For want of space we are compelled to omit the letter in full, but Mr. Lang eff's reply, here following, fully sovers the questions raised:)

Medford, Or., March 22 .- Hon. O. C. Applegate, Klamath Agency, Oregon-Dear Sir: Your favor of the 18th inst., in relation to the report of Captain Ormsby, to the Commissiener of the General Land Office, received and carefully considered. I confess I read the report with considerable interest, and concluded that it had reference more directly to Indian agents north of my division in the Cascade Forest Reserve, or that some one had greatly exaggerated the matter to Superintendent Ormsby, who is generally very careful in his statements. Game Warden Quimby, in his report to the Governor of Oregon, says: "Not only have the Indians been permitted to leave the reservation for purposes of hunting game during the close season, but I have been informed that they are encouraged in their depredations by the Indian agents; the result has been that Indians have hunted and shot elk and deer with impunity." The fact is that the last elk seen or killed in the Cascade Mountains was about nine years ago. This elk was killed by an English tourist near the head of Jenny Creek. During the last three years no elk have been seen, either by my rangers or myself. I do not believe that an elk can be found from the North Umpqua River south to the Lake of the Woods, a distance of nearly 70

I will also state that I have not been informed by any ranger under

KLAMATH REPUBLICAN, hunting in the forest reserve during the close season, and as Game Warden Quimby excepted you in his report, I, therefore, cannot believe that the charges refer to you or the Indians sudden; I must have time to think.

During the huckleberry season, there were over 1000 visitors there, or I won't have money enough left to buy the ring. I came in an autoincluding about 300 Indians. On one cab, and they charge by the minute, of my visits I noticed an old Indian you know."—Philadelphia Press. THURSDAY, APRIL 11, 1901. with a water bucket extinguishing a camp fire.
