WELCOMED HOME.

By Hundreds of Loving and Gratiating Friends.

A GLORIOUS DAY HERE.

Ross Sutton and Moray Applegate Two Brave Boys Who Have Done Honor to Themselves and Their Country, Receive a Glorious Welcome—Were Members of the Second Oregon Regiment.

The great event, which the people of Klamath Falls were looking forward to last week, is a thing of the past. Last Friday afternoon, as was expected, Ross Sutton and Moray Applegate, the two returning heroes of many battles and skirmishes in the Philippines, arrived in the Falls with Capt. I. D. Applegate. When they first put in appearance on top of the hill leading into town, the loud whistle on the planing mill announced their coming. They were met in West Klamath Falls by the brass band and a large number of people who crowded around the wagon to get a glimpse of and to shake hands with the boys in the yellow khakis. The air was rent with many hearty cheers and hats and hands were waved by the crowd to express their gladness in the safe return of the volunteers.

With the band in the lead, followed by the two volunteers, then a mass of citizens, the procession started across the bridge and down Main street, which was gaily decorated with flags and bunting, as they passed the Hotel Linkville, where a large crowd had assembled, the boys were greeted with cheers so loud as to almost drown the noise of the band. Such was the case all along the street, until the home of the boys was reached, where a still larger crowd had gathered to welcome them. While the band played several pieces the boys were welcomed by relatives and friends that left no doubt in their minds, if there had ever been any, that Klamath Falls welcomed them with hearts overflowing with love and gratitude, and pride for the honor their regiment had bestowed on the state of Oregon and to the whole country as these heroes belong to the United States as well as to Oregon.

In the evening at 8 p. m. exercises were held at the opera house where every available inch of space was occupied by an anxious people who had come to see and welcome home again Klamath's two volunteers. Following is the program of the exercises:

- Overture ... By Band. Invocation ... Rev. C. A. Stockwell. (H. L. Benson, J. H. L. Applegate, J. S. Orr, J. S. Orr.) Addresses of Welcome ... (H. L. Benson, J. S. Orr, J. S. Orr.) Vocal Solo ... Mrs. G. H. Smith. Introduction of volunteers by Chairman ... J. W. Hamaker. Responses ... (Moray L. Applegate, Ross S. Sutton.) Music ... By Band. Presentation of Flowers ... Flower Girls. Congratulations.

After the congratulatory speeches, Capt. O. C. Applegate was called forward and made a short address after which he introduced Merrill E. Gates, secretary of the Indian commission at Washington, and E. H. Pratt, superintendent of the Indian school at Carlisle, Pa. These two gentlemen delivered able speeches which were appreciated by the audience. Mr. Pratt, who is a member of the regular army, stated that the regular army would have to go to the front and take care of the volunteers have left, saying it was their duty and business to do this for which their return no grand reception would be given. He also said, pointing to the two boys in uniform, that these two young men are only two of a job lot. As we understand, these two boys are good representatives of the volunteers, and the finest class of men the United States ever sent as a "job lot" to meet a foe, especially the Oregon regiment who proved themselves worthy of the name and the flag they fought for. After the exercises the hall was cleared and everybody enjoyed themselves to their hearts content by tripping the light fantastic until 3:30 a. m.

At 12 o'clock midnight a sumptuous banquet was spread at the Hotel Linkville, and as the crowd came into the dining room the orchestra began playing and received them with strains of patriotic music. There were plenty of people and plenty to eat and that they all enjoyed the treat was evident by the way the boiled ham, chicken, sandwiches, pies, cakes, etc., disappeared. During the banquet toasts were given by several prominent men of the Falls. The reception was all that the most sanguine could have wished for, and the boys appreciate what was done in honor of their return home to Klamath Falls.

To Rev. W. H. Dierdorff is due the credit for the handsome decorations that adorned the opera house.

Mrs. R. W. Marple and Mrs. H. F. Schallack furnished the beautiful flowers that were used to decorate the stage at the opera house Friday evening.

Mr. Kiernan had the dining room of the Hotel Linkville decorated in an artistic manner and over the door in large letters was the word "Welcome," which was the first thing to catch the eye of the volunteers, the next was the good things spread on the table to eat.

The girl who can walk along the street attached to a hero of the Second is as nearly in heaven as she can ever be on earth.

Emmitt Austin, of Merrill, was in the Falls the first of the week and informs us that the cable he was going to lay across Tule lake to connect the Klamath Falls-Merrill telephone line with Montague will not be laid this fall as the cable that was to be used, which is second handed, is no good. The company will probably purchase a new one next spring.

Milk Pans at Duffy's.

A large camping party from Medford, who have been visiting all the noted places of interest and summer resorts for the past two weeks, passed through town yesterday on their way home. The party consisted of fifteen people, traveling in five wagons, and were as follows: D. T. Lawton, wife and three children and nephew, Mort Lawton, Mr. and Mrs. Meeker, Mrs. W. H. Meeker, Mrs. Medynski and daughter, Messrs. Billy Bates, Carl Sample and Clarence Meeker and Miss Ruba Kellogg, of Portland.

Shoes and Gloves at Duffy's

Klamath county was visited by a heavy rain storm last Saturday and Sunday which delayed harvesting for several days. In the Wood river section the heavy rain caused some damage to the hay, as there was a large amount down which was not dry, and the stacks that are not completed were badly soaked with water. On and near the mountains there was a heavy snow storm all day. There has been an entire absence of warm weather during the week. On Monday night a heavy frost did a great deal of damage all over the county.

Dreyfus' Counsel Shot.

RENNER, Aug. 14.—Maitre Labori, counsel for Dreyfus, was waylaid and shot this morning at 6 o'clock while on the way to the trial.

After the shooting the would-be murderer ran across the field until he reached a railroad; he dashed across the track in front of a train just arriving and disappeared in the dense woods. Colonel Picquart and his brother-in-law, Gast, who accompanied Labori, pursued the murderer for some distance, but as both were heavy men, they were unable to continue the pursuit, and returned to the wounded man, leaving the chase to a number of peasants and laborers. Madame Labori, wife of the lawyer, who is an American lady, was notified and rushed to her husband's side, doing everything possible to ease his agony. It is reported that the famous lawyer said as he lay wounded on the ground: "I may die from this, but Dreyfus is saved."

Colonel Jouaust called after the close of the session of the court-martial and was allowed to see Labori. He expressed the deepest regret at the occurrence. General Mercier followed, but the doctors declared Labori could not bear such an interview in his present state, and Mercier was obliged to go away without seeing the injured man.

JACKSON COUNTY ITEMS.

Medford Mail:] Dr. C. C. Fletcher came over from Ft. Klamath last week. The doctor returned to the Fort Tuesday where his family will probably reside. He has purchased an eighty acre tract of meadow land from Mr. McComb, formerly of Tolo, this county—that is, he has purchased Mr. McComb's improvements, the land being his reserve and belonging as yet to the government. Mr. Fletcher, however, will return to Medford about September first and continue, for a time at least, his dental profession in this city. Mr. McComb expects to go to northern Oregon.

A. H. Engle, head Sawyer at the Klamath Agency sawmill, accompanied by his family and C. Barker, came in Wednesday. They have rented a house on North B street, where they will stop for a time.

BORN.

DIERDORFF—At Klamath Falls, Or., Aug. 11, 1909; to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dierdorff, a son.

BARKS—Near Merrill, Aug. 15, 1909; to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barks, a 12 pound son.

MARRIED.

At Klamath Falls, Or., Aug. 15, 1909; Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Galarran and Miss Mabel Brandon; Rev. W. H. Dierdorff officiating.

Miss Brandon is an accomplished young lady, and a sister of F. S. and G. W. Brandon, the Merrill millers. Mr. Austin, formerly of Oakland, Cal., and who with his father and mother located at Merrill last October, is an enterprising young man. Mr. Austin is one of the promoters in the Merrill-Klamath Falls telephone line. They left for their home at Merrill yesterday.

The REPUBLICAN joins with many friends in extending congratulations and best wishes.

For Sale—A first class Kimbal Organ. GEO. T. BALDWIN.

Remember Klamath Falls has a first-class shaving parlor at the O. K.

At the present rate of paying scalp bounties, it will probably cost the state $300,000 in the next ten years.

One of the features of the Oregon Industrial Exposition this season will be a war museum. It will consist of trophies, relics and curios brought back from the Philippines by the Oregon volunteers, and the collection will be one such as was never before seen in the northwest. The fair will be held from Sept. 28 to Oct. 28, and all railroad and steamboat lines will give reduced rates.
