HOMESTEADERS.

The Humboldt, Cal., Standard says: The fiction that it is only necessary to go upon the land once in six months and stay over night in a cabin, has deceived many a homestead entryman.

son who has a homestead entry can go to some other place and work to earn a living for a time, if necessary; but his home must be on the land and nothing else will take the place of actual residence and improvement.

TIMBER LAND PROOFS.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—On account of the timber land frauds discovered in Montana and Idaho, Commissioner Hermann, of the General Land Office, has suspended all proofs made during the present year under the timber and stone act, pending conclusion of the full investigation and inquiry begun some time ago.

In relation to the foregoing the Medford Mail, learns that it does not in any way interfere with filing upon timber land or in making proof on same before the local land offices.
