Mrs. P. L. Fountain arrived home last Friday from her month's visit at Ashland. Frank Brandon and wife and mother of Merrill were visiting in Ashland last week.

Ester Reid of Seattle was here Monday en route home from a visit to Lakeview. Agnes C. Norman of Klamath Agency was a Klamath Falls visitor last Thursday.

Henry Jackson of Yainax was in Klamath Falls on business the fore part of the week. Geo. Dicken and son and their two families arrived home Saturday from their visit to Ashland.

John Erlings of this place has been appointed to succeed S. R. Wright as forest ranger. D. G. Brown and wife of Crystal returned last week from a visit to friends in San Francisco.

Miss Willhoit arrived from Ager last week to visit the family of Marion Long of Round lake. Wm. Lee arrived last Friday from Southern California to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Lee.

Mr. Ker of Texas arrived here Tuesday to investigate this county with a view of buying a stock ranch. The balloon ascension which was advertised to come off on Friday and Saturday, will take place on Saturday only.

The town board had its regular monthly meeting Monday evening, but transacted no business worthy of special mention. E. R. Haman, a stockman of Douglas county, was here yesterday to look after 700 head of cattle which he has on Klamath Marsh.

After three days of diabolically hot weather, we had on Tuesday afternoon a cool and comfortable breeze and a refreshing sprinkle of rain. W. E. Conner and D. L. Minkler of Ashland arrived here Monday and expect to visit Wood river resorts and Crater lake on their return home.

Dr. Woody, a Baptist minister of Portland, will hold services in the Presbyterian church on Friday evening, August 23, and continue over Sunday. The weather of the past week has been the hottest of the year, though it falls far short of reaching the intensity experienced in the East and elsewhere.

seekers looking for farms and ranches. As a matter of fact there is more life, business and animation in Klamath Falls than in many places of double or three times its size.

The proprietorship of the Merrill stage will next Monday be transferred by A. L. Hudkins to Wm. Wilson. Mr. Hudkins expects to remove to the Willamette valley.

We hear that Merrill is rapidly improving and that among those who will put up new buildings this season at that place are W. P. Rhodes, Henry Wallis and Henry Anderson.

A heavy fall of rain yesterday laid the dust and refreshed mankind. Haying, now nearly finished, was not damaged. To gardens and crops generally the moisture is very acceptable and beneficial.

On Monday morning Recorder Kee-see, acting as justice of the peace, after a preliminary hearing, bound over R. B. Hatton on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon on Joe Koesal, bail being fixed at $250.

Prof. Godfrey is advertised to give his balloon ascension here next Saturday and have a speciality show in the opera house both Friday and Saturday evenings. A dance will follow each evening's entertainment.

When the Big Klamath steamboat has passed through the repairing, renovating and improving hands of Capt. Schoff, he will doubtless have a number of excursions on the lake, which everybody ought to enjoy.

G. T. Conner is erecting a new hotel at Merrill. It will be finished and furnished in good style and will be kept in a way that will make it popular among the traveling public. It will contain twenty-two rooms.

It is reported by Justice of the Peace O'Brien of Dairy that Charles Liskey of Swan Lake was arrested July 30th, for assault and battery on old Mr. Miers, and pleaded guilty as charged, and was fined $50 and costs.

A gentleman from Klamathion tells us that the setting of grade stakes on the proposed railroad line between that place and this, is proceeding as diligently as could be expected. It is to be hoped that grading will soon commence.

Alex Martin Sr. who has been here several months attending to business interests, departed Tuesday for his home at Oakland, Cal. He was accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Aekin, and her daughter, who were returning to their home at Fresno, Cal.

S. E. Martin of the firm of Martin & Son, proprietors of the flouring mills at Merrill and Klamath Falls, was in town last week. He stated the mill at Merrill was to be completely refitted with new steam machinery as soon as it arrived, and that it was on the way.

Hon. R. A. Emmitt of Keno was a Klamath Falls visitor Tuesday. He reports that he spent several days at Pokegama last week and from what he saw and heard feels absolutely sure that work will commence within a few weeks on the railroad which is to tap this county.

In response to a telegram announcing the falling condition of J. T. Henley in a hospital at San Francisco, his son, Jamie, departed for that place last Friday. That there is slight chance of his recovery is greatly regretted by the many friends of the family in this county.

The proposed new wagon road on the mountain leading west from Pokegama has been surveyed and the construction will soon be provided for. The road will have a length of 11 miles in Klamath county and 5 miles in Jackson county. The improvement will greatly facilitate travel.

David Hetzler and family of Versailles, Ohio, arrived here a few weeks ago from Pasadena, Cal., and are guests of the family of H. L. Boggs, of whom they are old friends. Mr. Hetzler is looking over the county with a view of investing later on and is thus far very favorably impressed.

Rev. J. F. Tout of Ashland arrived here Saturday afternoon and preached in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and in the M. E. church Sunday and Monday evenings. His sermons dealt with the temperance question and were listened to by large audiences. He left for Ashland Tuesday morning.

J. V. Houston who went several weeks ago to San Francisco for medical treatment, is, as his many friends will be glad to hear, greatly improving in health, as is reported by a letter received yesterday. He is in the German Hospital, and under the skillful care of physicians and attendants he will soon be on the road to recovery. His wife is also with him.

Ashland Tidings: Capt. and Mrs. A. D. Helman, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hendrix and Mrs. J. Wagner returned to Ashland Monday evening, from a ten days' camping trip to Crater lake. They tarried a day at the famous fishing resort, Pelican bay, and returned from Crater lake by way of Klamath Falls. At the lake, where there is yet much snow to be found, Prof. J. E. Miller, the government geologist, and party, are engaged in exploration work again this summer.

The town of Versailles, Ohio, which was nearly destroyed by fire on July 6th, is the home of David Hetzler, who is sojourning here. The fire wiped out five business blocks and thirty-five residences, involving a loss of half a million dollars and rendering homeless and penniless over a hundred people.

Attorney Calkins, official court reporter for this judicial district, departed yesterday on his return to Ashland. Mr. Calkins removed to Ashland last February from Minnesota, and is a gentleman of brains, integrity and affable manners and one whom it is a pleasure to meet. In appointing their official stenographer, the courts could not have made a wiser selection.

Captain Schoff has commenced this week running the steamboat between Klamath Falls, Pelican Bay and intermediate points. The boat will make two trips each way, per week, viz: On Mondays and Thursdays from Klamath Falls to Pelican Bay, and on Tuesdays and Fridays from Pelican Bay to Klamath Falls. Under the present management, passengers will find a trip safe and enjoyable.

The conference between representatives and employers failed to adjust their differences and the breach between them is wider than ever. Both sides proclaim their determination to fight to a finish. Other lines besides the steel workers promise to be involved, and the consequent hardships will indirectly fall on the innocent middle classes—the tradesmen, professional men, et al. The rich employers will be the least real sufferers.

On Monday the Thomson-Diggs Co., an agricultural implement house of Sacramento, attached the stock of Carrick & Grigsby for $1,988.54. What precipitated this step was the disappearance on Saturday of Mr. A. D. Carrick and the unsatisfactory condition of the firm's books. General regret is felt for Mr. B. S. Grigsby, who recently bought an interest with Mr. Carrick, and who is made an innocent loser. Later: Mr. Carrick returned Monday.

Probate court was in session Monday. The will of James Owen, late of Round Grove, was proven, and the court ordered the executors, on petition of James H. Owen, one of the heirs, to pay to the widow $39 each month for her support during the year. In the matter of the estate of W. H. Mills, deceased, F. P. Talkington took a voluntary non-suit on his petition for the removal of the administrator, and the petition was consequently dismissed with costs.

I. N. Shook of Ashland arrived here Sunday, accompanied by his cousin, Wm. K. Glasgow, of Ripley county, Indiana. They were met at this place by John S. Shook who conveyed them to the big ranch of Shook Bros. near Dairy. Mr. Glasgow is a banker and wholesale merchant. He is favorably impressed with this county and may decide to invest and locate here. He and Shook Bros. expect to visit Crater lake and the Wood river scenic and pleasure resorts in the near future.

There is an interesting two-column article in Friday's Portland Telegram devoted to Eastern Oregon and written by Paul DeLaney, who formerly lived at Lakeview and is somewhat known in Klamath Falls. Klamath, Lake, Harney, Malheur and Crook counties are included in his description, and he justly gives them credit of embracing the most natural advantages and promising resources of any part of the state. Only space forbids us at this time from republishing the entire article, which, however, we will do if possible later on.

Ashland Record: The survey of the proposed new railroad from near Klamathion up the south side of Klamath river, crossing near Fall creek, is steadily going ahead. The crew is divided into a viewing crew and a grade stake laying crew, and the latter have this week reached a point near the logging camp. Harvey Lindley has gone east and it is presumed his mission is on this business. People in a position to know say that construction work will begin very soon and that the road will be completed from Klamathion to the timber belt inside of a few months.

Judge Willits expects to visit Ashland the first of the coming week. With the corn crop bordering on a failure, corn pudding is apt to become in the Middle East what it always is in Oregon—a luxury.

The board of school directors of district No. 1 adopted the new series of school books adopted by the school text book commission to take effect at beginning of school year.

W. T. Shives recently purchased of W. T. Constant and wife of Fort Klamath, 160 acres of land, at the price of $2400. Also he bought of Mr. Cronemiller and wife 80 acres at $1100. In addition he purchased a lot at Fort Klamath, price $200.

"BROTHER AGAINST BROTHER"

At Houston's opera house on Monday evening, August 12th. The Klamath Falls Dramatic Co., under the direction of and assisted by Fred Moore and Pearl Ethier Moore will present the beautiful 5-act, sensational comedy-drama, entitled "The Black Flag" or "Brother Against Brother," a story of English prison life. The play abounds with strong dramatic scenes, funny situations and thrilling climaxes and good comedy running throughout the piece. Great care and attention are being paid to every detail and our young people are working hard and earnestly to make each individual part and the play in general a success. The cast consists of such well known people as Mrs. Galarneau, Miss Maud E. Baldwin, Miss Ruby Hatton, G. C. Hatton, Fred Houston, H. P. Galarneau, C. I. Roberts, Carey Ramsby, J. H. Jardine. With the above cast we may be assured of a good performance. Tickets on sale at Chitwood's drug store.

"Say, Bill! Are you going to the show on Monday evening?" "What show?" "Why, the Klamath Falls Dramatic Co. is going to play 'The Black Flag' or 'Brother Against Brother.'" "You don't say! Are you going?" "Well, I should smile."

"Who are you going to take?" "There is only one girl in this world for me." "I guess I'll take my best girl, too." "Well, let us go and get our tickets." They are on sale now at Chitwood's drug store.

Rain or shine, Chester Hatton will make a leap for life on Monday evening next. Carey Ramsby will furnish the "pair of shoots." This important event will take place between Duffy's Emporium and Lake Ewauna. The exact spot will be Houston's opera house. Buy your tickets at Chitwood's drug store.

CONTEST NOTICE.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, UNITED STATES LAND OFFICE, LAKEVIEW, OREGON, July 1st, 1901. A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by O. T. Anderson, of Bly, Oregon, contestant, against homestead entry No. 1763, made April 15th, 1892, for W 1/2 of NE 1/4, NE 1/4 of Sec. 20, and SW 1/4 of SE 1/4 of Sec. 17, all in Township 36 S., Range 15 E., by Chris Mook, contestee, in which it is alleged that he left and abandoned said entry more than six years ago, and ever since then has failed to reside thereon, and still fails to reside on the same; that his absence from said claim was not due from his employment in the army, navy or marine corps of the United States; that said contestee has failed to improve and cultivate said tract as required by law, and that all of said failures exist at the present time, said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on September 7, 1901, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in Lakeview, Oregon. The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed July 2, 1901, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice cannot be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.

E. M. BRATTAIN, Register.
