LOST RIVER GARDEN CLUB TO MEET HERE

MERRILL—Lost River Garden club members will meet this month on Monday, May 26, rather than May 27, the regular meeting date which is being set ahead to permit those interested in flower arrangements to attend an all day meeting in Klamath Falls at which Mrs. McCulloch, Altadena, Calif., west coast authority on arrangements will speak.

The all day meeting to be held in the basement room of the Klamath Falls library which is being sponsored jointly by the Klamath Falls Library club and the Lost River Garden club starts at 10 a. m. with an informal discussion during the morning. Those attending are asked to bring a lunch and the main lecture will start promptly at 2 p. m. The guest speaker will analyze arrangements made by anyone interested and odd vases difficult to use for graceful arrangements may be brought for a lesson.

Mrs. G. A. Krause, pupil of Mrs. McCulloch, highly recommends the speaker and anyone interested in arrangements of blossoms for every use and every room may attend. Particularly are garden club members invited to be present. A charge of 35 cents will be made for the lecture.

The Lost River club meeting at the home of Mrs. M. A. Bowman will answer roll call on "Wild Flowers I Have Found in This Locality," and will complete plans for the annual flower show to be held here probably next month. Plans for the annual picnic will also come up. A speaker will discuss preparation of flowers for exhibit.

26 FROM KLAMATH GET DRAFT NOTICE

Klamath county will furnish 26 men for the US army under terms of the Selective Service act on June 4, service headquarters said Friday.

From board 1 there will be 11 selectees departing for Portland on the night train on that date, along with 15 from county board 2.

Although there are a few volunteers on hand for the call, Major Ted Case, local director, said most of the men will be called to service.
