KLAMATH REPUBLICAN.

dif's cottage.

KLAMATH FALLS, KLAMATH COUNTY, OREGON, SEPTEMBER 5, 1901.

NO. 22.

event the long nerror labour likely to get much were too far unstrung for me to venture EVENTS OF THE DAY TO STUDY AMERICAN METHODS. asked. The Doctor's Pilemma CHAPTER II.-(Continued.) A little crumbling path led round the rock and along the edge of the ravine. The but a very old friend of mine, Tar-dif, of the Havre Gosselin. His hand-some but weather-beaten face betrayed I chose it because from it I could see great anxiety. My father looked chaall the fantastic shore, bending in a semi-circle towards the isle of Breckhou, with "Here's a pretty play all the failing of Breckhou, with "Here's a pretty plece of work, Mar-tiny, untrodden bays, covered at this tin," he said; "Tardif wants one of us to tiny, untrough only glittering ripples, and go back with him to Sark, to see a with all the soft and tender shadows of woman who has fallen from the cliffs and broken her arm, confound it!"

the head-lands falling across them. I was just giving my last look to them when the loose stones on the crumbling "I beg of you to come this instant even. path gave way under my tread, and be- She has been lying in anguish since midfore I could recover my foothold I found day yesterday-twenty-four hours now, myself slipping down the almost perpen-dicular face of the cliff, and value but both wind and tide were against me. clutching at every bramble and tuft of and I have been walting here some time. rass growing in its clefts. I landed with a shock far below, and dead!" grass growing in its clerts.

for some time lay insensible. As nearly as I could make out, it would be high eyes met mine imploringly. He and I water in about two hours. Tardif had had been fast friends in my boyhood, and set off at low water, but before starting our friendship was still firm and true. I he had said something about returning at shook his hand heartily-a grip which he high tide, and running up his boat on the returned with his fingers of iron till my beach of our little bay. If he did that own tingled egain. he must pass close by me. It was Saturday morning, and he was in the habit next day.

At last-whether years or hours only hour. had gone by, I could not then have told you-I heard the regular and careful beat head, but I was sure it was Tardif.

seemed very loud.

He paused then, and stood quite still, listening. I ran the fingers of my right hand through the loose pebbles about me. and his ear caught the slight noise. In a moment. I heard his strong feet coming scross them towards me. 'Mam'zelle," he exclatined, "what has happened you?" I tried to smile as his honest, brown face bent over me, full of alarm. was so great a relief to see a face like his after that long, weary agony, "I've fallen down the cliff," I said feebly, "and I am hurt." The strong man shook, and his hand trembled as he stooped down and laid under my head to lift it up a little. His sgitation touched me to the heart. "Tardif," I whispered, "It is not very much, and I might have been killed.

think my foot is hurt, and I am quite sure my arm is broken." He lifted me in his arms as easily and tenderly as a mother lifts up her child, across the long, narrow isthmus. I turn-ed abruptly again, and hurrled as fast "Did you ever take chloroform?" I as my legs would carry me back to Tar-

"No; I never needed it," she answered. "Should you object to taking it?" "Anything," she replied passively.

will do anything you wish." I went back into the kitchen and opened the portmanteau my father had put up for me. Splints and bandages were upon it from his eyes. I understood at Honoring of the Past Week Presented there in abundance, enough to set half a glance what it meant. Mother Renouf, the arms in the island, but neither chlo- whom he had secured as a nurse, had cut oplate could I find. I might almost as was out of the house. Tardif's great well have come to Sark altogether un- hand carcased them tenderly, and I drew prepared for my case. I stood for a few minutes, deep in thought. The daylight was going, and it was useless to waste time; yet I found myself shrinking oddly from the duty before me. Tardif could not help but see my chagrin and hesitation.

"Doctor," he cried, "she is not going to die?' "No, no," I answered, calling back my wandering thoughts and energies; "there "Dr. Martin," cried Tardif excitedly, is not the smallest danger of that. I must go and set her arm at once, and then she will sleep."

I returned to the room and raised her as gently and painlessly as I could. She moaned, though very softly, and she tried to smile again as her eyes met mine looking anxiously at her. That smile made me feel like a child. If she did it again The poor fellow's voice faitered, and his I knew my hands would be unsteady, and her pain be tenfold greater. "I would rather you cried out or shout-afraid of seeming impatient, and a loud scream or two would do you good."

I had set

The tide was with us, and carried us feeling like this, which was so near unover buoyantly. We anchored at the nerving me. All the time the girl's white of cars upon the water, and presently fisherman's landing place below the cliff face and firmly set lips lay under my the grating of a boat's keel upon the shin- of the Havre Gosselin, and I climbed gaze, with the wide open, unfinching I could not turn round or raise my readily up the rough ladder which leads eyes looking straight at me; a mournful, to the path. Tardif made his boat se- silent, appealing face, which betrayed the "Tardif!" I cried, attempting to shout, cure, and followed me; he passed me, pain I made her suffer ten times more but my voice sounded very weak in my and strode on up the steep track to the than any cries or shricks could have own ears, and the other sounds about me summit of the cliff, as if impatient to done. I smoothed the coarse pillows for reach his home. It was then that I her to lie more comfortably upon them.

whom he had secured as a nurse, had cut reform nor anything in the shape of an off my patient's pretty curls as soon as 1 out one long, glossy tress and wound it

I had been away less than an hour, but an advantage had been taken of my absence. I fould Tardif sented at the table, with a tangle of silky, shining hair lying about my fingers, with a heavy heart. "It is like the pretty feathers of a bird that has been wounded," said Tardif sorrowfully.

Just then there came a knock at the door and a sharp click of the latch, loud enough to penetrate dame Tardif's deaf ears, or to arouse our patient, if she had Schley court of inquiry, been sleeping. Before either of us could move the door was thrust open and two McKinley to remove Judge Noyes. young ladies appeared upon the door sill. They were-it flashed across me in an instant-old school fellows and friends of Julia's. I declare to you honestly I had scarcely had one thought of Julia till now. My mother I had wished for, to take her place by this poor girl's side, but Julia had hardly crossed my mind. Why, in heaven's name, should the appearance of these friends of hers be so distasteful to me just now? I had known them all my life, and liked them as well as any ed," I said. "Don't try to control your-self when I hurt you. You need not be very sight of them was annoying. strike. They stood in the doorway, as much astonished and thunderstricken as I was, glaring at me, so it seemed to me, with that soft, bright brown lock of hair curling and clinging round my finger. Never to the Association for the Advancehad I felt so foolish or guilty. (To be continued.)

American Coal the Best.

"Ever since I was a boy I have been reminded of the old story about 'carrying coals to Newcastle,' whenever I performed unnecessary tasks," said heart, Richard Harker of Newcastle-on-Tyne, England, in the lobby of the Shoreham last night. "To carry coals to Newcastle was supposed to be as futile a task as trying to sweep back the waves on the seashore. I have lived to see coals carried to Newcastle, however, and, being an Englishman, it grieves me to say that the coals in question came all the way from Amer-

lca. "Within the last few years an enorof mous amount of coal has been shipped one man. from Norfolk, Va., to various parts of England. Some of it went to Portshave better facilities for handling coal the accidental discharge of his there than any other place in the United Kingdom. For many years it has been the center of the coal mining industry of our country and conse- is at Colon. quently the arrangements and appliances for shipping fuel to various parts is Southern Washington. way ahead of those try are of other towns. "The coal that comes from the west-

FROM THE FOUR OUARTERS OF THE WORLD.

Happenings of the Past Week Presented in a Condensed Form Which Is Most Likely to Prove of Interest to Our Many Readers.

Inland Empire farmers are having prosperous season. Sampson will be a witness at the Members of the Nome bar petition Trans-Atlantic freight business out of New York is very light. The explatory mission of Prince Chung has been delayed at Basle. Nicaragua and Colombia promise not to mix in the Isthmian trouble. Rothschilds deny any knowledge of the recent reported combine in cop-tions are under way to settle the

The worst epidemic of plague in years is now rampant in parts of Canton, China,

One hundred fellows were elected British Lost One Man Killed and Four ment of Science.

General Fablus M. Mead, a veteran of the Civil War, and a friend of Logan, Grant and McClellan, is dead. Montana, one mistook the other for a bear and shot him through the

The French Minister to Turkey has left Constantinople, which act breaks off friendly relations between left the two nations.

E. C. Westfall, chief of the money order bureau at Havana, will be prosecuted for criminal carelessness in allowing $4,000 to be stolen from him

As a result of litigation over mining claims near Cape Nome, a mob of 70 masked men attacked the holders some claims and fatally wounded

B. F. Jossey, United States customs inspector at Tucson, Arizona, mouth, to the naval station there, and many tons were sent to Newcastle. We into the United States, was killed by volver while looking for chicken thieves on his own premises.

The United States gunboat Machias A large sugar beet crop is expected jured.

strained.

Twelve Workingmen Arrive from England to Tour the United States.

New York, Aug. 29 .- On the Anchor line steamship Ethiopia tonight came 12 workingmen, who have been sent to tour this country and study trades Commercial and Financial Happenings of Imby an English paper. The men were selected by popular vote. They are: H. J. Humphrey, coach builder, Leyton store, Essex; Frank Harris, pot-tery and glass decorator, Boxness, Scotland; F. A. Scott, electrical and mechanical engineer, Glasgow; C. J. Jackson, engineer, Stratford; Thomas New York yachtsmen are afraid of Grant, stevedore, Liverpool; Yorkshire; W. E. George Nutley, painter, Kingston Hill, Surrey: Thomas Fleming, mason, Peebles: John Scutter, engine-driver Motherwell; Kenneth Kenzie, uphol sterer, Inverness; George Ethells, weaver, Stockport; J. G. Gowan, hammerman, Gateshead, and A. Nichol Simpson, who will act as conductor of the expedition. Mr. Simpson said: "We will visit Washington, Pittsburg, Philadelphia, Cleveland, East Liverpool, O., Buffalo, Ottawa and Montreal. We shall remain a few days in each city. The delegates came over here to gather information crop. and study questions in which the British artisan is vitally interested.

We will inquire into the conditions er. Tinplate officials deny that negotia-they are housed and live; their hours.

unions and other things of interest to us on the other side.

SURROUNDED BY BOERS.

Wounded

London, Aug. 29 .- A dispatch from Lord Kitchener, dated from Pretoria day, says: "Three officers and 65 men who today, While two men were out hunting were sent north of Ladybrand, Orange River Colony, on the right of Elliott's column were surrounded on unfavorable ground and captured by a superior force, August 22nd. One act man was killed and four were wounded. The prisoners were released. Am holding an inquiry. "Have received a long letter from Steyn containing an argumentative statement of the Boer case, and saying he will continue to fight; also a short letter from Dewett to the same effect.

"Botha writes acknowledging the the trees seem to be drying up. receipt of my proclamation and protesting against it, and stating that the Boers intend to go on fighting. On the other hand, the surrenders lately have increased considerably.

Another dispatch from Lord Kitcher says: "Since August 19th, 32 Boers have een killed, 139 made prisoners and 85 have surrendered. including 185

FATAL BRIDGE ACCIDENT.

-Latest Market Report. The Florence salmon cannery will start up next week. mason, Prunes are beginning to move in earnest at The Dalles.

The Jacksonville public schools will open September 2.

NEWS OF THE STATE

TEMS OF INTEREST FROM ALL

PARTS OF OREGON.

portance-A Brief Review of the Growth and Improvements of the Many Industries

Throughout Our Thriving Commonwealth

A race meeting will probably be held in Pendleton this fall.

The Klamath county wheat crop will not be as large as it was last year. Hopgrowers at Woodburn complain of a scarcity of help to harvest the

The wheat crop of Jackson county is turning out much better than expected.

The Sherman county Horse Fair Association will hold a fair at Wasco some time this fall to encourage the breeding of good horses of all kinds.

The first crop of alfalfa in Klamath has been cut and cared for. The second crop, which will be cut next month, promises to be much larger than the first.

The following schools in Polk county are without teachers, and in each case a good one is wanted : Concord. Lincoln, Bridgeport, and the primary department at Falls City.

The apple crop of the Rogue River valley promises to be a great incomeproducer during the present year. Not only is the yield a full one, but the quality is finer than usual.

From several sources comes the report that Bartlett pears will be scarce this fall. In many orchards the trees did not bear at all, while in others

Owing to the delay in the receipt of the new text books, it has been decided by the board of directors of the Ashland public schools to postpone the opening of the fall term one week, or until September 9.

It is expected that the Southern Oregon district will ship 275 car loads dent." of apples during the present crop year, and the fruit will all be first The unusual demand for class. Oregon apples is created by the par-tial failure of the crop in the middle Falling of Bridge Girders Caused the Death states and by the long season of drought in Missouri.

"I knew you'd come," he gasped. "Ah, I'll go, Tardif," I said; "only I I felt the ends of the broken bone gratof returning early on Saturdays, that he must get a snatch of something to eat ing together as I drew them into their might prepare for the services of the while Dr. Dobree puts up what I shall right places, and the sensation went have need of. I'll be ready in half an through and through me. scores of broken limbs before with no

Shamrock II.

and carried me gently up the steep slope which led homewards. It seemed a long time before we reached the farmyard gate, and he shouted, with a tremendous volce, to his mother to come and open it. Never, never shall I forget that night. I could not sleep; but I suppose my mind wandered a little. Hundreds of times I felt myself down on the shore, lying helpless. Then I was back again in my own home in Adelaide, on my father's sheep farm, and he was still allve, and with no thought but how to make everything bright and gladsome for me; and hundreds of times I saw the woman who was afterwards to be my stepmother, sealing up to the door and trying to get in to him and me.

Twice Tardif brought me a cup of tes. freshly made. I was very glad when the first gleam of daylight shone into my my brain.

'Mam'zelle," said Tardif, coming to my side, "I am going to fetch a doctor." "But it is Sunday," I answered faintly. I knew that no boatman put out to sea willingly on a Sunday from Sark; and the last fatal accident, being on a Sunday, had deepened their reluctance. will be right, mam'zelle," he answered, with glowing eyes. "I have no

"Do not be long away, Tardif," I said. sobbing.

"Not one moment longer than I can help," he replied.

CHAPTER III.

I. Martin Dobree, come into the Grange, belonged to Julla; and fully half of the year's household expenses were defrayed by her. Our practice, which he story to tell my remarkable share in its events. Martin, or Doctor Martin, I was called throughout Guernsey. My father was Dr. Dobree. He belonged to one of the oldest families in the island, but our branch of it had been growing poorer instead of richer during the last three or four generations. We had been gravitating steadily downwards.

My father lived ostensibly by his profession, but actually upon the income of my cousin, Julia Dobree, who had been his ward from her childhood. The house we dwelt in, a pleasant one in the and I shared between us, was not a large one, though for its extent it was lucrative snough. But there always is an immense number of medical men in Guernsey in proportion to its population, and the island is healthy. There was small chance for any of us to make a fortune

My engagement to Julia came about so easily and naturally that I was perfect- my brain. ly contented with it. We had been en- ture? Where had she come from? How gaged since Christmas, and were to be to set up housekeeping for ourselves; that sharply to my senses; I was here as her was a point Julia was bent upon. A physician, and common sense and duty suitable house had fallen vacant in one of the higher streets of St. Peter-port. I advanced to her side and took the which commanded a noble view of the sea and the surrounding islands. We had felt her pulse with my fingers. taken it, though it was farther from the Grange and my mother than I should I said, lowering my voice. have chosen my home to be. She and Julla were busy, pleasantly busy, about she tried to smile a patient though a tween us and Guernsey with bolling the furnishing.

That was about the middle of March. face: I had been to church one Sunday morning with these two women, both devoted to me and centering all their love and hopes passing my hand softly down her arm. strolled as far as the Coupee, that giddy In me, when, as we entered the house

"HE PAUSED THEN."

gave my first serious thought to the wom- and I spread my cambric handkerchief in an who had met with the accident. a double fold between her cheek and the "Tardif, who is this person that is rough linen-too rough for a soft cheek hurt?" I asked, "and whereabout did she like hers

"She fell down vonder." he answered. but go to sleep as fast as you can.' Then I went out to Tardif. with an odd quaver in his voice, as he pointed to a rough and rather high porion of the cliff running inland; "the stones rolled from under her feet so," he added, crushing down a quantity of the as quiet as possible." loose gravel with his foot, "and she slipped. She lay on the shingle underneath | replied, bestirring himself as if some spell for two hours before I found her-two was at an end. hours, Dr. Martin!" to-night, and I should sleep the sounder Tardif's mother came to us as we en- if she was safe ashore." The feeble light entering by the door. tered the house. She beckoned me to follow her into an inner room. It was which I left open, showed me the old It seemed to bring clearness to small, with a celling so low, it seemed woman comfortably asleep in her chair, to rest upon the four posts of the bed- but not so the girl. I had told her when stead. There were of course none of the I laid her down that she must lie quite little dainty luxuries about it, with which still, and she was obeying me implicitly was familiar in my mother's bedroom. Her cheek still rested upon my hand-A long low window opposite the head of kerchlef, and the broken arm remained the bed threw a strong light upon it. undisturbed upon the pillow which I had There were check curtains drawn round placed under it. But her eyes were wide it, and a patchwork quilt, and rough, open and shining in the dimness, and I home-spun linen. Everything was clean, but coarse and frugal, such as I expected | cessantly, though soundlessly. to find about my Sark patient, in the The gale that Tardif had foretold cam home of a fisherman. But when my eye fell upon the face the night. The wind howled up the long. resting on the rough pillow I paused in- narrow ravine like a pack of voluntarily, only just controlling an ex- mighty storms of hail and rain beat in clamation of surprise. There was abso- torrents against the windows, and the lutely nothing in the surroundings to sea lifted up its voice with unmistakable fall?"

mark her as a lady, yet I felt in a moment that she was one. There lay a deli-than the others appeared to threaten to cate refined face, white as the linen, with carry off the thatched roof bodily, and beautiful lips almost as white; and a leave us exposed to the tempest with mass of light, shining silky hair tossed only the thick stone walls about us; and about the pillow; and large dark gray the latch of the outer door rattled as if eyes gazing at me beseechingly, with an some one was striving to enter. expression that made my heart leap as it had never leapt before. That was what I saw, and could not of leaving Sark the next day, nor for forbear seeing. I tried to close my eyes some days afterwards; but I was not at to the pathetic beauty of the face before all put out by my captivity. All my inme; but it was altogether in vain. If I terests-my whole being in fact-was ab had seen her before, or if I had been sorbed in the care of this girl, stranger prepared to see any one like her, I might as she was. I thought and moved, lived have succeeded; but I was completely and breathed, only to fight step by step thrown off my guard. There the charming face lay; the eyes gleaming, the white forehead tinted, and the delicate mouth contracting with pain; the bright silky curls tossed about in confusion. I see it now, just as I saw it then.

CHAPTER IV.

pestuous surf against the island. Tar-dif himself was kept a prisoner in the I suppose I did not stand still more house, except when he went to look after than five seconds, yet during that pause his live stock. No doubt it would have been practicable for me to get as far as a host of questions had flashed through Who was this beautiful crea- the hotel, but to what good? It would be quite deserted, for there were no visdid it happen that she was in Tardit's itors to Sark at this season. I was enmarried in the early summer. We were house? and so on. But I recalled myself tirely engrossed in my patient, learned for the first time what their task is who hour after hour watch the prodemanded of me to keep my head clear. greas of disease in the person of one deat to them. On the Tuesday afternoon, in a tem small, blue-veined hand into mine, and porary lull of the hail and wind, I start-

"You are in very great pain, I fear,"

"Yes," her white lips answered, and dreary smile, as she looked up into my surge. "my arm is broken. Are you a doctor ?" The fracture was above the elbow, and Very angry looked the masses of foam whirling about the sunken reefs, octor?" "I am Dr. Martin Dobree," I said, blocks of clouds all along the horizon. I pathway between Great and Little Sark, on my roturn. I heard my father calling "Martin! Martin!" as loudly as he could give her sharp, acute pain. I could see from his ways at the feet of the cliffs on both from his consulting room. I answered she was scarcely fit to bear any further sides three hundred feet below one. Some-the call instantly, and whom should I suffering just then; but what was to be thing like a panic seized me. My nerves ern portion of the State of Virginiasoft coal, I mean-is the finest fuel for steamships that is mined anywhere in the world. The coal seems to produce "Lie quite still," I said. "Do not stir. more steam from a small quantity than any I have seen. It is now used extensively on the vessels of the British "The arm is set," I said, "and now she navy and from what I saw a week ago must get some sleep. There is not the in Norfelk and Newport News I should least danger, only we will keep the house judge that the shipment must amount to millions of tons per year."-Wash-"I must go and bring in the bont," he ington Times.

> A German Picture of the Future Scene-A schoolroom of the twentieth entury.

Teacher (to a new scholar)-"Jack, are you inoculated against croup?" Pupil-"Yes, sir." "Have you been inoculated with the holera bacillus?" "Yes, slr."

"Have you a written certificate that ou are immune as to whooping cough, slightly. measles and scarlatina?"

fancied I could see her lips moving in "Yes, sir, 1 bave."

"There will be a storm energy. Now and again a stronger gust

The westerly gale, rising every few

There seemed to me to be no possibility of aid. The stormy waters which beat against that little rock in the sea came swelling and rolling in from the vast plain of the Atlantic and broke in temed off on a walk across the island. The hours into a squall, gave me no chance against delirium and death.

'Have you your own drinking cup?" 'Yes, sir." with great violence about the middle of Will you promise not to exchange sponges with your neighbor, and to wolves; use no slate pencil but your own?" "Yes, sir."

"Will you agree to have your books fumigated every week with sulphur. and to have your clothes sprinkled with chloride of lime?"

"Yes, sir." "Then, Jack, you possess all that modern hygiene requires; you can step over that wire, occupy an isolated seat made of aluminum, and begin your arithmetic lesson."

All Named the Same Date.

Hall-Well, good-by. Come and see me some time. Story-Awfully sorry, old boy; but I've got over a hundred engagements that day. hundred engagements? Hall-A Nonsense! Story-Fact. Within a few days I've received over a hundred invitations to friends' houses and in every case "some time" was the date mentioned .- Boston Transcript.

Looking for Work.

"Yes, ma'am." said the ragged fat man; "I'm lookin' fur work. You ain't got no odd jobs o' scrubbin' or washin' ter be did, have yer?"

"Why, you surely don't do scrubbing or work of that sort," said the house-me wife."-Philadelphia Record.

Oldest Physician.

wind was still blowing from the southwest, and filling all the narrow sea be-Gallus Ritter von Hockberger, im perial and royal counsellor of the Austrian court, is believed to be the oldest duly qualified physician in the world. finding their trade threatened by the He was born on Oct. 15, 1803, and is therefore 97 years of age. He has the Yankee methods and machinery. been practicing for seventy-one years,

> The way of the transgressor often leads to foreign shores.

Michael Berry, a noted Colorado burglar has been arrested.

Relations are still disturbed between France and Turkey.

Two men were killed while trying to shut off a new Texas oil gusher. Colombians generally expect the revolutionary movement to succeed. Shaffer says the move to settle the steel strike is without official sanction. Englishmen are confident that Sir Thomas Lipton is going to win the America's cup. Howard, who deserted the Amercans to become a Filipino leader, has been captured.

Cardinal Gibbons was given a royal welcome on his return to Baltimore from Europe.

By the explosion of a bomb in New Jersey three men were seriously injured and several women and children First Cuban Artillery Will Be Composed of A vessel was stolen from a dock in Maryland and the thieves tried to are barred from enlistment in the escape with her. They were overtaken later.

Department of justice upholds the secretary of the navy in withholding the royalty on the Harvey steel-hardening patent.

listment. Enlistment will be made The overhauling to which the varsimilarly as in the United States, and ous royal palaces of King Edward is will be for the term of two years. being subjected, has disclosed vast One of the first questions to arise contreasures that have been hidden, for cerning the enlistment is as to who years. are "Cubans" within the terms of Lord Kitchener reports that a colthe order. In the absence of General umn sent into Cape Colony was at- Wood, Acting Military Governor tacked by the Boers and three officers Scott explained that "in order to be and 65 men captured. One man was eligible the candidate must be a Cuban citizen by birth or adoption." killed and four wounded. There seems to be some doubt as to Boers resumed activity in Cape how Cuban citizenship is fixed until Colony. A German steamer and eight sailors were lost.

A gale wrecked a number of buildings in Jersey City.

A Tennessee Negro murderer was burned at the stake.

Turkey will not buy the quays of the French company.

Steel workers are willing to make concessions to end strike.

United States Attorney Evans, of Minnesota, died suddenly.

Nogales, Ariz., officials are implicated in a smuggling plot.

Preserved fruits, in a state fit to Striking machinists in Chicago ignore an order against picketing.

keeper. One hundred Filipino insurgents Spree. It is not known how she was "Sure not. I'm lookin' fur work fur surrendered during the past week.

have been eaten, have been taken from the ruins of Herculaneum. English cement manufacturers, American product, decide to adopt the Yankee methods and machinery. for the rebels in the Department of

The Southern Pacific railroad now and still gives medical advice.

Columbia, S. C., Aug. 29 .- An acci-way of the river above the bridge.

The rains of the night previous prob-

There were 75 people on the bridge, delphia. The structure was not ma-

NEGROES CANNOT BE IN IT.

Natives.

New York, Aug. 28 .- That Negroes

Tribune correspondent at Havana.

One hundred and fifty "Cubans" will be enlisted. All must be 21 years old or more, and white. Negroes will not be received as candidates for en-

Miser Starved to Death.

in Tarrytown, literally of starvation believed to have had a considerable came to this country from Ireland in Drowned in the Spree.

of Sir Archibald Lewin Smith, Master of the Rolls since 1900, was found dead today, floating in the River

London, Aug. 29 .- Lady Smith, wife amount of ready money and si jewelry hidden around the house.

1849.

drowned.

New York, Aug. 29 .- An old man spectators and workmen.

There is every prospect of a fair dent at the new bridge which the vield of hops in Polk county. Southern Railway is constructing at The Ager-Klamath Falls stage was Congaree River today caused the held up and robbed of the treasure death of four men. One other was fatally and two more seriously in-jured. The falling of the steel girdbox. The postoffice at Ruby, Douglas county, will be discontinued on Augers about seven feet long, weighing 14 tons each, caused the accident. ust 31 The girders were hoisted about mid-ably had caused the ropes holding them in place to slip. The crash them in place to slip. The crash came without the slightest warning. Eugene has not had such a building boom in years as is at present being experienced. The bridge is being built by the

The log raft is still stuck at the entrance to the Westport slough, near Astoria.

The Polk county grain crop this Phoenix Bridge Company of Philayear will be the largest harvested in terially damaged by the accident, though some of the iron work was several years.

The committees in charge of the Baker City street carnival, to be held September 3-7, report excellent success.

Portland Markets.

Wheat - Walla Walla, nomina 56 1/2c per bushel; bluestem, 56 1/2 @ 57c; valley, 55%@56.

Flour-best grades, $2.65@3.50 per barrel; graham, $2.60.

Oats-Old, $1.10@1.15 per cental. Barley-Feed, $15@15.50; brewing, $15.50 per ton.

Millstuffs-Bran, $27 per ton; mid dlings, $21.50; shorts, $20; chop, $16. Hay-Timothy, $11@13; clover, $7@9.50; Oregon wild hay, $5@6 per Butter-Fancy creamery, 22 1/ @ 25c ; dairy, 18@20c; store, 11@12c per pound.

Eggs-17@17%c per dozen.

Cheese-Full cream, twins, 11@ 11 4c; Young America, 12 4c per pound.

Poultry-Chickens, mixed, $3.00@ 3.75; hens, $4.50@5.50; dressed, 10@ 11c per pound; springs, $2.50@3.50 per dozen; ducks, $3 for old; $3.00 the new constitution goes into effect. @3.50 for young; geese, $5@6 per dozen; turkeys, live, 8@10c; dressed,

10@12%c per pound. Mutton — Lambs, 3%c, gross; dressed, 6@7c per pound; sheep, $3.25, gross; dressed, 6@6%c per lb. named Paddy Kearns died yesterday and neglect. In the house in which he had lived alone for more than 50 years, bank books showing deposits Hogs - Gross, heavy, $5.75@6; light, $4.75@5; dressed, 7@7%c per of $7,000 were found. The old man is pound. and some Veal - Small, 8@9c; large, 7 @7%c per pound.

Beef-Gross top steers, $3.50@4.00; cows and heifers, $3.25@3.50; dressed beef, 6% @7% c per pound. Hops-12@14c per pound. Wool - Valley, 11@13% c; Easterr Oregon, 8@121/2c; mohair, 20@21c pe pound.

Potatoes-$1@$1.10 per sack.

There are 649 1-3 millions of me and 633 2-3 millions of women in th world, giving the men a majority 15 1-3 millions.

For the first time during his po tificate of 23 years Pope Leo recent entertained eight guests at lunche in the vatican.

bia. On the arrival of the arms at has 95 engines equipped for the burn-ing of oil as fuel. It takes 21 barrels shipped by railroad to Panama and George W. Ranck, one of the h ing of oil as fuel. It takes 21 barrels of oil to run a locomotive a day, but the cost is small compared with coal. Buena Ventura, the seaport of China. Known literary men of Kentuc was struck and killed by a Louisv & Nashivlle train at Lexington.

Munitions of War for Rebels. New York, Aug. 29 .- The Panama Steamship Company's steamer Orizaba sailed today for Colon, carrying large number of huge packing cases, which those who are well in-

Cauca, on the Pacific Coast of Colom-