Baer Can't Budge In 7th; Joe Wins

Bomber Socks Challenger After Bell Ending 6th, Writer Thinks

By JACK CUDDY
United Press Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 23 (UP)—Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis, survived a trip through the ring ropes in the first round to retain his title tonight when big Buddy Baer was disqualified for failing to answer the bell for the seventh round.

Washington's first heavyweight title fight ended in wild confusion. Some 30,000 fans in Griffith stadium as bewildered as the ring officials apparently were over the bout's strange conclusion.

Baer did not answer the bell because he was still semi-conscious in his corner from being floored by a blow after the going had ended the sixth round.

Blasted Twice

Buddy, the California giant who was seeking family vengeance from the champion, was blasted twice to the canvas during the sixth round. He had risen at the count of 10 before the closing bell rang. It was uncertain to most observers whether he had risen before the full count.

In the roar of the crowd, Louis apparently failed to hear the bell because—seeing Buddy still swaying on his feet—he rushed at him and smashed him with a right that dropped the big fellow to the canvas.

Punch Questioned

Referee Arthur Donovan said this crushing blow landed before the bell and not after it, but most observers claim it followed the bell. That's the way it looked to this writer. Then Donovan, who was imported from New York for tonight's scheduled 15-round engagement, explains he went to Baer's corner when the bell rang for the start of the seventh session, and warned him and his handlers he must come out and fight, or get out of the ring. Baer did neither and for about three minutes there was utmost confusion in the ring, with Donovan rushing from Baer's corner to the two judges, Dr. Joseph E. Trigg and James Sullivan. No one knew what had happened or who had won the fight, or whether they were giving Buddy a rest—or what.

Announcer Jimmy Lake finally stepped to the microphone

Meet Albany Here Twice In Weekend

Amid appropriate opening night ceremonies at Klamath's Recreation field preceded by a downtown parade led by the Eagles Drum Corps, the Klamath Falls Pelican baseball club will officially dedicate the 1941 Oregon State league season at home in a contest against the Albany Aces, league, state and northwest diamond champions for the 1940 season, under the lights of the local athletic arena starting at 7:30 p. m.

This night game with the Albany nine will be an exhibition affair, according to team directors, and will not count in league standings, but the second tilt of the weekend series, slated for 2 p. m. Sunday afternoon, will be the official league contest.

ever to be entered in the fast Oregon State baseball circuit, will be making their home debut in league competition with a new manager, Second Baseman Ernie Bishop, at the helm.

Red Sanders, who held the managerial reins up to the first of this week, resigned Thursday stating that lack of time and inability to make long weekend trips with the club caused him to sever relations with the club.

Bishop, a former Washington State college baseball and basketball star who last season played second base for the Twin Falls Cowboys of the Pioneer league, will be a playing manager from present indications. He has been a fixture at second base since the season began and observers have no reason to believe that he will not keep himself there.

Interest High

Baseball enthusiasts of Klamath Falls have long foreseen the eventual entry of a Klamath baseball team in the state league and will watch with much interest the two games this weekend, the first such encounters ever staged here. Directors of the team, headed by Bob Howard, president of the Pelican Baseball club, hope that the team lined up this year will give local fans an incentive to turn out en masse to witness the games to be played by the Pelicans here this year.

Besides Howard such men as Al Dollarhide, Frank Snyder, Pete Lesmeister and others have gone out this season to attempt to line up a contingent capable of holding its own in state league competition. Several new players including Babe Schwab, ex-Portland Beaver infielder, Carl Reed, former coast league baseballist, and Warren Wahner, young Hillsboro, Ore., catcher, were signed to bolster a squad held over from the old Klamath Red Sox teams of the Northern California loop.

Paul Crapo, a local lad and ex-Linfield college player who last season played with the Big Lakes Sox nine, is another new man. Three more, Hurler Virge Haynes, and infielders Don Jones and Anthol Riney, have shown first string ability and will see action against Albany.

Holdovers Paul Bernadou, Marshall Eystone, Earl Brooks, Jack Lloyd and Clyde Carlstrom complete the roster.

Lyons Wins 237th, Whips Tigers, 7-1

By PAUL SCHEFFELS
United Press Staff Correspondent

Eighteen years ago a young man by the name of Theodore Lyons traded a college diploma for a Chicago White Sox uniform and from all current indications has become the iron man who refuses to rust.

Although Ted, now close to 41 years old, has long since passed his peak, he's still as tough as they come when given a week's rest. His natural cunning and a superb condition do the rest.

The "old boss" checked in with his fourth victory of the season against one defeat Friday as the White Sox won the first game of a doubleheader from the Detroit Tigers, 7-1. Lyons scattered 11 Tiger hits as the Sox spurned for five runs in the first inning and coasted to the 237th victory of his long career. He exhibited his usual good control, issuing no bases on balls and struck out three.

Bruce Campbell clouted two homers—good for four runs—to lead the Tigers to a 9-0 triumph in the nightcap. Dizzy Trout gave up seven hits to win his second victory.

The Boston Red Sox and New York Yankees fought to a 9-9 free-hitting tie. The game was called because of darkness.

Elmer Riddle's effective relief pitching plus a four-run third inning gave the Cincinnati Reds an 8-4 victory over the Chicago Cubs. Ernie Lombardi collected four of the Reds' 10 hits while the Cubs collected only four.

French Forces Join British In Palestine

DAMASCUS, Syria, May 23 (AP)—A French commander and 200 volunteer soldiers have deserted to the British in Palestine and Trans-Jordan after a fight with frontier guards in which a few were killed and wounded on both sides, it was announced officially tonight.

The commander was Colonel Collet.

Authorities denied, however, that any De Gaulle (free French) troops had entered Syria or that regular French troops in Syria under General Henri Dentz were retiring. Such reports had been broadcast by the De Gaulle from equatorial Africa.

Fishin's Fun

By WALTON IZAAK

The big news of course is DIAMOND LAKE. The fishing on opening day was very good. About 90% of the fish caught were on trolls.

The boys I talked to and the troll we used to catch our limits was a two tone Ford Fender. You should bait the fender with worms about two feet behind the bottom blade and don't be afraid to use large hooks. Troll about 50 yards of line and fairly slow. The deep water is best this time of year, at least for the next three weeks.

Shallow shore water still has quite a few spawners and those that fish with bait close in will find this out. The bait fishermen around the deadline did very well and most of them got limits on cluster eggs. Some large fish were caught on trout-O-renos, but this was the exception rather than the rule.

As a suggestion to the management of the lake I would like to say that most of the folks who are visiting, are either on a vacation or a fishing holiday and are due consideration and help.

The fishing for this weekend is very hard to predict, due mostly to possible clear and smooth water. Trolling flashers and bait fishing will be best and early morning is the time to sneak up on them.

and no reservations obtainable for this weekend, to my knowledge. Apparently mail reservations mean nothing as many have told me. The best way, I guess, is to try and get the resort on the phone if you must make reservations for the following week.

The Isaac Walton league had their annual fish fry on the KLAMATH RIVER and the event was well attended. Paul Hess was high gun with Gene Meyers as the committee in charge had no report.

EAST LAKE should be a hot spot with this nice weather and bait fishing with worms in order.

PAULINA LAKE should be good this weekend with some nice trolling weather and the fact that the fish being caught are running larger should make this a popular spot this weekend. Red and nickle Doc Shelton Flashers have been popular.

ELK LAKE has reported some good catches and quite a few limits. The lakes and streams in and around Bend all seem to report good fishing with a lot of luck on flies. Bucktail flies seem to get the call more often.
