R. W. Marple expects to have his line of stages running between here and Ager on regular time next week.

The annual school meeting for the election of school officers and attending to other business will be held next Monday.

We understand that C. H. Withrow of this place was recently appointed U. S. Commissioner by the U. S. circuit court.

There will be only eighteen democratic members of the next Oregon legislature—six in the senate and twelve in the house.

Robt. Conner of San Francisco was here this week and closed a deal for the purchase of the 160-acre ranch of E. E. Quimby of Wood River.

The Ashland Fruit Association has commenced doing business. It is now handling the strawberry crop which is reported to be very large.

The seventh annual commencement exercises of the Southern Oregon State Normal school began at Ashland last Friday and finished yesterday.

Rev. N. J. Harbit lost two blank marriage certificates on the road between here and Swan Lake yesterday. The finder is requested to return them to him.

It is reported that the Diamond Match Company of Chicago has bought 50,000 acres of timber land in Northern California, being in Butte and adjoining counties.

S. M. Beach and G. D. Brown, who are teaching schools in Poe Valley, were in town Saturday. They are making preparations for a celebration on the Fourth in Poe Valley.

Mr. A. T. Wilson and Miss S. F. Michael, both of Dairy, were granted a marriage license by the county clerk last Saturday, and were married by Justice O'Brien on Sunday.

Portland is in the clutches of a strike of employees of planing mills, which is doing great damage and causing much annoyance. Each side has boycotted the other and involved sympathetic interests.

We have this week received a letter from H. P. Galarneau who, with his wife and son, is traveling with Moore's Comedians. The letter was dated at Layton, Calif. He reports that the company is doing as well as could have been expected.

Tuesday morning Sheriff Summers arrested Frank Smith on a charge of selling liquor to an Indian by the name of Ben Wright. The sheriff says he was a witness to the unlawful act and promptly took the offender, the Indian and the bottle into custody.

Lakeview Examiner: There is a land contest on in the local office this week. The contest is over a homestead in Ft. Klamath section and the parties interested are B. J. Desmond and James S. Gordon. L. F. Conn and C. Unbach are attorneys for the respective parties.

The railroad now building from near Klamath in this direction, and which, according to report, is to be constructed as far as Pokagama by the first of August, is now employing a large number of men estimated at about 400, and the work is being pushed ahead as fast as possible.

Regular session of circuit court, booked for this week, did not materialize owing to the inability of Judge Benson to arrive here in time from Lakeview. However, there were no cases on the docket needing immediate attention, and the session is omitted without causing inconvenience to either litigants or lawyers.

Ashland Tidings: Owen McKendree and wife of Sprague River Valley, are in Ashland, visiting Mrs. McKendree's parents Mr. and Mrs. C. Klum. Mr. McKendree reports crops and the range in Klamath county in extra fine condition and everything looking very prosperous for the county east of the mountains.

Articles of incorporation have been filed for the organization of the Klamath County Fair Association, whose purpose is to hold annual county fairs at Klamath Falls. Preparations will soon be on foot to hold the first fair here next fall. It is a worthy enterprise and will be the source of much future enjoyment and benefit.

A. J. Nelson, who was tried in the circuit court at Lakeview last week on a charge of embezzling funds from Lake county while serving as sheriff from 1898 to 1900, was found guilty, the amount of the embezzlement having been fixed by the jury at $3,000.

The case has been appealed to the supreme court, and consequently sentence has been withheld.

J. A. McIntire of Windsor, Mo., arrived at Klamath Falls Sunday. He is here to assist C. E. Dutro, prospective proprietor of the Ashland-Klamath Falls stage route, in managing that line. Mr. McIntire will look after the welfare of the Ashland end of the route. The line will be newly equipped and made first-class in all respects. The new management takes charge July 1.

Leon Lewis left Monday for Montague to meet and accompany home his mother who is returning from her sad trip to Eureka Springs, Arkansas. It will be remembered that she went there several months ago with her husband for the benefit of his health and that he died shortly after reaching there. His remains now rest in the cemetery at Eureka Springs. It is expected that Mrs. Lewis and son will arrive here today.

Lakeview Examiner: T. F. Dunaway, vice president of the N. C. O., returned to Reno on May 29th from a visit to New York. The Reno Gazette says that while away Mr. Dunaway ordered of the Baldwin Locomotive Works, several new engines built with wide frames and cylinders, so that they can be readily and cheaply changed to standard gauge. This evidently means that at some time in the future, the N. C. O. will be changed into a standard gauge.

Maj. Worden and wife and daughter, Miss Mae, departed Tuesday morning for Ashland, where they will meet Mrs. W. E. Worden and son and the former's father, A. L. Sargent, who have arrived from Delta, Ohio. Mrs. C. E. Worden and daughter leave Ashland on a six-weeks' trip to Salem, Portland and Newport, while Maj. Worden will be accompanied home by his Ohio relatives, who expect to become residents of this place. W. E. Worden and Mrs. Sargent will arrive from Ohio later on.

The triumphant and overwhelming vote in favor of a county high school in this county, indicates that the subject will as soon as possible receive due attention by the county court and commissioners, and that very likely before next winter the school will be in full operation. The high school voted for in Crook county did not receive such a large majority as this county gave, yet it is to be hoped it will be sufficient. As to the citizens of Klamath county, they are to be congratulated on the favorable result.

By telegraph on Monday we learned that Bailey Tiffany, formerly a resident of Klamath Falls and since then one of the guards at the penitentiary, was on Monday morning shot and instantly killed during a revolt and effort to escape by the prisoners. Two others of the guards were killed at the same time, whose names were not given. Nor whether during the affray any of the prisoners were killed or made their escape. Further particulars will be received later. Mr. Tiffany leaves a family at Salem where he was much respected and esteemed. He was a nephew of Mrs. Marple of this place.

Another important meeting of the stockholders of the Merrill Mutual Canal Company will be held at Merrill on Monday, the 30th day of the month. So far in this important undertaking, everything appears favorable towards the commencement and early completion of it. The careful and thorough investigation of the route to be taken has shown that the promoters are in earnest and determined, and that the money to construct it will not be lacking. It is to be hoped that the same energy and good judgment thus far shown by the promoters will continue until the canal is completed and the 40,000 acres of land under it, will be among the richest and most valuable in the county.

The weather here is now perfect and the influx of pleasure-seekers and those who wish to escape the mid-summer heat of lower altitudes will soon begin. The coming and going of tourists will last, as usual, until late in the fall. Crater lake, whose prominence has grown lately as a result of the act making it a national park, is the chief attraction, though it will not be easily accessible, owing to snow, until late in July. But Odessa, Pelican bay, Spring creek and Wood river, affording an agreeable climate, splendid scenery and excellent fishing, will attract tourists this month and the crowds at these popular resorts will increase as the season advances. A few weeks' outing among the crystal streams and snow-capped mountains of Klamath county is a recreative diversion which no one should miss.

CHITWOOD-APPLEGATE.

The marriage of Mr. Charles C. Chitwood to Miss Minnie A. Applegate, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Applegate, took place yesterday at the residence of the bride's parents at Swaa lake, there being about thirty invited guests to witness the impressive ceremony, which was performed by Rev. N. J. Harbit of the M. E. church.

Defly arranged flowers adorned the interior of the house, while a profusion of floral decorations added attractive beauty to the large portier, where the nuptial knot was tied. A wedding bell, made by the intertwining of buds, blossoms and vines, was suspended from the ceiling, and beneath this emblem of good luck the happy couple appeared at 12 o'clock, being preceded in the march by the officiating pastor and by Mr. Free and Miss Bessie Applegate, all keeping step to an appropriate musical accompaniment rendered from the piano and violin by Misses Evelyn and Elsie Applegate. Seated under the trees in front of the portico were the guests. After the ceremony and after congratulations, all gathered, on invitation, in the spacious dining room, where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served. Music, conversation and general sociability occupied attention until toward evening when the crowd dispersed.

The bride, cultured, but unassuming, with a liberal share of talents and accomplishments, is an exemplary young lady and deserves the popular esteem in which she is held. The groom, a member of the drug firm of Chitwood & Co., is regarded with high favor as a man of brains, integrity and affability. Each is deserving of the other, and their multitude of friends will join in wishing them a long, happy and prosperous wedded life.

Mr. and Mrs. Chitwood have commenced house-keeping in a residence on Conger avenue.

RUNAWAY ACCIDENT.

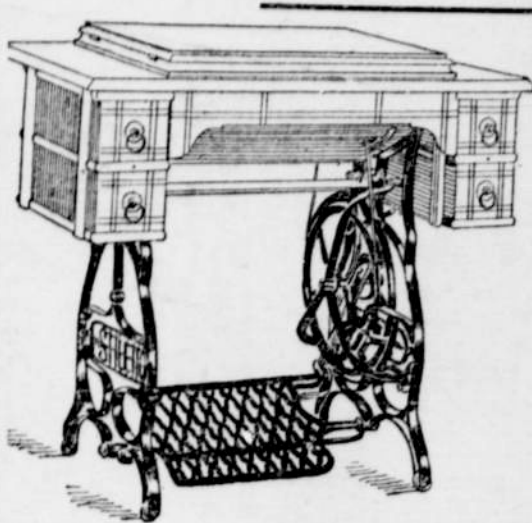

(Ashland Tidings.)
Robert Garrett, of this city, who is the superintendent of the Ashland-Klamath Falls stage route, was the principal in a serious runaway accident on the stage line yesterday on Keen Creek Mountain, about 18 miles east of town. Mr. Garrett was driving the west bound stage and in coming down the steep mountain grade at a narrow point in the road the singletree of the stage broke at the bolt, and the horses lunged forward. The driver pushed hard on the brake which also broke and Mr. Garrett was thrown forward from the seat of the vehicle to the ground, striking his head violently against a huge boulder that was imbedded in the side of the road, where he lay for some time. One of the horses attached to the stage, which had become loosened in the runaway, in his mad flight, returned along the road where Mr. Garrett was lying and was about trampling the prostrate driver under his hoofs when he seized his heavy whip and felled the animal with the butt of it. Passing travelers came to the assistance of Mr. Garrett and he was brought to Ashland yesterday morning about 11 o'clock, and his injuries were attended to by Dr. J. S. Parson. His face and neck were severely cut and his side badly bruised and some internal injuries were had in the fall. Mr. Garrett is resting easily today and it is thought he will improve.
