GERMANY COMPLAINS

Against Restrictions on Her Exports of Manufacturers.

New York, May 26 .- A special to he Herald from Washington, says: In answer to the complaints made by the United States against the restrictions imposed upon American meats, Gernany is complaining of vexatious regulations enforced with respect to her manufactures.

Under the rule of the treasury department, consular officers are required to report on the composition of manufactures imported from Germany into the United States. The manufacturers are averse to communicating to foreign consular officers the ingredients they employ and the German government has sustained them in their refusal to do so. The Berlin authorities think that the regulations might be amended so as to remove the cause of complaint. Action will not be taken by this government, however, until it learns the final lecision of the German legislature on the meat inspection bill.

It is hoped of the state department that the bundesrath will amend the bill so as to remove the prohibition apon canned meats and sausage, which the reichstag bill imposes.

There is no expectation among officials that negotiations for a treaty of reciprocity with Germany will be resumed for some time.

Spectacle in St. Peter's.

Rome, May 26.-There was a magaificent spectacle in St. Peter's today on the occasion of the canonizaton of Jean Baptiste de Lazelle, founder of the Order of Christian Brothers and Rita Di Casia, a nun of the Augustinian order. The interior of the vast Basilica was illuminated and adorned with magnificent hangings, and the building was filled with a great concourse of people, including all the pontifical dignitaries, diplomats and Roman nobility. Pope Leo, attired in his state robes, was borne at the head of an imposing procession. A roar of heering rose from the multitude on the pope's approach, but the applause was quickly hushed by the guards.
