Davis, 'World's Fastast Human,' Fails; Botiste Scores 29 Points Alone

DENVER, May 31 (UP)—Sacramento, Calif., Junior college won the national junior college track and field meet in Denver university stadium today as three records were toppled and Hal Davis failed again to live up to his billing as the "world's fastest human."

Sacramento, with dusky Joe Batiste, its "one-man" track team, scoring 29 points, had a comfortable margin over Compton, Calif., Junior college, runner-up to Los Angeles City college in 1940. Compton scored 68 2-5 points to Sacramento's 2015.

Santa Ana, Calif, Junior college finished third with 50 points, and Davis' Salinas, Calif, team was fourth with 44 From that point on the teams were strung out with 20 of the 30 entrants scoring at least one point.

BERKELEY, Calif. May 31 (UP)—Grover Klemmer, long-legged University of California sophomore, today equalled the world's record of 46.4 seconds in the 440-yard run but University of Southern. California's balanced power easily won the Pacific Coast conference track and field championships.

USC rolled up 73 points, winning five events, to capture the team championship. California was second with 488, and Stanford and Washington State tied for third with 24 each. Other point standings were Idaho 14, UCLA 124, Washington 9, Oregon 8, Montana 6 and Oregon State 6
