Russia is getting meddlesome and is trying to get her paws into the Alaska boundary despute, between America and England. What interest Russia has at stake can not be found out, but it is supposed that she is trying to keep the United States and England from coming to any satisfactory terms, and thus prevent an Anglo-American alliance.

The best that can now be done for Mr. Astor is to make him a baronet or a knight, and Labouchere cynically remarks that "if he is ready to pay, he will have no difficulty in negotiating the Beef prices at Chicago, the Chicago Record tells, are advancing in a very remarkable way. And yet it is difficult for the retailers to get rid of the cheaper parts of the mest. The people demand the sirloin and perterhouse steaks and the rib roasts, and look with disfavor on the chuck and round steaks. This is a condition of things which indicates that labor finds employment and gets good wages. Yet it is certain that the beef trust is making excessive profits. The combine has relations with the railroads that enables it virtually to shut out competition. Dealers in New York, it was announced a few days ago, are arranging to emancipate themselves from the control of Chicago, and a big two property which may have the control of Chicago, and a big two property which may have the This is a condition of things which indiwar is in prospect, which may have the effect of carrying prices yet higher.

Pension agents are getting up elaborate circulars on the pension subject and circulating them amongst the returned volunteers, telling them just how they can get their pension and encouraging the ex-volunteers in every possible way. But there seems to be a certain amount of feeling among the men that it is a disgrace to ask for a pension unless they oo are badly disabled. And for this reason these pensions sharks that expect to reap a rich harvest, will be badly disap-
