CZOLGOSZ EXECUTED.

The cruel assassination of President McKinley was avenged by the execution of his murderer, Leon Czolgosz, in the Auburn prison at 7:12 Tuesday morning.

Theological seminaries are complaining that the number of students offering themselves to be prepared for the ministry is on the decrease.

Within little more than a month the wheels of congress will begin to revolve. Among the matters to appear for attention at the coming session is legislation looking to the construction of the much-talked-of Nicaragua canal.

Admiral Schley has given before the court of inquiry the past week a graphic account of the experiences leading to and during the Santiago naval battle.

Nebraska's state board of health has installed preparations to fight the smallpox on its expected appearance the coming winter.

Senator John P. Jones of Nevada, who joined the free silver movement in '96, has returned to republicanism, announcing that the increased output of gold has killed the silver issue and that on all other questions he has been heartily in accord with the republican party.

Express Messenger C. R. Charles whose brave resistance prevented robbers from plundering his car in the hold-up near Eugene last week, showed himself to be a man of exceptional valor and determination.

The coming Lewis and Clark Centennial celebration will afford enlarged opportunities for Oregon to show its inducements to home-seekers and capital and thereby greatly increase its population and development.

SCALP BOUNTY ALL RIGHT.

A Five Mile rancher, who was to day complaining that the coyotes had got away with from 100 to 200 of his chickens this year, was asked by the Chronicle if the operation of the scalp bounty law was having no effect on the varmints. The farmer's answer was: "There is not one coyote now where there were fifty before the bounty was paid."

LAKE COUNTY'S OLDEST CITIZEN DEAD.

David R. Jones, who died at his home, near Lakeview, October 19, was the oldest inhabitant of Lake County. He was born in Virginia in 1826.

FILIPINO CHARACTER.

A letter from Manila to the Grants Pass Courier, has a graphic description of the average Filipino. The following is an extract: As to the character of the average Filipino it can be summed up in three words, thief, liar and deceiver.

Next you notice he is dirty in his habits, but fairly clean in person. He will lie without any apparent cause when he knows the truth would be better. He is treacherous, lying, cowardly, thieving, a worthless half-breed mongrel born of a mongrel spawn of Asia crossed upon fitches of darkest India.

Providence has reserved a fairer future for these wealthy islands than to have them governed by this herd of ignorant people. The Filipino is easily influenced and when under the influence of American energy and capital, governed by a firm definite policy, it will blossom as the rose, and in the course of two or three generations more the Filipinos will be brought to appreciate the virtues of cleanliness, industry and honesty.

S. P. TRAIN HELD UP.

The California and Oregon fast express was held up near Eugene on Wednesday of last week. Following is an extract from the account of the robbery, appearing in Thursday's Oregonian:

Robbers held up a northbound Southern Pacific passenger train between Cottage Grove and Eugene yesterday morning, and got away with the contents of five registered pouches. A desperate attempt was made to pillage the express car, but this was foiled by the resistance of Messenger Charles F. Charles.

BONANZA WHISPERINGS.

Messrs. Leavitt and Mills, two of Klamath Falls' legal lights, were in our town last Friday and Saturday.

J. D. Hamaker has purchased the Watson sawmill. He will take immediate charge.

N. W. Dumm's new residence is nearing completion. It will be ready for occupancy by next week.

A. T. Langell has purchased the Geo. Chastain property adjoining town and will soon remove his family thither.

The smallpox scare has about abated in our little "burg." We haven't had a case of the so called smallpox in town as yet.

N. Lapham was doing business with the Bonanza merchants this week.

Albert Patterson made a business trip to Merrill last week.

Theodore Flackus passed through town a few days ago with some heavy timbers for the bridge across Lost river at the Patterson ford.

MISS DUGAN OF GOLD HILL.

Notwithstanding the fact that the gold brick swindle, the green goods game and the matrimonial bureau and advertisement fave have been "worked" most industriously for years past and have been most thoroughly exposed in the press and through the courts, every now and then new victims are found who bite at the alluring bait thrown out by those who exploit these schemes to catch the unwary.

The latest in the matrimonial line is revealed through the investigations of the United States grand jury and the arrest of Miss Etna Dugan, of Gold Hill, this county, who is charged with using the United States mails to defraud and deriving considerable revenue from wife hunters.

And will be filed in this office on the 2nd day of December, 1901, and applications for the entry of lands in the above described townships will be received at this office and made of record on and after said 2nd day of December, 1901.

AUCTION SALE.

I will sell at public auction, at my ranch, in Langell Valley, on Monday, November 18, 1901, commencing at 10 o'clock a. m., the following described property, to-wit: Fifty head of cattle, ten head of horses, fifty tons of hay, one gang plow, one hay rake, one new Fresno scraper, three sets of harness, one walking plow, one shovel plow, one 2-horse wagon, 1,500 feet of dressed flooring, 1,000 feet of rough lumber, one cable hay carrier, and other articles too numerous to mention.

United States deputy marshal Probstel, after the indictment by the Federal grand jury, arrested Miss Dugan at Gold Hill, Friday. She was admitted to $500 cash bail, furnished by her father, to appear before Judge C. B. Bellinger, charged with using the United States mails to defraud.

STOCK RANCH FOR SALE.

The undersigned desires to sell a choice stock ranch containing 1350 acres in two tracts, viz:

One tract consisting of 906 acres, all under fence, adjoining the town of Klamath Falls; about 600 acres tillable land, 100 acres under cultivation, 300 acres could be irrigated, balance pasture; four acres orchard, two residences, three barns, sheds, corrals, etc., etc. This tract could be divided so as to make two very desirable places.

Other tract, situated 6 miles from first, comprising 472 acres, all under fence, 100 acres natural meadow, 55 acres under cultivation, 50 acres more could be cleared with little expense, 100 acres timber, balance pasture land; has house and two lay barns, and is in center of a fine stock range.

On account of poor health I will sell the above lands at a sacrifice. For further information, call on, or address, L. A. LEWIS, Klamath Falls, Or.

FOR SALE. TWO FINE RANCHES.

The undersigned desires, on account of poor health, to sell two excellent ranches, viz:

One stock ranch about 6 miles from Lorella, containing 520 acres, all fenced with good rail and wire fence, good buildings, house, barn, sheds, spring house, etc.; 150 acres under cultivation, the balance in wild hay, (cuts several hundred tons per year); all excellent soil and plenty of water from several large springs for the hay and crops. It is one of the best ranches, and in the center of a large and first class range.

Also a grain ranch at Lorella known as the "Simp. Wilson ranch," containing 320 acres. All well fenced and sufficiently watered by numerous springs of excellent water; a new house, finished in good style and cost $1,200; a young orchard, 25 acres in alfalfa, the balance cultivated and raising wheat, oats, rye, barley, vegetables, etc., etc. No waste land on it. The best grain ranch in Klamath county.

These ranches will be sold, separately or together, at a bargain. Good title, and both in first rate condition. Call on or write to WM. DAVIS, Lorella, Oregon.
