EDUNTY CONVENTION.

The republican county convention hext Saturday will name the winners in the election to follow next June. While there will probably be a lively contest for a few of the nominations, those whose aspirations are at that time defeated, promise to submit to the will of the majority amicably and unite in achieving victory for the whole ticket in June. All wanting office cannot be gratified at one time CALL and those who are disappointed now will doubtless have their turns at a future election. From the day of monious and energetic effort to win. With such action, victory is doubly

We have heard of no opposition to Postmaster A. Castel and Capt. J. W. Siemens, two able and very popular citizens, for the offices of clerk and sheriff respectively. While there may be other candidates for those places, we have heard of none, and it now looks as though they would be have we heard of any opposition to the re-nomination of County Treasurer Van Valkenburg. There may be contests for some of the other nominations. The judgeship, in particular, has inspired some rivalry, there being four aspirants thus far in the field. All are strong men and the lucky one is a sure winner.

The state delegation should and will ardently work for the re-nomination of State Treasurer Chas. S. especially anxious to have accomplished. A delegation to the congressional convention promises to be solid for Hon. Thos. H. Tongue, the bent. If this county is able to sewho served most acceptably in that capacity two years ago, will doubtless
