imber Land, Act June 3, 1878-

AN APPEAL TO REASON.

The semi-annual statements of the county clerk, treasurer and sheriff, published last week in this paper, show that the county business and especially the financial affairs are in ex-cellent shape. Such semi-annual Grob of Lakeview, County of Lake, State statements during the past two years of Oregon, has this day filed in this office have constantly shown that the prompt payment of taxes, economy purchase of the S 1/2 of N1/2 of Section No. in the use of county money and good and careful management in all the affairs of the county are bringing the county out of debt and will naturally poses, and to establish his claim to said lead to the decrease of taxes.

Thus, for instance, during the past two years the records show that the sheriff has collected between $15,000 and $20,000 of taxes which were old, having run several years, and may be said to have been always to this office at Lakeview. Oregon, on Monday, the 7th day of May, 1900. He names as witnesses:

E. W. Burns, of Ashland, Oregon; frank H. Crowson, of Ashland, Oregon; Frank H. Crowson, of Ashland, Oregon; said to have been almost outlawed. John H. Will, of Talent, Oregon. This might have seemed hard to and all persons claiming adversely the some, but he was compelled under the above-described lands are requested to law to do it. This $15,000 or more file their claims in this office on or bewas so much reduction of county indebtedness by reducing the amount of principal and interest which the county has to pay. There may be some who will blame the sheriff for Notice for Publication. his strict business methods, but really it is the only way that can be done to bring a county out of debt and afterwards to keep out of debt and from paying interest.
