

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1901.

Big republican victories in the East last week are prophetic of what will happen in this state next June.

Candidate Bryan hasn't submitted to an interview since the late elections. His own state has repudiated his calamity principles by the overwhelming majority of 10,000.

Only four states elected legislatures that will choose U. S. senators this winter—Iowa, Ohio, Maryland and Kentucky. The elections a year hence will be more important in that respect, as nearly thirty senatorial seats are then to be filled.

Li Hung Chang, China's leading statesman, died last week as the indirect result of an angry dispute with the Russian minister. Earl Li's advanced age and feeble health rendered him unable to suppress his wrath, which caused his collapse.

The Schley court of inquiry has concluded everything except rendering a verdict, which the country awaits with anxious interest. It is believed Schley will get what he deserves—praise for his management of the Santiago naval campaign.

The elections on Tuesday of last week resulted in most states in big republican victories. Ohio has gone republican by 80,000 plurality. New York republicans score a big victory, electing 108 out of 150 members of the state assembly. Seth Low, anti-Tamm candidate, was elected mayor of New York City by 30,000 majority. Iowa gave the republican nominee for governor 90,000 majority. Nebraska went republican by a plurality of 10,000. New Jersey goes republican by 15,000 majority. Republicans carry Pennsylvania by 80,000. Massachusetts rolls up a republican plurality of 70,000. Rhode Island goes republican by 7,000. Kansas goes republican. Maryland, Kentucky and Virginia have gone democratic. In San Francisco, Eugene Schmitz, the union labor candidate for mayor, won by a plurality of 2,900.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.
President Roosevelt has issued his proclamation fixing Thursday November 28, as a day of National Thanksgiving. It reads:
"A Proclamation: The season is nigh when, according to the time-hallowed custom of our people, the President appoints a day as the special occasion for prayer and thanksgiving to God.
"This Thanksgiving finds the people still bowed down with sorrow for the death of a great and good President. We mourn for President McKinley because we loved and honored him, and the manner of his death should awaken in the breasts of our people a keen anxiety and a resolute purpose not to be driven by any calamity from the path of strong, orderly, popular liberty, which as a nation, we have thus far safely trod.
"Yet, in spite of this great disaster it is nevertheless true that no people on earth have such abundant cause for thanksgiving as we have. We have prospered in things material, and have been able to work for our own uplifting in things intellectual and spiritual. Let us remember that, as much as has been given us, much will be expected from us; and that true homage comes from the heart as well as from the lips and shows itself in deeds. We can best prove our thankfulness to the Almighty by the way in which, on this earth, and at this time, each of us does his duty to his fellow men.
"Now, therefore, I, Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States, do hereby designate as a day of general thanksgiving Thursday, the 28th day of November, and do recommend that throughout the land the people cease from their wonted occupations and at their several homes and places of worship thank the Giver of all good for the countless blessings of our National life.
"In witness thereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.
"Done at the City of Washington, this 3d day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and one, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and thirty-first."
THEODORE ROOSEVELT,
President.

JOHN HAY,
Secretary of State.

A THREATENING LETTER.

The following threatening letter was received in Gov. T. T. Geer's office one day last week, the writer evidently thinking the Walls Walla penitentiary to be in Oregon, where as it is in Washington.

Dunsmuir, Cal., Nov. 2, 1901.
Governor of Oregon:
My Dear Sir: We wish to have no trouble, nor do we wish to cause you trouble. We ask of you to pardon and turn out of the penitentiary at Walla Walla, Or., Edwin V. Tuleman, who is doing a twenty years sentence. You will please pardon and release him from said prison inside of six (6) days from the receipt of this letter. And if you do not comply with the above inside of the time fixed above—six days—you will be treated to the same medicine McKinley got. If you want to save yourself and family you had better act at once—act at once and save trouble. If you do not as above requested, you will be shot down without notice.

I am writing this notice from above place, I live, or should say we live—the parties who intend to carry out this scheme—part of us live here and part in Redding, California. They may live in some other country. Good bye. Please obey above and oblige.

THE N. C. O. R. R. COMING TO LAKEVIEW.
(Oregonian.)

President Charles M. Sain, of the Oregon Potash Company, writes from San Francisco a personal letter to a Portland stockholder in the corporation, saying that he has made a deal with the Nevada-California-Oregon Railroad Company for the extension of its line from Termino, Cal., to Summer lake, Or. "They take an interest in our Summer and Abert lake properties," says the letter, "and will extend their line northward to the lakes. I have the contract for the railroad in writing and I have every reason to believe it will go ahead. They expect to reach the property next year, or at least as far Lakeview. This, of course, means a great deal for the development of Southern Oregon. It may also lead to a through line to the Dalles. I tried to interest the Columbia Southern, but they were slow. They might have had the same layout the N. C. O. has and it would have been a good thing for Portland. It would still be a good thing for Portland to have the Northern line built."

The Nevada-California and Oregon Railroad starts from Reno Junction, on the Central Pacific railway in Nevada, 306 miles from San Francisco and runs northwestward, crossing into California and terminating at Termino, which is 139 miles from Reno. Eighteen miles of the new line are under construction, between Termino and Madeline, and it is said trains will run to this extension before the end of this year. From there the distance to Abert lake is about 129 miles, and to Summer lake it is 30 miles further. About half way between Madeline and Abert lake, on the direct line, is the town of Lakeview Or., which has a large trade from the Upper Gorge lake valley and an extensive agricultural, grazing and mineral region in South-eastern Oregon.

This road is of narrow gauge and all the traffic going over it to the outside market must be transferred into standard gauge cars at Reno Junction. This adds to the cost of transportation. For many miles from Reno it passes through a country that yields almost no local business. It gets into a productive country only after crossing the range into California, and the country improves toward Oregon. Hitherto that region has been known almost exclusively as a stock country. Lack of transportation facilities prevented the development of general farming, there being only the local market to supply. Horses and cattle and sheep could carry themselves to market, and the grazing interests thrive. It is a famous horse country. The region produces such uncommon minerals as borax and carbonate of soda in abundance. It is estimated that there are 30,000,000 tons of salts at Summer and Abert lakes. Since carbonate of soda is worth $20 per ton in San Francisco and potash $150 per ton it is evident that these commodities alone would make profitable business for a railroad penetrating that country. Not only is the available quantity large but the price makes it a high-class freight, the kind that enables a railroad to pay dividends.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

I would respectfully notify the public that on account of the appearance of smallpox in the country I have placed the entire Klamath reservation under quarantine restrictions. I would ask all people outside the reservation lines to remain off the reservation for the present. A measure of this kind to be effective must be as nearly complete as possible. All persons who are within the lines will be required to remain until the danger is regarded as fully past and official notice is given to that effect. Klamath Agency, Oregon, October 22, 1901.

Modern Surgery Surpassed

"While suffering from a bad case of piles I consulted a physician who advised me to try a box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve," says G. F. Carter, Atlanta, Ga. "I procured a box and was entirely cured. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is a splendid cure for piles, gives relief instantly, and I heartily recommend it to all sufferers." Surgery is unnecessary to cure piles. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will cure any case. Cuts, burns, bruises and all other wounds are also quickly cured by it. Beware of counterfeits.

A Physician Testifies.

"I have taken Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and have never used anything in my life that did me the good that did," says County Physician Geo. W. Scroggins of Hall county, Ga. "Being a physician I have prescribed it and found it to give the best results." If the food you eat remains undigested in your stomach it decays there and poisons the system. You can prevent this by dieting but that means starvation. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. You need suffer from neither dyspepsia nor starvation. The worst cases quickly cured. Never fails.
