and built in 1681 in the middle of the Strand, was gutted.

It is feared its famous bells may never ring again.

The old peal of bells in the church inspired the nursery rhyme: "Orange and lemons, say the bells of St. Clements."

The Old Bailey was damaged for the third time by a high explosive bomb which shattered the Newgate street end of the famous criminal court.

Though the gilded figure of justice still stands with outstretched arms on the dome, one of its four courts is ruined and the remainder are littered with debris.

Two porters inspecting the upper part of the building were killed when the bomb crashed down.

Famous Queen's hall, mecca for music lovers, was damaged severely and valuable musical instruments of the London Philharmonic orchestra were destroyed.

Orchestra members arriving to give a concert surveyed the scene of destruction, held a hurried meeting in the street, and left their manager seated at a table to give transfer tickets to patrons. At the appointed time they gave their scheduled concert at the Royal Academy of Music.

Lambeth palace for nearly seven centuries has been the London residence of the archbishops of Canterbury. It was damaged earlier in the war also.

Good luck has a habit of always butting in while a man is hard at work.
