Daniel Cronemiller and wife of Fort Klamath, have been visiting friends in California for several weeks, and returned home on Monday.

Town election comes off next Monday at the new town hall. The officers to be elected are five trustees and a treasurer and recorder, each for the term of one year.

Judge Willits received a letter Tuesday morning stating that Mr. Maroni Oman, who was committed to the insane asylum from this county, December 9, 1893, died in that institution on February 26 last, of pneumonia.

J. F. Goeller informs us that he expects to discard the steam engine in his planing mill and operate his machinery with electric power as soon as the company, of which he is the leading member, gets its electric plant in running order.

Found, by Major Worden on the sidewalk in front of the blacksmith shop east of the Linkville house, about two weeks ago, a pocket book containing a heavy gold ring. It was left at Baldwin's store and the owner is requested to call, prove property and pay charges for advertising.

An exchange says that an amendment to the homestead law has been introduced in congress, which provides that persons, who have by any reasons lost their homesteads without having proved up on them and who have not relinquished or sold them for a valuable consideration and persons who have heretofore commuted their homestead entries, may take another homestead, the idea being that such persons have not had the full benefit of the homestead law.

C. J. Dickerson and J. W. Whitlock, of Silverton, Or., came here last week and left Monday evening to return home. Mr. Whitlock was looking for a suitable location for a furniture store, and seemed to be pleased with the outlook here. Especially so if the talked of railroad materializes. It would then be an admirable locality for a great variety of enterprises. Messrs. Whitlock and Dickerson said that quite a number of people at Silverton and vicinity, several of them wealthy, are thinking of removing to Klamath county as soon as the road becomes a certainty.

Two lots with fair dwelling, must sell in the next month. The price will floor you. One whole block near public school, no improvements. A bargain. C. L. PARRISH.
