Don't Call in the Wholesalers Just Give Me 10 Days.

Vern Moore
 Sales Manager, Balsiger's

My boss, Elmer Balsiger, says he is not going to be caught with an overstock of used cars at the start of the Summer new car selling season. With 150 new cars to be sold during June and July means 200 or more used cars traded in to find space for. He wants to call in the wholesalers, clear out our stock quickly and take his loss now. "But what about our customers?" I asked. "If we're going to sell cars at wholesale prices our customers are entitled to first chance at the savings." So come on folks: I have just 10 days. If you can beat the wholesalers to 'em they're yours at prices far below the retail market. I leave it to you, just compare our prices with any you can find in this part of the state. We're under them all. We can positively save you money. But come quickly, our stock won't last long at these prices; first come, first served!
