KLAMATH REPUBLICAN.

CHAPTER VIII.

sing over to Sark to see Olivia once tention. I should never forgive myself.

surprise and chagrin, Captain Carey announced his intention of landing with me, and leaving the yacht in charge of his men to a sit our return.

The Doctor's Pilemma

By Hesba Stretton

Awfully fast time sped away. It was around us. the second week in March I passed in "Yes, it is a lovely place," she assent

KLAMATH FALLS, KLAMATH COUNTY, OREGON, SEPTEMBER 26, 1901.

NO. 25.

RESULT OF THE AUTOPSY.

Death Caused by Gangrene-Possibility of the Bullet Maving Been Poisoned.

Buffalo, Sept. 17 .- The following report of the autopsy upon the remains of President McKinley has been made public:

"The bullet which struck over the Officers Asked and Consent to Remain breastbone did not pass through the -No Special Session of Congress-Affect. skin and did little harm. The other ing Scene in the Wilcox House.-Special bullet passed through both walls of Both holes were found to be perfectly closed by the stitches, but the Buffalo, Sept. 16 .- Theodore Roose tissue around each hole had become rene involving the pancreas. The He had been President under the bullet has not yet been found. There sult of the bullet wound."

Washington, Sept. 19 .- President Roosevelt at 3 o'clock yesterday convened his first Cabinet meeting held

Religious Services Will Be Held.

A NEW PRESIDENT

velt, who today was tragically elevated gangrenous. After passing through to the Chief Magistracy of the Ameri- the stomach the bullet passed into can Republic by the death of President the back walls of the abdomen, hit-McKinley, entered this city of mourn- ding and tearing the upper end of the ing yesterday afternoon, after a re- kidney. This portion of the bullet's markable and perilous journey from track was also gangrenous the gangthe heart of the north woods.

Constitution and law of the land, since was no sign of peritonitis or disease the minute the martyred President ceased to live. All the duties and pow-ers of the office had devolved upon him but he was as powerless as the solution of other organs. The heart walls were very thin. There was no evi-dence of any atempt at repair on the part of nature, and death resulted him, but he was as powerless as the from the gangrene which affected the humblest citizen to exercise one of stomach around the bullet wounds, them until he had complied with the as well as the tissues around the furconstitutional provision requiring him ther course of the bullet. Death was to take a prescribed oath to support unavoidable by any surgical or medand defend the Constitution and laws ical treatment, and was the direct reof the United States.

JAMES B. PARKER.

HIS FIRST CABINET MEETING

Throughout the Term.

JAMES B. PARKER. James B. Parker, of 450 Sixth avenue, New York City, is the Negro who stood directly ahead of Czolgosz when he shot President Mc-Kinley d who harled him to the ground with a terrific blow after the second shot was fired. Parker was born in Atlants 45 years ago, in slavery. He left New York last spring to wait in an exposition cafe. He is a giant in size, standing over 6 feet, and as erect as an Indian. The assassin tore his vest buttons en-tirely off in the struggle. Parker was at one time a waiter in the Kimball House, Atlanta. ed by President McKinley in his Buffalo speech. After the obsequies over the late President, the Cabinet, at President Log raft made a long voyage to San Roosevelt's request, assembled at the residence of Commander Cowles, where the President is staying, principally for the purpose of informing their new chief of the state of affairs in their respective departments. The President then addressed his advisers collectively, as he had previously done individually, requesting wall made their formal entry into them ail to retain their respective positions in his Cabinet. Mr. Roosevelt expressed the hope and expectation that every member would serve throughout his term, for he said he tendered the appointments as if he had just been elected to the Presidency and was forming his original a Colorado mine by an explosion, and Cabinet. The President said, however, that there was one difference between the present tender and that of one great lane of bareheaded people. Memorial services will be held in London.

I strode on doggedly down the path, kicking the loose stones into the water FROM THE FOUR QUARTERS OF as they came in my way. Captain Carey followed, whistling softly to himself. He THE WORLD. continued doing so after we were aboard

"I cannot leave you like this, Martin, A Comprehensive Review of the Important President asked the members of Mr. Will Continue McKinley's Policy-Cabinet Mappenings of the Past Week Presented McKinley's cabinet to retain their rein a Condensed Form Which Is Most clear-sighted old bachelor, "you must not do Julia the wrong of keeping this a so-Log raft reaches San Francisco in "I must," I urged. "Olivia knows nothsafety.

Pekin

Monday.

ing down.

with poor success.

Frost in the corn belt strengthens the grain markets.

The state funeral of the late president occurred at Washington.

the cabinet to remain throughrout take the places of the strikers at San thetically; but a glance from his sister decides on a $1,000 reward to stop sheep poisoning.

"I will tell you frankly," I said, feelfloated.

President Roosevelt has outlined his policy.

Francisco,

Wheat market shows signs of returning life.

sets aside a day of mourning and prayer.

Canada.

their death is almost certain.

The remains of the martyred presi-

The great steel strike has been the second week in May came up Sark; the second week in May came up on me as if borne by a whiriwind. It was only a month to the day so long "Olivia," I said, taking my courage by must conquer it" fied upon for our marriage. My mother both hands, "it is only a month till my "Martin," urged Captain Carey, "come began to fidget about my going over to wedding day." London to fit myself out with wedding Was I deceiving myself, or did she realup to Johanna, and tell her all about it." Johanna Carey was one of the powers clothes. Julia's was going on fast to ly grow paler? It was but for a moment completion. Our trip to Bwitzerland was if it were so. But how cold the sir felt in the island. Everybody knew her; and everybody went to her for comfert or distinctly planned out. Go I must to all in an instant! The shock was like counsel. She was, of course, related to distinctly plant my wedding suit I must. that of a first plunge into chilly waters, us all. I had always been a favorite with her, and nothing could be more nat-But first there could be no harm in run | and I was shivering through every fiber. sing over to Sark to see Olivia once "I hope you will be happy," said Olivia, more. As soon as I was married I would "very happy. It is a great risk to run. ural than this proposal, that I should go and tell her of my dilemma. tell Julia all about her. But if either Marriage will make you either very hap-Johanna was standing at one of the arm or ankie went wrong for want of at py or very wretched." windows, in a Quakerish dress of some "Not at all." I answered, trying to grey stuff, and with a plain white cap over her white hair. She came down to the indulgence of emotion of any kind. EVENTS OF THE DAY the yacht

through mine,

cret from her.'

put him to silence.

her inviting voice again.

the cliffs, bemoaning my unhappy fate.

my boy," he said, when we went ashore at St. Sampson's; and he put his arm

"You will keep my secret?" I said, my

"Martin," answered the good-hearted, ing of it; nobody guesses it but you. I voice a key or two lower than usual.

It was the last time I could see Olivia speak gally; "I do not look forward to before my marriage. Afterwards I should any vast amount of rapture. Julia and 1 the door as soon as she saw me, and resee much of her; for Julia would invite will get along very well together. I have her to our house, and be a friend to her, no doubt, for we have known oue an I spent a wretchedly sleepless night; and other all our lives. I do not expect to be whenever I dozed I saw Olivia before me, any happier than other men; and the meeping bitterly, and refusing to be com- married people I have known have not exactly dwelt in Paradise. Perhaps your sofa. From St. Sampson's we set sail straight | experience has been different?" for the Havre Gosselin. To my extreme

| though there was so much beauty lying

"Oh, no!" she said, her hand trembling rible fix!" on my arm, and her face very downcast; "but I should have liked you to be very. very happy. Bo softly spoken, with such a low, fal-

The ladder is excessively awkward." tering voice! I could not trust myself f objected, "and some of the rungs are to speak again. A stern sense of duty loose. You don't mind running the risk towards Julia kept me silent; and we moved on, though very slowly and lin-

"I esteem her more highly than any of a plunge into the water?" Not in the least," he answered cheergeringly. By; "for the matter of that, I plunge into it every morning at L'Ancrease. I want "You love her very much?" said the has been my patient there." quiet voice at my side, not much louder to see Tardif. He is one in a thousand, than the voice of conscience. as you say; and one cannot see such a man every day of one's life." There was no help for it, and I gave in, hoping some good luck awaited me.

I led the way up the sig-sag path, and just as we reached the top I saw the slight, erect figure of Ollvia seated upon the brow of a little grammy knoll at a short distance from us. Her back was towards us, so she was not aware of our vicinity; and I pointed towards her with an assumed air of indifference.

I believe that is my patient yonder.' I said; "I will just run across and speak to her, and then follow you to the farm. "Ah!" he exclaimed, "there is a lovely view from that spot. I recollect it well. I will go with you. There will be time enough to see Tardif." Did Captain Carey suspect anything? Or what reason could he have for wishing to see Olivia? Could it be merely that he wanted to see the view from that particular spot? I could not forbid him accompanying me, but I wished him at Jericho.

livia did not hear our footsteps upon ## spective portfolios throughout his term, and announced that his adminis-Likely to Prove of Interest to Our Many tration would follow the policy outlin-Readers.

Chinese troops have re-entered Czolgosz' trial was set for next Mrs. McKinley seems to be break-

Northern whaling fleet meeting

The charter commission went on record in favor of civil service regulaceived me with a motherly kiss. "Johanna," said Captain Carey, "we tions.

have something to tell you." "Come and alt here by me," she said, Roosevelt asked the members of making room for me beside her on her the term.

Men are en route from Ohio to "Johanna," I replied, "I am in a ter-

"Awfull" cried Captain Carey sympa- Francisco. Oregon Wool Growers' Convention

"What is it, my dear Martin?" asked The British bark Baroda may be ing I must have it out at once, like an aching tooth. "I love, with all my heart and soul, that girl in Sark; the one who

"Martin!" she cried, in a tone full of surprise and agitation, "Martin!" "Yes; I know all you would urge. My congress.

Governor Rogers, of Washington, fhe Duke and Dutchess of Corn-

Czolgosz, who assassinated President McKinley, was indicted for murder in the first degree.

One hundred men were trapped in an original offer-namely, that under dent were borne from Buffalo to the present circumstances they were Washington. The train ran through not at liberty to decline. Upon being asked by a mmber if Mrs. McKinley stood the trip well. resignations should be formally pre-

He took the oath at 3:30 o'clock Sat- The report of the autopsy has givurday afternoon in the library of the en rise to the theory, hinted at a day the soft turf, though we approached her very nearly. The sun shone upon her glossy hair, every thread of which seemed to shine back again. She was reading aloud, apparently to herself, and the sounds of her sweet voice were wafted by the air towards us. Captain Carey' face became very thoughtful.

Roosevelt Asks the Members to Remain ROOSEVELT TOOK THE OATH OF OFFICE AT BUFFALO.

A few steps nearer brought us in view of Tardif, who had spread his nets on the grass, and was examining them narrowly for rents. Just at this moment was down on his knees, not far from Olivia, gathering some broken meshes to gether, but listening to her, with an expression of huge contentment upon his andsome face. A bitter pang shot through me. Could it be true by any possibility-that lie I had heard the last time I was in Bark ?

"Good day, Tardif," shouled Captain Carey; and both Tardif and Olivia started. But both of their faces grew brightor at seeing us. Olivia's color had come back to her cheeks, and a sweeter face so man ever looked upon.

"I am very glad you are come one more," she said, putting her hand in mine; "you told me in your last letter you were going to England."

glanced from the corner of my eye a Captain Carey. He looked very grave, but his eyes could not rest upon Olivia without admiring her, as she stood be fore us, bright-faced, slender, erect, with the folds of her coarse dress falling about her as gracefully as if they were of the richest material.

"This is my friend, Captain Carey, Miss Olivia," I said, "in whose yacht I have visit you."

Martin's," she answered as she held out her hand to him with a smile; "my doctor and I are great friends, Captain Carey.

"So I suppose," he said significantlyor at least his tone and look' seemed fraught with significance to me.

"Tardif," I said, "Captain Carey came ashore on purpose to visit you and your farm."

I knew he was excessively proud of his farm, which consisted of about four or five acres. He caught at the words with alacrity, and led the way towards his house with tremendous strides. Olivia and I were left alone, but she was moving after them slowly, when I ran to her, and offered her my arm, on the plea that her ankle was still too weak to bear her weight unsupported.

"Olivia!" I exclaimed, after we had sone a few yards, bringing her and my-self to a sudden halt. Then I was struck dumb. I had nothing special to say to her. How was it I had called her so familiarly Olivia?

"Well, Dr. Martin?" she said, looking into my face again with eager, inquiring eyes, as if she was wishful to understand my varying moods.

"What a lovely place this is!" I ejaculated. More lovely than any words I ever heard could describe. It was a perfect day, and a perfect view. The sea was like an opal. The cliffs stretched below us, with every hue of gold and bronze, unpleasant consequences, so much chaand hoary white, and soft grey; and here grin and histerness as their practical reand there a black rock, with livid shades of purple, and a bloom upon it like a pulses throbbed, and my heart beat high, raven's wing. Rocky islets, never trodden by human foot, over which the foam poured censelessly, were dotted all about ast beneath the level of my eyes was be done." Olivia's face-the lovellest thing there, It was neither a time nor a place for always call him "Shorty."

what an impossibility it is even to back now. I know it all, and feel h miserably binding it is upon me. Ye love Olivia; and I shall never love Juli

A long, dreary, colorless, wretched stretched before me, with Julia my separable companion, and Olivia a gether lost to me. Captain Care:

Johanna, neither of whom had tast aweets and bitters of marriage, le

"You must tell Julin," said Johar

"Tell Julia!" I echoed. "I would

"You must tell her," she repeated.

"What do you call being true, Martin Dobree?" she asked, more calmly than

she had spoken before. "Is it being true to a woman to let her believe you choose and love her above all other women, when that is absolutely false? No; you are too honorable for that. I tell you it is your

Nothing could move Johanna from that was Julia's due to hear it from my-position, and in my heart I recognized its righteousness. She argued with me that self. I knew afterwards that she believed the sight of her distress and firm love for myself would dissipate the infatuation of my love for Olivia. But she

Before she let me leave her I had of the betrothal. In the latter case she until the first bitterness was over.

promised to carry Julia home with her

(To be continued.)

Wild Boars in Windsor Park.

It is stated that the wild boars in Windsor great park are to be shot, by order of King Edward. The herd was presented to Queen Victoria by the Prince of Wales during his tour in India. The animals have largely increased in numbers, and have had to be killsorrowfully at me and shook their after a long pause.

tell her for worlds!"

know it at once.

my mother did.

"TILL MY FLESH CREPT."

other woman, except my mother," I said. honor, my affection for Julia, the clai "Do you think she will like me?" askshe has upon me, the strongest clai possible; how good and worthy she ed Olivia, anxiously, "No; she must love you," I said, with warmth; "and I, too, can be a more useful friend to you after my marriage than I am now. Perhaps then you will feel free to place perfect confidence in us." She smiled faintly, without speakingsmile which said plainly she could keep her own secret closely. It provoked me to do a thing I had had no intention of doing, and which I regretted very much afterward. I opened my pocketbook and drew out the little sllp of paper containing the advertisement. "Read that," I said.

But I do not think she saw more than the first line, for her face went deadly white, and her eyes turned upon me with is your clear duty. I know it will a wild, beseeching look-as Tardif demost painful to you both, but you scribed it, the look of a creature hunted no right to marry her with this secr on and terrified. I thought she would have your mind." fallen, and I put my arm round her. She "I should be true to her," I interruptfastened both her hands about mine, and ed somewhat angrily. her lips moved, though I could not catch a word she was saying. "Olivia!" I cried, "Olivia! do you sup pose I could do suything to hurt you? Do not be so frightened! Why, I am your friend truly. I wish to heaven I had not shown you the thing. Have more faith in me, and more courage." plain duty to let Julia know this, and "But they will find me, and force me away from here," she muttered.

"No," I said; "that advertisement was printed in the Times directly after your flight last October. They have not found you yet; and the longer you are hidden the less likely they are to find you. Good heavens! what a fool I was to show it to

to you!" "Never mind," she answered, recoverdid not read Julia's character as well as ing herself a little, but still clinging to my arm; "I was only frightened for the time. You would not give me up to them promised to have my confession and subif you knew all." sequent explanation with Julia all over "Give you up to them!" I repeated bitthe following day; and to make this the terly. "Am I a Judas?"

more inevitable, she told me she should But she could not talk to me any more drive into St. Peter-port the next after-She was trembling like an aspen leaf noon about five o'clock, when she should and her breath came sobbingly. All 1 expect to find this troublesome matter could do was to take her home, blaming settled, either by a renewal of my affection for my betrothed, or the suspension myself for my cursed folly. Tardif walked with us to the top of the cliff, and made me a formal, congratulatory speech before quitting us. When he was gone, Captain Carey stood still until he was quite out of hearing, and then stretched out his hand towards the thatched roof, yellow with stonecrop and lichens. "This is a serious business, Martin," he snid, looking sternly at me; "you are in love with that girl."

"I love her with all my heart and soul!" I cried. The words startled me as I uttered them. They had involved in them so many ed off periodically. They have been a considerable source of attraction to visitors, but they are dangerous, and sevsult, that I stood aghast-even while my eral people have narrowly escaped inwith the novel rapture of loving any jury. woman as I loved Olivia. When a brakeman has curly hair,

"Come, come, my poor fellow!" said the changeful surface of the water. And Captain Carey, "we must see what can his associates call him "Curly." But if he is over six feet tall, however, they cussion turned upon the policy of the tled. Administration and Mr. Roosevelt an-The Duke of York has arrived at nounced that he regarded the speech Quebec

In honor of the president Governor runt of Idaho has designated a day

President Roosevelt was sworn in at Buffalo. He announced that Mc-

Kinley's policy would be carried out.

Extra precuations are being taken to guard the czar. Governor Geer apart Thursday as a day of mourning.

A simple service over the remains of the president was held at Mil-

The steel trust is starting up more

The Schley court of inquiry is now

Governor Gage has been asked to

A good flow of natural gas has been

Trial of the noted Ferrier murder

A Colorado man was tarred and Every year increases the cost of the year they cost $18,512,000. Next year bout $19,800,000 will be demanded by the Board of Education. Of this amount $15,151,000 will be mandatory

Mr. Baldwin has shipped 40 balloons to Tromsoe for use in the North Pole expedition. These balloons are not intended to carry passengers, but each matically, thus recording the route

This

public schools of New York.

under the Davis law.

northward.

case was begun at Chehalis, Washing-discovered near McMinnville, Oregon.

settle the strike at San Francisco.

mourning for the state.

Washington.

idle mills.

in session.

met at Dantzic.

o raise an army.

ant

shooting, as outlining the policies to be followed by the Administration. It cannot be learned at this time be willing to serve the full term.

SIX COALMINERS KILLED.

Disaster Was Caused by the Explosion

ch Glenwood Springs, Colo., Sept. 19.

vas

tunnel in which the explosion occur- United States District Court, who adred. As soon as the explosion occur red a messenger was sent to the Posed cahontas mine, seven miles away, to telephone here for assistance. He entire force of 100 miners was in the mine and it was thought that all had perished. A later messenger brought the information that less than half an plosion all but a few of the employes had gone off duty, thus preventing a more serious calamity. The explosion was caused by gas becoming ignited

THE ODD FELLOWS

by the blasts.

the preceding term.

has issued a proclamation setting Sovereign Grand Lodge Takes Up Question of National Sanitarium.

Indianapolis, Sept. 19 .- At the ses on of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of burn house, and the body was then Odd Fellows, a resolution was introtaken to the Buafflo city hall, where duced and referred to a special comwill lie in state till taken to mittee to assess directly each member of raising a fund for the construction and maintenance of a National sanithe year just closed the receipts showed a net gain of $4087 over those of The assets Emperors Nicholas and William amount in all to $131,029. It is estimated that 50,000 visitors were here today. The parade this af-Colombia has begun conscription ternoon contained 25,000 men in line, including 58 brass bands.

I Sympathy at Odessa.

London, Sept. 19 .- A dispatch to the Times from Odessa says a feeling of deepest sympathy with Mrs. McKinley and the people of the United States is everywhere manifested. The Listok declares that "President McKinley fell like a hero at his post. He was the victim of a coward, who, Judas-like, murdered the twice-chosen leader of feathered for expressing sympathy the people with hand outstretched in friendship."

Don't Want to Defend Czolgosz.

Milwaukee, Sept. 19 .- Judge Titus, could hardly believe the report of his appointment was true. In answer to a question as to whether he would will have ten messenger buoys at consent to defe tached, which will be liberated auto- Titus replied: consent to defend the assassin Judge since court.

ridence of Ansley Wilcox, a personal or two after the President was shot friend with whom he stayed earlier in that Czolgosz, in order to insure the the week when the physicians thought accomplishment of his purpose, pois-President McKinley would recover oned the bullets that were fired. from the wound inflicted by the assassin.

dence in support of this view by Dr. There were present when he swore to th oath: Secretaries Root, Hitch- Wasdin, one of the consulting phywhether or not all the members will cock, Long, Wilson and Postmaster- sicians. Dr. Wasdin is considered an General Smith, Senator C. M. Depew. expert of high standing in the Marine Hospital service. A chemical of New York, Judge of the Court of and bacteriological examination

Appeals Haight, John H. Scathered, will undoubtedly be made at once by G. Milburn, the secretary to the Presithe authorities. DAY OF MOURNING.

People-Tribute to Dead President.

gangrene found in the path of the bullet is thought to be strong evi-

the remaining bullets in the pistol will, however, confirm or demolish

this theory and such an examination

Salem, Or., Sept. 17 .- Governor Geer has issued the following proclamation:

"To the People of Oregon-For the third time within the history of the United States its people are in mournhad gone first to the house of mourn- ing over the death of their President by means of an assassin's bullet. During an era of profound peace, when our people are in the enjoyment of an era of unexampled prosperity, and while mingling freely with all classes of the people whose interests mote, the hand of the treacherous assassin, which was extended in professed friendship, committed one of the foulest deeds that will ever darken the pages of the world's history. Our beloved President, William Mc-Kinley, is dead, and in this hour of National affliction the grief which overspreads the entire Nation is shared by the people of Oregon, with bowed heads and sorrowing hearts.

"The mortal remains of Pesident McKinley will be laid to rest at Canton, O., on Thursday, September 19, and in respect to his memory, I recommend that on that day all public and private business be suspended. as far as possible, that flags be placed at half-mast, that the people meet in their respective places of public WOF Buffalo, Sept. 17 .- A death mask of ship to ask for that National consolation which can only come from Almighty God, and that at the hour of the funeral all church bells through out the state be tolled as an expression of the grief which weighs upon our hearts as we pass through this shadow of National bereavement.

"By the Governor, T. T. GEER. "F. I. DUNBAR, Secretary of State."

Grief at Manila.

Manila, Sept. 17 .- The profoundest grief is manifested by every class in the community over the death of President McKinley. Governor Taft has issued a proclamation which expl to the Filipinos, that while the death of Mr. McKinley is an irreparable individual loss, it does not alter the stability of the Government or change the course of the administration. This was considered necessary because the Filipinos thought Mr. Bryan would succeed him.

Vienna. Sept. 17 .- A constant stream of Buffalo, whose appointment as at- of diplomats and other visitors called torney for Czolgosz was announced at at the United States Legation, tender Buffalo yesterday, is in this city, at. ing condolence upon the death of Mr. tending a Masonic convention. He McKinley.

Anarchist Meetings Forbidden. Berlin, Sept. 17 .- The Cologne Gazette asserts that all anarchist meetings have been forbidden in Germany "Not unless ordered to do so by yesterday, and that all anarchist clubs will be closed.

o'clock.

proclaimed it in these words:

eye in the room ministered the oath. The scene was a most affecting one. The new President had just come from Milburn house, where his predecessor

Mr. and Mrs. Ansley Wilcox, Miss Wilcox, George P. Sawyer, Drs. Mann, Parke and Stockton, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Sprague, Mr. and Mrs. John

Accumulated Gas in a Tunnel. A terrible explosion of gas in the dent, William Loeb, Jr.; the secretary Spring Gulch mine of the Colorado to the deceased President, George B. Fuel & Iron Company, located 18 miles Cortleyou, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carry, from this place, caused the death of C. R. Scathered, J. D. Sawyer and Wil of six miners and the injury of four liam Jeffers, official telegrapher, in ad- Governor Geer's Proclamation to Oregon vas others, besides much damage to the dition to Judge John R. Hazel, of the stated at the time of the accident the lay cold in death. Overcome by the deep personal sorrow he felt, in his characteristically impulsive way he nour previous to the time of the ex- ing to offer his condolence and sympathy to the broken hearted widow. Secretary Root, who 20 years ago had been present at a similar scene when Arthur took the oath after the death of another President who fell a victim to an assassin's bullet, almost broke down when he requested Mr. Roosevelt he had labored impartially to proon behalf of the members of the Cabinet of the late President, to take the prescribed oath. There was not a dry

The new President was visibly shak. en, but he controlled himself, and when he lifted his hand to swear it was as steady as though carved in marble. With the deep solemnity of of the order 50 cents for the purpose the occasion he announced to those present that his aim would be to be William McKinley's successor in deed tarium at Hot Springs, Ark. During as well as in name. Deliberately he

"In this hour of deep and terrible National bereavement I wish to state that it shall be my aim to continue absolutely without variance the policy of President McKinley for the peace and prosperity and honor of our beloved country.

Death Mask Made.

the President's face was made at 7:20 The mask was taken by Educard Pausch, of Hartford, Conn. Pausch has mode'ed the features of many of the distinguished men who have died in this country in recent vears. The mask is a faithful repro duction of the late President McKinley's features.

Sympathy of Austrians.