

HUSKY HEROES

According to private advice from Frank Calise, our somewhat over-enthusiastic but unflagging Merrill outpost, Urgent Ural Snapp, of basketball fame, was chosen by Merrill preppers as the school's outstanding athlete for the year just ended.

At the same time, Tom Chaburn was named the most outstanding sportster for the four-year period recently completed by the graduating class of 1941. Both lads received their diplomas this month.

Urgent Ural, 175-pound high-scoring basketball guard, this year was named on The News-Sun's all-B league cage five picked by the eight B loop coaches. He participated in virtually every sport during his one-year stay at Merrill as he did when attending the Marysville, Calif., high.

Troubadour Thomas, also named on The News-Herald all-star five, is a four-year letterman, and was captain of the hoop team this year, headed the football team during his junior days.

NO DEER DEARTH

The outlook for increased deer-hunting opportunity in national forests is bright, says Dr. H. L. Shantz, wildlife management specialist for the US forest service.

Shantz asserts that the annual national forest deer "take" by hunters is only about nine percent of the herd, and hunters probably take only one-third of annual increase.

"Good management," says Shantz, "would dictate a lower predator take and a higher hunter take."

AT RANDOM DEPT.

Trinnis Lenhart, veteran horse breeder and starter, will set them away during the upcoming race meeting at the fairgrounds. He's the man who's been doing it at Yreka meetings. . . . It's rumored salary difficulties contributed largely to the Pelican demise of Virgil Haynes, ex-Oregon flinger. . . . The world's record Great Northern pike is a 46-pound-2-ounce monster taken by Peter Dubuc from Sacandaga reservoir in New York state in 1940. It won the Field and Stream contest for that year. A Heddon flap-jack surface bait was responsible. . . . Oldest mark on national intercollegiate track record books is Frank Sloan's 42.2-second straightaway 440 established in 1915. The straightaway race has since been discontinued.

JUNIOR QUEEN

PORTLAND, May 29 (P) — Phyllis Metzger of the Monteville-Russellville district of Portland was chosen queen of the 1941 Portland Junior Rose festival last night. She is eight years old.
