A Medford exchange says that a firm in that place has sold and sent to Klamath county about 60 vehicles since Jan. 1st. It is to be hoped that Klamath county will soon have a carriage and wagon manufactory of its own so that buyers may get what they want without climbing over the mountains.

An eastern statistician says that "Oregon alone, if as thickly populated as Germany, would contain 22,000,000 people; as France, 18,000,000; as Denmark, 12,000,000, and as Belgium, 40,000,000. When the state is as well filled up as Illinois, it will have 8,000,000 people; as Pennsylvania, 12,000,000 people; as Massachusetts, 26,000,000. The six New England states, with substantially no minerals, except marble and building stone, with not the best agricultural lands, with forests almost swept away, and general resources worn by 200 years of cultivation, support nearly 5,000,000 people on about 67,000 square miles of territory. Washington alone has 69,000 square miles, and Oregon 96,000."

The New York Journal and the New York Herald, the one friendly and the other unfriendly to Mr. Bryan, agree in saying that "three-fourths of the delegates at Kansas City wanted 16-to-one left out of the platform." They further agree in saying that it was put in, with absolute unanimity, against the wishes and convictions of three-fourths of the delegates, on the personal insistence of Mr. Bryan, and on his threat to withdraw as a candidate if it were left out. Whether this measures the dominancy of a man or the pusillanimity of a convention, or both, it is a very remarkable fact in the world. No nominee ever had so much power over a party, or if he did ever exercised it so absolutely. No other party ever made so utter and abject a surrender of its convictions to a man. It paralyzes all precedents of despotism and submission. It can be explained only by confidence in the infallibility of Mr. Bryan or by such a degradation and decadence of spirit, amounting to degeneration in a party as never before was exhibited.—Brooklyn Eagle.
