Fortunately, the bill above referred to was defeated. And its defeat was in a great measure owing to Hon. R. A. Emnritt of this county, whose untiring efforts against it were successful among the great majority of the representatives from Southern and Eastern Oregon. And let us say that the defeat of this nefarlous bill by Mr. Emmitt and his co-workers in the House, marks him as a most sound, sagacious and reliable friend to the best interests of this county and its citizens.
