KLAN

VOL. VI.

CHAPTER I.

raim as death, slumbering placidly be- madversion on the age of the sorry cattle raim as sun's hot rays; above, a sky of in question-their horses, no doubt; and palest azure, flecked here and there by there is something wonderfully charming dainty masses of soft, fleecy clouds; and. in the faint apologetic color that springs far inland, a background of high hills, into his cheeks. As he finishes speaking clothed with a tender foliage, a very baby he looks at Griselda so hard that she feels Toward the west the trees give way a and to say something. Toward the seen, that like a "We thought our last hour had come," straight pale ribbon runs between the says, laoghing softly, and looking at greenery for the space of quite a mile or him a little shyly, but so prettily. lage where the simple folk of Glowring be now." Destley toil from one year's end to the She hows to him, and so does her sisother, some in careless joy, some in cease- ter quite as graciously, and then the less labor, some, slas! in cruel weeping, horses once more commence their snail-back to the town. thirstily in the burning sunshine of this settles his soft hat more firmly on his hot midday in June, a carriage is crawl- head, picks up his rod, regards it anx- er from the threshold. ing with quite an aggravating slowness | iously to see that no harm has come to an antiquated vehicle of a type now al-most unknown, but which once beyond shelter of the cool wood. doubt "cost money." The carriage, being Half an hour later they are at the enan open one, c ables the people as it trance gate of Greycourt, and practically passes through the village to see without at their journey's end. Both girls, with andue trouble that the occupants of it are an involuntary movement, crane their two girls; both very young, both singular- necks out of the carriage to get a first alike, though in distinctly different glimpse at their future home, and then styles.

with a little quick motion of the hand yet withal grand in its desolation, could toward the sweeping bay, and the awak- hardly be seen. ening trees, and the other glories of the landscape. mind misgives me, Vera."

" "fer, full of terrible insinuations, and then blotting it out. " laughs a little. Thus animated, she is a A sudden turn brings them within view sister's chin, turns her face gently to her. "Such a beautiful face! Very like the ing sunshine. righte one beside it, yet unlike, too. There The coachman, scrambling to the bidden to her.

sart. "I quite forgot to tell you of it, shutting the door again behind them with but the day before we left Nice, Nell a sharp haste, leaves them alone with Stewart said that this cousin you speak their new relative, Gregory Dysart. of, if he does exist at all, at all events does not do it here.

CHAPTER II. Which means?" - N Vera, going quickly forward, moves to- spirit of adventure is full upon me, and "That either he won't, or can't, life ward an armchair at the upper end of with his father. Can't, Nell rather led the room in which a figure is seated. She known wood? So, fare thee well, sweet, me to believe.' sees an old man, shrunken, enfectied, my love! and when you see me, expect "Can't it is, you may be sure," says the with a face that is positively ghastly, beyounger girl, restlessly. "Fancy a father cause of its excessive pallor: a living whose son can't live with him! And yet, corpse, save for two eyes that burn and on her sister's brow, averring that a "brow" is the only applicable part of her after all, virtuous astonishment on that gleam and glitter with an almost devilish for such a solemn occasion, and runs score is rather out of place with us. I brillinney. can imagine just such a father." "So you've come," he says, without "Well, never mind that," says Miss Dymaking any attempt to rise from his wart, hastily. chair. "Shut that door, will you? What "Yes. Very good; let us then go from a vile draught! And don't stand staring sire to uncle, says her sister with a litlike that, it makes me nervous." tle shrug. "Do you think we shall gain much by the change? This old relative of His voice is cold, clear, freezing, seems to the tired girls standing before ours is, perhaps, as delightful as we could him as if a breath of icy air had suddenly wish him, and yet I wish father had not fallen into the hot and stifling ro on and on, until the six feet of wall are left us to his 'ender mercies." "Vers, I presume," says Mr. Dysart holding out his lithe white hand to permit "Do not dwell on that," says Vera. with nervous haste; "do not seek for her to press it. "And you are Griselda" faults in the inevitable. He is all that is I need not ask what lunatic chose your With a merry heart she plunges into left us. You know the sudden decision names, as I was well acquainted with atose out of a letter received by father your mother many years ago." from Uncle Gregory about a year ago. "I feel that I must think you at once When father was-was dyingnot, her world before her. She Uncle Gregory, for your kindness to us. pauses abruptly, and a tremor shakes her says Miss Dysart, gravely, still standing. ast words. "Ay, ay. You acknowledge that," says The younger girl turns quickly to look "I have been your best he, quickly. There is infinite love and comat her. friend, after all, ch ?" passion in her glance, but perhaps a little "You have given us a home," continues contempt, and certainly a little impa-Miss Dysart, in tones that tremble a lit tience. "But for you-"" "Yes, yes-go on." He thrusts out his tle. "Do you know," she says, "it may seem heartless-positively coarse, if you willold miserly face as if athirst for further but I do not think our father was a man words. "But for me you would both to excite respect, much less love or regret, have been cast upon the world's highway, to live or die as chance dictated. To me, "Oht it is better not to speak like that," to me you are indebted for everything. You owe me much. Each day you live interrupts Miss Dysart, in a low, shocked you shall owe me more. I have befriend-"Don't do it, darling. I know tone is considerably the worse for wear. A what you mean, buted you; I have been the means of saving you from starvation." And I know that I shall never forgive It so corpse-like a face could show signs er forget the life he led you," says Griselthe sight is welcome as the early dew. of excitement it shows it now, as he seeks da, with a certain angry excitement. (To be continued.) to prove by word and gesture that he is Well, that is over!" says Miss Dysart, benefactor to an unlimited extent with a quick sigh, heavily indrawn. The hateful emotion he betrays raises in What was this vendetta, this terrible Griselda's breast feelings of repugnance lifelong quarrel that was kept up beand disgust. tween him and father with such monoton-"I have consented to adopt you," he ous persistency ?" goes on presently, his cold voice now cut-"That had to do with our grandfather's ting like a knife. "But do not expect will. Papa was the eldest son, yet the much from me. It is well to come to a property was left to Uncle Gregory; and proper understanding at the start, and that forme reason at all. Naturally, papa so save future argument. Honesty has Gregory of using undue influence." "Just so, and of course there is a good deal behind that you don't know. There always is; nobody even throw. There that marks everything around. She flings wide a door for the girls to nter, and then abruptly departs without offering them word or glance. They are thankful to be thus left alone, and incluntarily stand still and gaze at each other. Vera is very pale, and her breath they- It is hot, isn't it?" This last he Below, a great broad stretch of ocean, says hastily, as if ashamed of his aniis coming rather fitfully from between her parted lips.

Dysart follows to is dying?"

coom, Griselda having preceded her.

Through the huge dark hall and up the wide, moldy staircase they follow their guide, noting as they do so the decay leafdom, just bursting into the fuller life. it incumbent on her to return his glance m, and then reaches the small fishing vil- for you, one cannot say where we should because of those "who will never come like progress, grinding through the dusty door ack to the town." Along the white road, that gleams The little episode is over; the young man stairs or to have your tea here?" demands the harsh voice of the housekeep-the bold, circumvents her. "Down stairs," she says, coldly, "when send a maid to help us to unpack our trunks. "There are no maids in this house," replies Mrs. Grunch, sullenly. "You must either attend to each other or let me help turn a dismayed glance on each other. 'It is charming'" says the younger girl. Anything more dreary, more unfriendly. "No maids!" says Griselds. "None," briefly. "And my room? Oh-is this mine. or Miss Dysart's?"

"How dark it is," says Griselda, a "All charming, far better nervous thrill running through her, as than I ever dared hope for; and yet my they move onward beneath the shade of if it ain't big enough," with a derisive the mighty trees that clasp their arms glance round the huge, bare chamber. She turns a brilliant glance on her sis- between her and the glorious sky-thus yery pretty girl, half child, half woman, of the house. A beautiful old house apas fresh as the morning, and with eyes parently, of red brick, toned by age to a fike stars. She lifts one slender black-duller shade, with many gables, and overgloved hand, and placing it beneath her grown in parts by trailing ivy, the leaves is a touch of sadness round the lovely ground, bids them in a surly tone to lips, a mournful curve; indeed, a thought- alight. He is tired and cross, no doubt, fdlness too great for her years is stamped by the unusual work of the day. And on every feature. A tender, loving, yet presently they find themselves on the strong soul shines through the earnest threshold of the open hall door, hardly eyes, and when she smiles it is reluctant- knowing what to do next. The shambling ly, as if smiles all her life had been for- figure of a man about seventy, appeared presently from some dusky doorway, he "Oh! that reminds me," said Miss Dy | waves to them to enter the room, and,

REPUBLICAN.

LAMATH COUNTY, OREGON, JANUARY 30, 1902.

EVENTS OF THE DAY

FROM THE FOUR QUARTERS OF THE WORLD.

A Comprehensive Review of the Important Happenings of the Past Week Presented in a Condensed Form Which is Most Likely to Prove of Interest to Our Many Readers

Fire at Goldfield, Colo., caused damage estimated at $20,000.

Manila banks refuse to accept deposits of Mexican silver.

"He looks dying," she says, at last, Colorado union miners have demandspeaking with a heavy sigh, and going nearer to Griselda, as if unconsciously ed the discharge of nonunion men. seeking a closer companionship. "Did you

inta.

ray.

1 the

A man and his wife have been arrested in San Francisco for counterfeiting. ever see such a face? Don't you think Eight of the colleries in the Hazel-"Who can tell?" says Griselda. "I on district, Pa., were closed because o might think it, perhaps, but for his eyes. They"-she shudders-"they look as if high water.

they couldn't die. What terrible eyes It is estimated that the loss by the they are! and what a vile old man alto recent fires in Columbus, Ohio, will gether! Good heavens! how did he dare reach $500,000. o to insuit us! I told you, Vera"-with rising excitement-"I warned you that our coming here would be only for evil." The wheat crop of the Pacific Northwest for 1901 was, approximately, 44,-A moment later a knock comes to the 000,000 bushels.

> Governor Taft says 15,000 soldiers will be enough in the Philippines before the close of the year.

Five hundred miners at the West End "Here" is on Vera's lips, but Griselda, colliery, at Mocanaqua, Pa,. went on strike because nonunion workmen were we get some hot water, and when you employed.

> All formalities for the purchase of the Danish West Indies have been completed and the treaty will be signed in a few days.

A Cincinnati bookkeeper is almost a good.

"Both yours and Miss Dysart's; sorry Governor Taft says the situation in the Philippines is encouraging.

"You mean, we are to have but one Hon. Franklin Murphy was inaugu-

Charges have been brought against

A Filipino force in Batangas prov-officials of the Mineworkers' Union.

"Just that, miss. Neither more nor rated governor of New Jersey. And good enough, too, for those Prince Ching will represent China at the coronation of King Edward.

"Leave the room," says Griselds, with a sudden, sharp intonation, so unexpected, so withering, that the woman, after a surprised stare, turns and withdraws.

"Will you be pleased to come down

CHAPTER III. A few days later the girls are sitting the garden. It is a beautiful day. Even through the eternal shadows that let. encompass the garden, and past the thick yew hedge, the hot beams of the sun are stealing "A day for gods and goddesses," cries Griselda, springing suddenly to her feet, and flinging far from her on the greensward the musty volume she had purloined from the mustier library about an hour

m between us?"

less.

85-islature 'Perhaps I'll never come back. The HENRY C. PAYNE. New Postmaster General who took oath of office January 15.

Trusted Bookkeeper Short From $160,000 to Asked in Aid of Railroad Across Alaska alleged shortage in the books of Theo- a bill before both the senate and the dore Braemer, who resigned last Sun- house granting it a right of way for a quarter of a million short in his ac-counts. He contends that it is the re-sult of errors and has made most of it sult of errors and has made most of it leged a shortage of from $160,000 to to Port Clarence, on the end of the Sew-$400,000, extending over a period of ard peninsula, it is working very vigor-20 years, and declared that Mr. Brae-mer had turned over all of his propure. It is asking for a land grant simerty and chattels in trust, pending an ilar to that extended to the severatranscontinental roads in the United

The exact route proposed to be covered by this road has been surveyed by ney, and Joseph W. O'Hara, attorney the company, and has been inspected for the J. & F. Schroth company, by representatives of the geological sur-It starts on the western shore of the case, the Schroths refused to Cook inlet, just north of Kanishak bay, Oregon. leading westward from Iliamna lake past Kakwok, and northwestward

Dix to the amount of $12,000 has been and has been with the Schroths 27 years, most of the time receiving $25 Kuskokwim, and northwestward to John D. Rockefeller contemplates cent years about twice that much as Yukon, thence up Anvik river, and over john D. Rockefeller contemplates giving the Chicago University $26,000,-did a business of about $1,000,000 a sound; thence by Nome to Port Clar-United States Senators Dolliver and Allison were re-elected by the Iowa leg-induction were re-elected by the Iowa leg-was small, but not covered by insurance. The company asserts that the main The scaffold and other arrangements artery of commerce is closed by ice durare completed for the hanging of Daling the winter months, and that a rail ton and Wade in Portland on January way from Cook Inlet to Behring sea is 31.

NO. 43.

NEWS OF THE STATE

TEMS OF INTEREST FROM ALL PARTS OF OREGON.

commercial and Financial Happenings of Importance-A Brief Review of the Growth and Improvements of the Many Industries Throughout Our Thriving Commonwealth -Latest Market Report.

Oil has been struck in quite a large quantity near Myrtle Creek

The telephone line from Union to La Grande has changed hands.

The net valuation of taxable property in Baker county is $3,523,346.

Hop buyers at Salem are offering 1214 to 1216 cents per pound.

The postoffice at Independence has been moved into new quarters.

Extensive tests are being made with silage at the agricultural college.

The mayor of Pendleton has ordered slot machines of all descriptions out.

A franchise has been granted for the erection of an electric light plant at Burns

Asbestos has been discovered in paying quantities in Josephine county, near the state lien.

The Salem school district levied an 8 mill tax for running expenses and 1 mill for a sinking fund.

Preparations have begun for the building of a large saw mill on Foots creek near Grants Pass.

Extensive preparations are being made for a thorough test of the existence of oil near Monmoth.

The expenditures of the agricultural college for 1901 were $41,507.93. Total receipts, $63,285.93.

About 400 were in attendance at the annual convention of the Knights of Pythias in Pendleton this week.

Farmers around Ontario are making arrangements to import ferrets to clean out the gophers, which are very numer-

A new Degree of Honor lodge has been instituted at Milton, in Eastern

A new lumber company has been formed at Wasco. It has a capital of across Tikchik lake to Kalmakof on the $10,000.

> A company has been formed at Huntington, with $1,000,000, to enter the oil industry in that section

The Baker City council is considering the proposition of paving the streets with chemically prepared wood blocks.

A small fire in La Grande a few days ago destroyed some property.

$400,000 in His Accounts. Cincinnati, Jan. 24 .- Sensational reports were published here today of an Trans-Alaskan Railway Company has examination of the books by experts. Braemar denied that there was any defalcation, but admitted that he had States.

A CINCINNATI SENSATION.

turned over $72,000 in personal prop-erty to Harland Cleveland, his attor-While Braemar talked freely about vey. say anything, and the attorneys were ince, Philippine islands, surrendered. also reticent. Contract for repairs to the transport Braemer is about 45 years of age.

per week as bookkeeper, and in re- Holy Cross Mission and Anvik, on the year, which was collected by Brae-Nippert became the attorney of his Kamishak bay is said to be open heirs, who instituted an investigation throughout the winter, and therefore All of the convicts who escaped from of the company, which finally culmin affords a valuable terminal for the road ated in a meeting of all interested and its steamship connections. parties last Sunday, at which Braemer resigned, and from which the sensational reports of today emanated. The experts insist that they cannot complete their work for two

ANOTHER LAND GRANT. Bills Now in Congress. Washington, Jan. 23 .- Now that the always is; nobody ever tells quite every-And besides- Oh! Oh, Vera! thing. Oh! what has happened?" Griselda clutches in an agonized fashion at the leather side of the crazy old chariot, which has toppled over to the left side and stands in a decidedly dissipated position. The ancient driver, presumably asleep, had let the horses wander at their own sweet will, and they be ing old and sleepy, too, the result was that they had dragged two of the wheels up on a steep bank and nearly capsized the carriage.

"Oh, thank you," says Miss Dysart, leaning forward and addressing with earnest glance and heightened color the young man who had risen-descended, perhaps, sounds pleasanter and more orthodoxlike a good angel from somewhere-the wood on their right, no doubt. A fishing rod, lying on the road where he had flung it when preparing for his ignoble battle with those poor old horses, proclaims the fact that he has been whipping the stream that gleams here and there brilliantly through the interstices of the trees. "Oh, no," says he, lifting his hat, "you mustn't thank me. It was really pothing. Poor brutes, I think they were seleep:

a most extravagant menage, and, dying, left you paupers." He almost hisses out the last cruel word. Griselda starts to her feet.

"The honesty of which you boast is not everything," she says, in a burning tone. "Let me remind you that courtesy, too, has its claims upon you."

"Hah! The word pauper is unpleasing, it seems," says he, unmoved. "Before we quit this point, however, one last word. You are beneath my roof; I shall expect you to conform to my rules. I see no one. permit no one to enter my doors save my son. I will not have people spying out the nakedness of the land, and speculating over what they are pleased to call my eccentricities. They will have me rich, but I am poor, poor, I tell you. Always remember that."

write to you because you are the only Griselda's features having settled them selves into a rather alarming expression. very long life. Miss Dysart hurriedly breaks into the conversation.

"If you will permit us," she says, faintly, "we should like to go to our rooms, to rest a little. It has been a long journer." "Her uncle turns and touches the bell odist friends who reside in Cleveland, near him, and immediately, so immediately as to suggest the idea that she has | Ohio.

the federal penitentiary on who knows what demons inhabit that unisland have been recaptured. The senate has begun debate on Philippine tariff bill. She presses a sentimental kiss up-

More revolutionary movements are reported in China.

lightly down toward the hedge. Mineworkers of America is in session. She runs through one of the openings in the hedge, crosses the graveled path. Three of the 11 convicts who escaped and, mounting the parapet, looks over to examine the other side of the wall on from McNeil island prison have been which she stands, after which she com- captured. mences her descent. One little foot she

The isthmian canal commission live into a convenient hole in it, and then ports in favor of the purchase of the the other into a hole lower down, and so Panama canal.

anguered and she reaches terra firma. #A bank cashier of Great Falls, Mont. and finds nothing between her and the is short in his accounts, due to gamlesired cool of the lovely woods. bling in stocks.

the dark, sweetly scented home of the Portland exported one-fifth of the engiant trees, with a green, soft pathway tire wheat shipped from the United nder her foot, and, though she knows it States in December.

The combine of all the leading steam-It is an entrancing hour. She has stopped short in the middle of a broad, green ship companies is still under discussion space encompassed by high hills, though by those interested.

with an opening toward the west, when General Bell has determined on war All the interested parties state that this uncomfortable conviction grows clear to her that she is lost. She is not of the in the strictest sense in Batangas provnervous order, however, and keeping a ince. Philippine islands.

good heart looks hopefully around her. A great naval battle took place in Far away over there, in the distance, the harbor of Panama, in which the public. stands a figure lightly lined against the government lost heavily. Governor massive trunk of a sycamore, that most unmistakably declares itself to be a man. Alban was killed. His back is turned to her, and he is bend-A great diamond field is said to have ing over something, and, so far as she can been discovered in Idaho. judge thus remote from him, his clothing

Sixty lives were lost by a boiler exgamekeeper, perhaps, or a-well, someplosion in a Spanish village. thing or other of that sort. At all events Eleven men of the Second infantry, in the Philippines, are missing. Peace negotiations between Boers and

To a Poet. To learn poetry "for repetition" ie British are under way at Brussels.

doubtless a means of cultivating a Secretary Root favors disposing of knowledge of literature, but schoolboys government transports on the Pacific. sometimes regard the authors of poems Toe military will play a large part learned as taskmasters and personal n the entertainment of Prince Henry. enemies. This view is amusingly ex-The isthmian commission recompressed in a letter which was found mends the purchase of the Panama caamong the papers of the venerable German poet Gelbel. It was written nal. to him by some schoolboys of Lubeck, Governor Geer does not consider the and is signed "Karl Beckmann, II.

confession of Wade anything in Dal-Klasse." The letter is printed in Litton's favor. erature. After stating that two boys A woman insurgent leader has been had been flogged because they could not learn Herr Geibel's "Hope of pine islands. Spring," the letter reads as follows: We suppose you did not think of such Fresh troops will be sent to the Phil-things when you wrote the poem. The ppines to take the place of those now Herr Lehrer says it is a very beautiful n the islands. poem, but there are so many very beau-

The loss of life in the Mexican earthtiful poems and we are obliged to learn quake, while heavy, was not so great them. Therefore we beg and entreat as at first reported. you, esteemed Herr Geibel, make no more beautiful poems. And to make The per capita consumption of spirits it worse we have to learn the blogin the United States is smaller than raphy of every poet, what year he was any other of the great nations. born in, and what year he died in. We Reginald C. Vanderbilt, of New poet still living, and we wish you a York, has come into possession of $7, 500,000 left him by his father.

J. E. Green, a St. Louis mechanic,

Senator Mark Hanna wears as a claims that he invented the airship worth several hundred dollars. It was made famous by M. Santos Dumont, in watch charm a gold nugget which is Paris, and that the drawings were presented to him by a number of Methstolen from him and taken to France 10 vears ago.

the only practicable method of opening or three weeks, and counsel say that up to settlement the western plains and reliable statement can be made The annual convention of the United until that time. In workers of America is in session. No reports of similar character ing means of transportation at all seariver valleys of Alaska, and of furnish-ever created such a sensation in this sons of the year. city, as Mr. Braemer always has been The snowfall along the proposed regarded as a man of the highest busroute is light, and a railroad, it is said, iness and social standing. He owns one of the finest residences in the can be operated without interruption. The company claims to be asking for city, and it is furnished with all that art could supply. In all of the sensathis grant solely to aid in the constructional reports that have been pubtion of the road, in the hope of developlished no reference is made to him ing the agricultural resources of the inas a fast man or of bad habits, such as are usually coupled with such sensations. The attorneys and other innow practically cut off through the winterested persons will give no assur-ance that the report of the experts ter months. The company does not on the examination of the books ask for any mineral rights, nor does it expect immediate returns from the will be made public when completed. lands. It appreciates that it will take as they state that every possible difyears to bring to the people of the ference has already been adjusted satisfactorily by the property that United States the knowledge that in Braemer has turned over in trust. Alaska can be had homesteads from which can be gathered the necessaries they expected after the meeting last of life. Sunday, at which Braemer resigned, that all differences would be settled OBSERVE M'KINLEY'S BIRTHDAY without the matter ever becoming

Boer Commando Captured.

London, Jan. 24 .- Lord Kitchener, in a dispatch from Johannesburg, Transvaal colony, says General Mathuen by Governor Nash, of Ohio, has received overtook a Boer ocmmando near Boschhearty response from the governors of poort, and after a running fight of eight all the states and territories invited to miles, he captured all their wagons join in asking the people to properly and cattle, and 24 Bores.

observe the 59th anniversary of the General Bruce Hamilton made night march against General Botha, birth of William McKinley. Nearly near Wilbank, but the Beor commander every governor has either issued a prochad left the camp when the British lamation or semi-officially requested reached the spot. The latter, however. that there should be memorial services captured 27 prisoners. on the Sunday preceeding January 26th be there received, and that all people London, Jan. 24 .- The Daily Mail testify by their voluntary offerings their publishes an alarmist dispatch from love and devotion to the dead president. Madrid giving the opinions of various prominent politicians concerning the gloomy outlook in Spain and their schools will hold special exercises and give to the fund. fears that the coronation of King Al-In any community where there is no fonso next May may be the signal for a revolution. In addition to the Carlocal auxiliary of the McKinley Memolist menacings "Weyler, the Spanish rial Association, contributions by busicaptured in Laguna province, Philip- Boulanger, is troubling the waters and ness, fraternal or labor organizations, playing for his own hand." schools or churches, may be sent to the land, Ohio. The funds will be applied Kalispel, Mont., Jan. 24 .- Fire started this morning in a restaurant and tomb to William McKinley, over his in a very short time had spread allast resting place at Canton "Ohio. most over a block. An entire row of Judge William R. Day, ex-secretary of buildings was destroyed. The loss is state, is president of the association. figured at $10,000.

Spain May Have a Revolution.

Fire at Kalispel.

Kaiser's Gift to Harvard.

Berlin, Jan. 24 .- The gift of Emperor William to Harvard University will be much larger than was at first supposed. The Emperor's gift consists of casts and bronzes, illustrating every class of the German plastic arts from the Romanesque period to the Rennaisance. The entire cost of the collection will be defrayed from the Emperor's private purse, and it is estimated at about 500,000 marks.

Mrs. Henrietta Harrington, an early pioneer, died at her home at Ely, Clackamas county, a few days ago, aged 86 years.

The Oregon Pine Company, with headquarters at Astoria, has filed articles of incorporation. Capitalization, $50,000.

Woodmen of the World are preparing to have a big time at Pendleton April terior and affording adequate transpor- 21-22, when 1,114 candidates will tation to the remote sections that are initiated.

Portland Markets

Wheat-Walla Walla, 59@60c; bluestem, 61c; valley, 59% @60c.

Barley-Feed. $17@17.50; brewing. $17.50@18 per ton.

Oats-No. 1 white, $1@1.10; gray, 95c@$1.

Flour-Best grades, $2.70@3.30 per barrel; graham, $2.50.

Millstuffs-Bran, $17 per ton; middlings, $20; shorts, $18; chops, $17. Hay-Timothy, $11@12; clover, $7 @7.50; Oregon wild hay, $5@6 per Mutton-Lambs, 8%@31/2c. gross; dressed, 614c per pound; sheep, wethers, 21% @31/2c, gross; dressed, 6@61/2c per pound; ewes, 3% @3%c, gross; dressed, 6@61/2c per pound.

Hogs-Gross, 5%c; dressed, 6@6%c per pound.

Veal-8@9c per pound.

ton.

Beef-Gross, cows, 31/2c; steers, 31/ @4c; dressed, 3@7c per pound. Butter - Creamery, 25@27c per pound; dairy, 18@20c; store, 1240 15c.

Eggs-20@22%c for cold storage: 22@25c for Eastern; 28@30c for fresh In many states, notably Kansas, public Oregon.

Poultry-Chickens, mixed, $2.50@3; hens, $3.50@4; 8½@9c per pound; springs, 9@10c per pound; $2.50@3 per dozen; ducks, $5@6 for young; geese, $6.50@7.50 per dozen; turkeys, live, 11@12½c; dressed, 13@14c per pound. Cheese-Full cream, twins, 130 13½c; Young America, 14@15c.

Potatoes-Best Burbanks, 85c@$1.10 to the erection of a fitting memorial per cental; ordinary, 70@80c. Hops-8@10c per pound.

Wool-Valley, 11@14c; Eastern Or-egon, 8@12%c; mohair, 21@21%c per pound

A New York syndicate is negotiating for 180,000 acres of Nova Scotia timber

Sir Ernest Cassel placed at the dis-000,000 to be used in the crusade against consumption in England.

Gov. Van Sant, of Minnesota, says London, Jan. 23 .- Lord Kitchener the entire northwest is back of him in reports that since January 13 31 Boers his fight against the Northern Pacific were killed, 13 were wounded, 170 were merger, and that he will begin action made prisoners and 41 surrendered. in the courts at once.

land.

a bill for the union of Oklahoma and Indian Territory as a state, to be known posal of King Edward a fund of $1 .as the state of Oklahoma.

Kitchener's Weekly Report.

Bill for Joint Statehood. Washington, Jan. 23 .- Representative Stevens, of Texas, today introduced treasurer, Myron T. Herrick, Cleve-

Move to Mark the Day by Services and Contributions to Memorial Fund.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 24 .- The request in all the churches, that conrtibutions