In a recent interview Ex-Secretary Long gives the opinion that Roosevelt will be the republican presidential nominee in 1904.

W. J. Bryan intimates that he will not be a candidate for the presidency again. Refusal to enter the race in advance, will let him down easier when his party fails to consider his name in that connection later on.

There never was a time when idle men were so scarce as they are now. No one who wants to work needs to be long without employment at good wages. This is true everywhere in the United States. Everybody is busy and prosperous—a strong contrast to conditions during Cleveland's reign, and very different from the conditions that would have followed had Bryan and Bryanism been allowed to prevail.

W. J. Furnish quit the democratic party in 1896 because he could not swallow the new policies it had assumed. It is creditable for a man to change his political affiliations to accord with his convictions and conscience.

Hon. Thos. H. Tongue is one of the most busy men in congress, and his time and efforts are devoted almost exclusively to furthering the interests of his district and state. He is a valuable representative and should be returned by a majority that will show due appreciation of his excellent services.

One of the principal planks in the democratic state platform opposes retention of the Philippines,—favors hauling down the American flag there and letting the islands go to the devil or elsewhere. Many democrats in Klamath do not agree with this retrogressive, anti-Jeffersonian doctrine, and will express themselves accordingly at the polls next month.

The reason why Oregon ought not to have a democratic governor for the Lewis and Clark Centennial is that the democratic party takes its stand against expansion; and our possession of Oregon is the fruit of expansion. That party has gone back on the Jeffersonian doctrine of expansion, as in 1896 it went back on the Jeffersonian doctrine of sound money. If we believe in expansion and in retention of the Philippine Islands, we should not elect a governor who leads that party which would check expansion and "graft" them (the islands) their independence.—Portland Oregonian.

To lower the price of meats, Hearst's papers urge that the tariff should be removed from beef, pork and mutton, instead of pursuing legal action to overthrow the meat trust. Admitting live stock free of duty from foreign countries is the democratic remedy. This would work incalculable injury to stock growers, but not lessen the power of a combination of rapacious packing houses, which, were the tariff removed, would still control the slaughtering and distribution of meats. The stockman needs protection against foreign invasion and competition, and without injury to him, consumers can secure the benefit of cheaper meat by smashing the meat trust, which promises to be speedily done through a legal process already instituted.

The republican party stands for progress and prosperity. The democratic party stands for retrogression and hard times. The latter party fosters policies which would shatter confidence and stability and deter industrial and commercial development. Wherever democracy has power, whether high or low in official circles, it casts its weight in opposition to any forward movement or any innovation looking to the improvement of social, educational or business conditions. We doubt if the democratic party always likes to act the role of pessimist, be the agent for inertia and paralysis and be regarded as the political skull and crossbones of the nation. But it feels that it must do so in order to properly oppose republican principles of progress. Democracy is, indeed, in a sorry plight and its leaders show a creditable amount of nerve in asking people to support it.

Whether or not Klamath county is to have a county high school, is an important question for voters to decide on at the June election.

All thinking men will agree as to the inestimable, educational benefit such a school will be to the county, and all will agree that to the children especially it will be a gift of more value than gold. Then why not have it.

There is but one objection that can be raised against the high school, viz: That it will increase taxation. Such an objection is a very trivial one, as will be seen by any one who will take his pencil and figure out what the cost will really be. The assessed valuation of Klamath county last year was over $2,300,000 and a tax of only one mill on the dollar will bring for a high school $2,300. A mill on a dollar would be ten cents on a hundred dollars. Ten cents is merely the cost of a cigar, and a dollars worth of cigars will pay taxes on $1,000.

The first year the school building will have to be provided by purchase or rent, but after the first year that expense will be avoided and the cost of a teacher and fuel will only have to be considered. After the first year therefore, the high school tax will not exceed one-half a mill on the dollar and perhaps no more than a fourth of a mill.

The valuation of the county last year, $2,300,000, was an increase in valuation over what it was the year before of over $300,000, and we may safely calculate that this year, and for several years to come the annual valuation will increase in the same proportion. As every one sees, as soon as the government timber and farming land is all taken up, (and it is being rapidly taken,) the county will be immensely rich. As a matter of fact it will be one of the wealthiest counties in the state. For the children, who, a few years hence, are to receive this magnificent heritage, let us fit them for the enviable future they will enjoy, by providing for them the best educational advantages in our power.

EMMITT IS ALL RIGHT.

The candidates on the legislative ticket from Wasco county will receive a handsome vote in this county. Mr. Burgess is fairly well known in this county and is highly spoken of. N. Whealdon is a personal acquaintance of the Journal, and, unless he has departed from the way in which he was taught in his youth, the people of this district could not have made a better choice. Mr. Emmitt is too far away for us to know much about him, but he is well spoken of by those who know him.—Creek County Journal.

The Examiner can safely recommend Hon. R. A. Emmitt, republican nominee for Joint Representative, to the voters of Crook county, as a man of strict integrity, broad views, and one who will carefully guard the interests of his constituency in the Oregon Assembly.—Lakeview Examiner.

CRATER LAKE AT WASHINGTON.

(Ashland Tidings.) One of the factors of no small influence in the campaign of furthering the passage of the Crater Lake National Park bill through congress, according to advices received from the National Capital, has been a large and beautiful painting by Mrs. Grace R. Fountain, formerly of this city, who now conducts a studio in Portland and whose Crater Lake pictures have attracted wide attention. The place of exhibition of the painting is in the Geological survey, Prof. J. S. Diller of that department having taken a special interest in the matter. Congressman Tongue was much impressed with its artistic execution and had the picture taken to the Capitol building to be viewed by Speaker D. B. Henderson of the house and arrangements were also about completed to have an audience with President Roosevelt who had been interested in the subject and whom it was desired to have inspect Mrs. Fountain's painting, the display of which in Washington has according to the same advices, stated above, also been the cause of a number of scientific gentlemen there canceling a proposed trip to Honolulu and deciding to make the trip to view Crater Lake for themselves during the coming summer.

Dangerous if Neglected.

Burns, cuts and other wounds often fail to heal properly if neglected and become troublesome sores. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve prevents such consequences. Even where delay has aggravated the injury DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve effects a cure.

"I had a running sore on my leg thirty years," says H. C. Hartly, Yankee town, Ind. "After using many remedies, I tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A few boxes healed the sore." Cures all skin diseases. Piles yield to it at once. Beware of counterfeits.
