For President—WILLIAM MCKINLEY. For Vice-President—THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

THE MCKINLEY CLUB.

A special meeting of the Wm. McKinley club of Klamath Falls is called to meet at the Coburn House on Saturday night, the 13 inst. All members of the club are requested to be present.

The necessity of free soup houses in the large cities has been unknown since the beginning of President McKinley's administration. Why is this thus? Isn't it because there are no starving armies of idle men as there were during Cleveland's misrule?

Democracy wanted us to try Cleveland, and we did. What was the result. Idleness, business stagnation and general disaster. Not satisfied with its experiments, it now wants us to try Bryan. But we won't. To gratify popocratic folly is too expensive.

The estrangement of labor and capital grows because both are unreasonable and obstinate. Labor demands too much and capital concedes too little. This condition cannot be honestly attributed to any political party; but to selfish and stubborn assumption on the part of the two contending forces. Both are blamable, and the rest of the country suffers while they squabble over their differences.

Three weeks from next Tuesday will be election day and will decide the political complexion of the administration for another four years. If McKinley is re-established in the executive chair, industrial development will continue and prosperity will grow with new life. If the immaculate Bryan is crowned high chief, we may expect to see capital withdrawn from circulation and taste the bitter woes of commercial and industrial prostration.

Senator J. K. Jones, chairman of the democratic national committee, is one of the leading manipulators of a trust known as the "American Cotton Company," and Jones is now one of the defendants in a suit in Texas charged with violating the anti-trust law of that state. This cotton trust is backed by capital of $7,000,000 and is one of the most gigantic monopolies in America. Still, Jones is manager of a party which claims to be the only opposer of trusts and the only friend of labor. Such is the inconsistency of the political aggregation now eagerly seeking power.

Democratic leaders will cheerfully attribute to the influences of the republican administration any calamities in the way of drouths, storms or disease that may have afflicted different sections of the country, but are quick to maintain that the growing prosperity of the past few years has been altogether due to the natural laws of supply and demand. They cannot perceive that the confidence and stability given to monetary and commercial circles immediately after election four years ago were in the least brought about by the adoption of sound republican principles and the rejection of democratic vagaries. This improvement after the change they refuse to acknowledge or appreciate. Perhaps they could be reasonable if they would, but they won't.

Mr. Applegate, an extensive sheep raiser in Klamath county, informs us that in 1894, the second year after demoralization had times had been inaugurated, he sold 800 sheep of the best he could pick from his large flock for $1.50 per head. These had to be bargained on the market, as there was no demand. Also at that time he sold wool at 7 cents per pound delivered in Ashland. These low prices for wool and sheep prevailed throughout Cleveland's administration. Mr. Applegate says prices advanced on the heels of McKinley's election, and that in 1897 he realized $3.00 per head for sheep and 14 cents per pound for wool. The price of wool has fluctuated, but has at no time during the past four years dropped below 14 cents. Very lately Mr. Applegate sold a band of 2,800 sheep, including yearlings and all sorts, for $3.00 a piece. At present, however, the demand for sheep and wool is weakening on account of the possibility of a change in the management of national affairs, but sheep owners generally are holding their flocks confidently expecting a continuance of the present administration and continued stimulation of market values.

COLVIG FOR MCKINLEY.

The Portland Oregonian of Tuesday says: William M. Colvig, of Jacksonville, one of the leading lawyers of Oregon, and a Democratic warrior of the old school, has come out against Bryan. Four years ago Mr. Colvig loyally supported Bryan, and was known as one of the best campaigners the Democracy had in Oregon. But he can't stand the Bryanite doctrine of hauling down the flag, and has declared for McKinley and Roosevelt. In a letter to George A. Steel, chairman of the Republican State Committee, offering his services for the campaign, Mr. Colvig says: "There are a goodly number of Democrats in this (Jackson) county, who, for the sake of party, might be led considerably out of the way on purely economic questions relating to governmental affairs, but when they are required, as now, by their leaders to take a position that makes them feel like American cowards, they will not go. Some of us place our love of country, its flag, its institutions, and its destiny far above party loyalty."

Mr. Colvig will be in Portland October 26 or 29 and will deliver a 30 or 40-minute speech at some meeting to be arranged by the Republican State Committee.

Trimmed flats at Chastain & Haylone's. At San Francisco prices for 30 days! All aerometers, pumps, etc., sold by me during the month of September will be delivered at Ager, Cal., at San Francisco prices. C. H. WILLBROW.

Mackintoshes at Duffy's. A FALSE NOTION. The false idea is set forth that Bryan, if elected, could not overturn the financial system of the country for the reason that he would have the opposition of a republican majority in the senate. This is clearly a mistaken notion. An exchange gives what the senate's condition must necessarily be if the democratic candidate is elected, as follows: "In the senate there are now fifty-four votes in favor of the gold standard, with the Pennsylvania vacancy included as a vote. But Senators Lindsay and Caffery, two real Democrats, who voted for the gold-standard law, will be replaced on March 4th by Bryanites already elected. If Mr. Bryan is elected he must carry Colorado, Idaho, Kansas, Nebraska, Montana, West Virginia and Wyoming. His own managers admit that without those states his success is almost impossible. And if Bryan carries those states seven Republican Senators will be succeeded March 4th by seven Bryanites. Nine votes taken from the present fifty-four for gold would leave the senate a tie, with the silverite Stevenson holding the casting vote. As it is most likely that Mr. Bryan's success would mean a Bryanite House of Representatives, there would then be nothing at Washington on next March 4th even to check Mr. Bryan's raid on our whole financial system."

Mr. Bryan has repeatedly declared his intention to enforce his pet theory of free silver in case he is chosen president, and his triumph November 6 next would assuredly leave nothing in the way of accomplishing his dangerous scheme.

Winter underwear at Duffy's. ANTIS ARE FOR SILVER AND RIOT. There is one subject on which the Gold-Democrats of 1896 who are also "anti-imperialists" of 1900 are ominously and painfully silent. That subject is Bryan. We know what they thought of him four years ago, but we are ignorant what they think of him now. In all their literature they expatiate at great length on the iniquities of "imperialism," but they shrink from pointing out the exact way in which they contemplate averting them. If they do not propose to vote for Bryan, it is incumbent upon them to disavow what is a natural and fair interpretation of their words and acts. If they do propose to vote for Bryan, it is incumbent on them to show in what respect he offers the country expectation of a better administration than it can get through McKinley. It is easy to find fault with McKinley; but this does not permit us to ignore the faults of Bryan. The menace of Bryanism appeared to them insupportable in 1896. How is it that they have become so unconcerned that that menace now? Then they regarded him as an unsafe and unworthy man for President. Wherein do they find evidence that he has lost his faults and gained virtues in the interim? How are you going to rebuke "imperialism" without imperiling the gold standard? How are you going to rebuke "imperialism" without encouraging riot and anarchy? How are you going to rebuke "imperialism" without mentioning the integrity of the Supreme Court? How are you going to rebuke "imperialism" without endorsing the spoils doctrine? How are you going to rebuke "imperialism" without promoting the Populist clamor for destroying the efficiency of the Army? Of course, if our Gold Democrats of 1896 and "anti-imperialists" of 1900 are willing that these momentous things at stake should all go to smash, in order that they may wreak their vengeance on McKinley, there is nothing more to be said. But steps of this consequence must be taken advisedly. You can't defeat McKinley except by electing Bryan. You can't endorsing Aguinaldo without aspersing Dewey and Anderson, Lawton and Stoenburg. You can't vote for anti-imperialism without voting for free silver. Let no man deceive himself into thinking that refusal to vote for
