Don't neglect to give the high school proposition a favorable vote at the coming election. Acquisition of such a school is of vital importance to the educational interests of the county, and its cost will be little and felt by no one.

People may rest assured of intelligent, equitable assessments if the office of county assessor goes into the hands of Chas. Drew. He is a young man not only of education, but of solid, practical sense, with an understanding of values throughout the county.

No one will feel like offering an apology when he votes a straight republican ticket. From coroner to congressman, there is not a weak spot, nor a nominee whose personal titness does not appeal strongly to voters. It is a pleasure to support men so well qualified in all the requisites for public service.

STATE TREASURER MOORE.

The following complimentary reférence appeared in a recent issue of the Portland Oregonian, and will be gladly read and approved by all citizens of Klamath county?

"The administration of State Treasurer Moore has not only been above reproach, but it has met the inqualified commendation of business men and newspapers all over the state. Among the new features which he has introduced into the freasury department is a system of keeping the records of notes given by borrowers from the school funds. By his system he can tell at the close of each day's work the exact amount that is standing out on loans, can tell how much of the fund is loaned in each county, and can ascertain in an instant the amount due mon any particular note

"By diligent effort, he has collected all arrearages of interest on loans. thus not only increasing the annual apportionment of school money, but making the loans more secure by reason of the interest being paid up."

It is a great honor for Klamath county to have the third highest officer in the state and the voters, irrespective of party, will doubtless pines. Do they expect that their show their appreciation of such honor disloyalty to their country will have by voting for Chas. S. Moore for state any more advantageous result than freasurer.
