TIONESTA TO HAVE WORSHIP SERVICES

Worship and preaching services will be conducted in Tionesta, Calif., by the Reverend Theodore E. Schulz, beginning next Sunday, May 23, and regularly thereafter. The meetings will be held in the school building and will begin at 7:30 o'clock.
Mr. Schulz is the new minister of the Federated church of Alturas, the church having been formed by the federation of two previously existing congregations, a Baptist and Congregational. Until recently Mr. Schulz was the pastor of the Parkway church of Long Beach, where he served for nearly eight years. His introduction to the Alturas congregation was effected through the Northern California Congregational conference.
The meetings are to be non-sectarian in outlook and are intended to minister to the spiritual needs of persons of all denominational groups. In the hope of being able better to meet the personal needs of the people, Mr. Schulz will visit a few homes each Sunday afternoon and will be available for private interviews and counseling.

RADIO SPEAKER TO APPEAR HERE

Miss Ethel Hubler, whose talks have been heard on radio stations from coast-to-coast for the last several years will speak in the First Methodist church at North Tenth and High streets on Monday at 8 p. m.

Miss Hubler, editor and publisher of "The National Voice," national tabloid weekly, will discuss repeal and its effects upon the social and business structure in the United States. She will review the promises made by those who sought repeal of the Eighteenth amendment, and discuss the manner in which these promises have been kept, giving up to the minute statistics on bootlegging, kidnaping, drunken driving, and liquor consumption since repeal. She will also have some thing to say about the revolting conditions in and around military camps where liquor is sold.

Miss Hubler is a member of the National Temperance council, composed of the leading temperance organizations in America. This meeting is being supported by the Klamath Falls Ministerial association and other groups. The public is cordially invited to attend.
